OVER THE LAND OF THE LONG LEAF PINE

SHORT NOTES OF INTEREST TO CAROLINIANS.

Concord.—Clarence Smith seven years of age, was instantly killed while on his way home from school, when he was struck by a large truck.

Gastonia.—S. O. Yarborough, a well-known citizen of the Long Shoals section of Lincoln county, and a brother of E. E. Yarborough, of Gastonia, was killed by a shifting engine on the Seaboard Air Line railroad.

Raleigh.—The State Food Administration making public a number of violators of the food regulations who have been disciplined following investigation of charges against them, announced that the black list order against J. L. Thompson Co., of Dunn, has been withdrawn.

Kinston.—Deserters, eight or ten of whom are banded together in the one locality, may have robbed the home of Edward Brown, one mile from Beaufort.

Wake Forest.—The Wake Forest unit of the student army training corps was officially inducted into the government service in front of the college administration building in the presence of a large number of townspeople.

Salisbury.—Mrs. H. C. Daniel has received word from a brother, Dick Russell, that he was injured some days ago in action in Europe, receiving a bullet wound in his right shoulder.

Winston-Salem.—Former Governor R. B. Glenn, who has been quite sick since his return from a business trip to New York, was reported to be resting more comfortably. A weak heart is the cause of his illness.

Kinston.—The army and navy have stripped the local fire department of nearly all its volunteer "runners with the machines." Thomas Moseley, the volunteer chief, says only 10 or 12 are left to answer alarms now. The city council at its next meeting will be asked to "draft" men suggested by the chief and foremen.

Asheville.—Black Mountain township, in the heart of the Blue Ridge mountains, reported to central headquarters that it had gone over the top in the fourth Liberty Loan campaign by subscribing five times the allotment, making a total subscription of $250,000 for this town in the township.

Special from Washington.—Representative Claude Kitchin is ill at his home and is believed to be a victim of Spanish influenza, while he had high temperature. He was reported as improved. Representative Zebulon Weaver of the Asheville district has also been a sufferer from the new malady in a mild form for several days. He has a room at Providence hospital, but is not dangerously ill.

Lumberton.—Alex Johnson, a young white man of the St. Paul's section, accidentally shot himself recently. Mr. Johnson was found in the woods near his home with a hole shot in his breast and he is not expected to recover.

Carthage.—A cablegram has just been received here announcing the safe arrival overseas of Lieut. Henry L. Graves of the Air Service Casual, with the American Expeditionary Forces in France.

Charlotte.—A contract for the construction within the shortest possible time of a salad oil plant here for Swift & Co. was awarded to a Charlotte contractor.

Lumberton.—In order to do all possible to prevent the spread of Spanish influenza in Lumberton, the mayor and board of aldermen have passed an ordinance quarantining against Charlotte, Wilmington, Fayetteville and all points in Bladen and Cumberland counties.

Kinston.—Petitioners for an injunction against the levying of a special tax for schools in the Kinston district having appealed from Judge Frank Daniels' order dissolving Judge W. P. Stacy's temporary injunction, the matter will come up for trial in the Supreme Court at Raleigh.

Reidsville.—William E. Price, of Madison, who attended the Plattsburg Training Camp with the U. S. C. unit, has been commissioned a second lieutenant, and ordered to Moravian College, Pa., as military instructor.

Wallace.—Since the opening of the market here 2,250,000 pounds of tobacco have been sold at the high prices which have prevailed throughout the State. Donations of tobacco by the farmers and warehousemen now amount to $937.

Fayetteville.—The eighth name was added to Cumberland county's honor roll when Machinist Raymond Mancha Gallup, U. S. N., son of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Gallup, of this city, died in a naval hospital at New London, Conn., after a brief illness.

FASSIFERN ACTIVITIES

(By Evelyn Eyrd Graham)

Wednesday afternoon, October 9th, the faculty and students had the pleasure again of hearing a most interesting talk on patriotism by Mrs. Gaston Westfeldt. "The Call of the Flag," so widely known, was written more than a year ago by Miss Westfeldt. It will be remembered that Mrs. Westfeldt honored the students with a visit last November. Fassifern students ardently sang her production.

Saturday night the Seniors gave a "Circus" for the benefit of the Fassifern Auxiliary of the Red Cross. The side shows and booths were a credit to the young ladies in the performance. Misses Caroline Yancey, Virginia Ryder and Dell Bernhardt, as clowns, amused the audience with different stunts during an intermission. Jane McMillan, as snake charmer, drew a large crowd. Clara McIver, Emma Troy King and Eloise Horner as "Blue Beard's wives", gave the audience a most uncanny feeling, so well did they act their part.

Leonora Blount was a peanut vendor. Claudia Kelly, Erskine Jarnett, Carrie Burnett and Alma Seagle were dancing midgets.

"Lenora Zadee" was the fortune teller. Emma Williamson, as clown, so stick candy. Polly Robinson gracefully walked "the ropes," carrying an umbrella made of different colors, which blended with her costume.

Margaret Huske, Frances Stuart and Jane Knight were in charge of several booths.

A sum of $22.40 was collected, which goes to prove that the entertainment was a great success financially as well as socially. Miss Mary Lybrook Lyster was chairman of the entertainment committee.

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the Rev. Dr. G. W. Belk, a Presbyterian evangelist, who is making his home in Hendersonville for the winter, held services at the school for the Fassifern students. Dr. Belk spoke from the 12th Chapter of Ecclesiastes, explaining each verse vividly, and bringing out the main thought so clearly. Dr. Belk's earnest appeal held the close attention of the audience.

RELIGIOUS SERVICE AT CEDARS

On last Sunday night, when services were not permitted at churches, Rev. L. F. Hindry, of St. Augustine, Fla., conducted religious services at the Cedars following the supper hour. A collection of $20 was taken for the Red Cross.

Bonds and Stamps

Henderson county has been equal to every patriotic call made on her during this war. We are too proud of our record to let it suffer. Four Liberty bonds are splendid investments, as all financiers will tell you. Buy them to the limit and let's save our good name.

After buying all the bonds you can, buy War Savings Stamps. Buy all you have pledged and some more. By so doing you make good investments and help your country.

Gnats of Many Varieties.

The gnat is only one of the many species of mosquito known to dipterists. Altogether there are no fewer than 35 as described as natives of Europe, while as many as 100 different varieties are scattered over the rest of the world. Of this large number some are known by the Spanish name of mosquito—that is, "little fly"—while others are content with the title of "gnat"; but from a scientific point of view there is no difference between the insect known under these different popular names.
