WEAVER WINS BY BIG MAJORITY SCHENCK'S RACE IS DOUBTFUL

The Asheville Citizen on Thursday morning stated that Weaver had been elected by a majority ranging around 1,000 votes.

J. E. Shipman, on Wednesday night, said that the race between Schenck and Hamrick for solicitor was close and that the outcome was uncertain, though, indications pointed to the election of Schenck.

Incomplete returns from various parts of the Tenth Congressional district look like the election of Weaver over Britt by a majority in the neighborhood of a thousand votes.

Weaver made gains in many sections over his vote two years ago.

The result of the race between Michael Schenck and Fred D. Hamrick for solicitor had not been definitely determined at this writing. The district is very close and the fact that Mr. Schenck's name appeared on the ticket after he had resigned as solicitor, it is feared, led to a little confusion at the expense of J. E. Shipman, who will receive the appointment of solicitor in the event Mr. Schenck received a majority of the votes for this office.

HOUSE TO BE REPUBLICAN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—With control of the house of representatives placed in the hands of the republicans by a majority of sixteen and probably more, the attention of the country tonight was centered on contests in three states—Michigan, Idaho and New Mexico—which will decide whether the democrats shall lose control of the senate as well.

GERMAN DELEGATION ARRIVES

Quarantine Against Influenza Till 17th

The Henderson county Board of Health met last Thursday and decided to extend the influenza quarantine two more weeks, which will take it thru Saturday, Nov. 16.

While conditions were not alarming it was decided to take precaution and, if possible, prevent the general prevalence over the county to an extent which other communities have suffered.

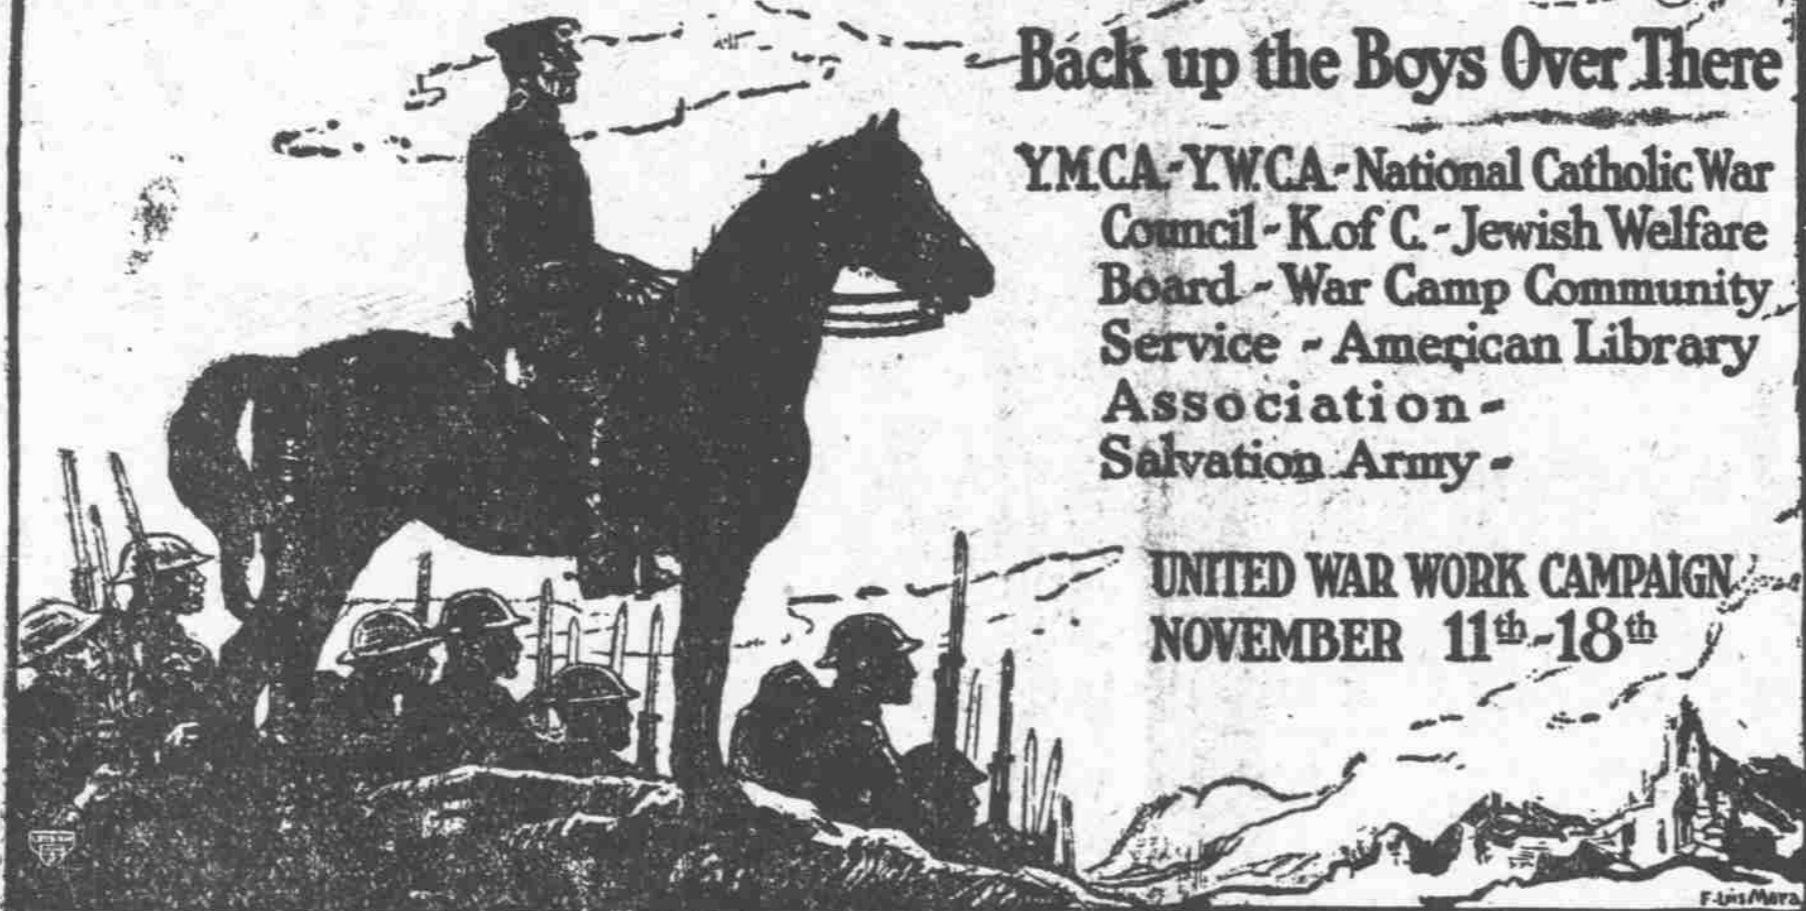

There are a few new cases but conditions are understood to be improving.

Early CHRISTMAS Shopping

BECAUSE OF THE WAR AND WAR-TIME NECESSITIES THE GOVERNMENT HAS URGED THAT THE CHRISTMAS SHOPPING SEASON BE BEGUN EARLIER THAN EVER BEFORE IN ORDER TO DISTURB BUSINESS CONDITIONS, OCEAN SHIPPING, MAIL, EXPRESS AND FREIGHT SERVICE AS LITTLE AS POSSIBLE. MERCHANTS EVERYWHERE ARE SHORT-HANDED, MANUFACTURERS ARE UNABLE TO TURN OUT GOODS AS QUICKLY AS IN PAST YEARS OR GET THEM TO THE RETAILERS, AND THE CONGESTION IN TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES WHICH ANNUALLY ACCOMPANIES THE SENDING OF PRESENTS AT CHRISTMAS TIME, UNLESS AVOIDED THIS YEAR, WILL SERIOUSLY INTERFERE WITH THE GOVERNMENT PROGRAM IN THE SHIPMENT OF WAR MATERIAL.

800 WOMEN NEEDED BY SALVATION ARMY

Commander Evangeline Booth Says War Relief Work Must Be Extended.

Commander Evangeline Booth, leader of the Salvation Army in the United States, has been suddenly called upon to furnish 800 additional war work women for France. The request is contained in a report just received by her from Col. William A. Barker of the Salvationist forces, whom she sent to France over a year ago to establish hutment and general war relief work with the American troops.

"We will do all we can to fill this demand," said Commander Booth when discussing the approaching United War Work Campaign, "and the need itself should impress the American public all the more with the absolute necessity for sustaining and enlarging the war relief work of the seven organizations, besides the noble Red Cross, now merged for a drive for funds. Each is a vital cog in a vast machine for human relief, and each is indispensable, serving its particular elements in its own way.

"The Salvation Army was born in hardship, reared in privation and trained to every phase of human misery and how to cope with it. Perhaps that accounts in some degree for the success our work has attained and for which we are thankful.

"We are of the common people, and we toil on a practical basis. We learned the lesson of how to do it in the Boer war, when we stood at the side of Britain's troops and weathered it out to the end. We have been tried by fire, and the mothers and fathers of America, as in other countries, trust the Salvation Army to do the thing they would like to do for their men if they but had the chance.

"With 1,210 trained workers at the front, operating from 420 huts and dugouts, the Salvation Army is doing, has done and will continue to do its best for the cause of humanity and Liberty."

Judge and Doctor.
"I find this man guilty of larceny and sentence him—" "Kleptomaniac, your honor. A case for a doctor, not a judge." "Very good. I'm a doctor of laws and I'll prescribe about two years."

(By Rev. Raymond Browning)

Within the realm of spirit there are things invisible and still unknown to men. Which God has treasured up for future years.

To pour as precious jewels into minds such as are fit to hold and fashion them.

There songs unsung like golden apples hang for eager hands to pluck. Yes, music, too.

In crystal essence of a soul longs for a touch in which to immortalize itself; For brush or tool an undreamt beauty yearns;

And shades of such gigantic thoughts as weave the stately palace from the dull-faced stone.

Or find new worlds within a brittle glass. Or read God's law e'en in an apple's fall.

All fair would lodge in tiny minds of men. Still more—sweet angel shapes of deeds of love

Weep for a human heart of texture clear Through which to shine their blessings on the world.

THE HUSTLER MANAGEMENT HAS CHANGED

MESSRS. LOOP AND HESTERLY ASSUME CONTROL OF HUSTLER.

Mr. Hollowell Retires From Hustler Management to Give Full Time To The Hendersonville Visitor

This will be the last issue of the Hustler under the present management.

Noah M. Hollowell has completed the year he contracted to publish the Hustler and discontinues his work in this capacity to give his full time to the Hendersonville Visitor, which he purchased in July.

Under the new management the Hustler will be divided into two departments, the job and newspaper.

Mr. Loop, who has managed the Queen theatre of this city for the past few years, will publish the Hustler. Leonard M. Hesterly, who has been with the mechanical department of the Hustler for about 12 years, will manage the job department and operate his business under the name of the Mutual Printing Co.

Other members of the Hustler force, W. E. Griffin, the linotypist, and Elmo Holland, general helper and sometimes designated the shop "DEVIL", will be retained in their present capacities.

The division of the business of The Hustler should make a most admirable arrangement since it will distribute the responsibilities and make less difficult the conduct of the business in this war age when there are more than ordinary handicaps to hasten newspaper publishers.

Mr. Loop and Mr. Hesterly know the business into which they are to enter and the arrangement they have perfected should lend itself to efficiency in their respective departments.

Mr. Hollowell leaves the Hustler after a service with it of ten years, in broken doses. Upon returning from Brevard a year ago, when he purchased the Brevard News for two years he associated himself with Gordon F. Garlington, who retired from the business to accept work with the Asheville Times in May. Although Mr. Hollowell will have no voice in the publication of the paper, he retains his interest in the French Broad Hustler, incorporated, being the second largest stockholder in the corporation.

SERVICE THAT WINS THE SOLDIER HEART

Fred Lockley, Y. M. C. A., Tells of the Gratitude of the Boys at the Front.

"One of the discoveries men are making over here," Fred Lockley, of the Y. M. C. A. and of Portland, Oregon, writes from London, "is that more pleasure can be had out of giving than getting. Many a man who has spent money freely in the old days to buy pleasure is finding that he gets more pleasure over here by the spending of one's self in the service of others."

"A few months ago I went out with a fellow Y. M. C. A. secretary to hunt up out-of-the-way detachments of troops. A machine gunner here, a machine gun company there, a platoon somewhere else. We carried our goods in an automobile. We had plenty of writing paper and envelopes for free distribution, and chocolate, cookies, chewing tobacco and smoking tobacco, cigarettes, razor blades, tooth paste and things of that kind for sale. American war service workers were busy everywhere. We found Salvation Army lassies making doughnuts for the boys and K. of C. secretaries giving help. Books furnished by the American Library Association were to be seen on all sides.

"Hearing firing at a distance, we drove down the road and found a score or so of men at machine gun practice. The officer gave the men half an hour recess to buy goods.

"At another place we came in sight of a lieutenant drilling a platoon. I said to the lieutenant: 'How soon before you dismiss the company? We have Y. M. C. A. goods for sale.'

"He said: 'Right now. Sergeant, dismiss the company!'

"And ten seconds later the company was in line waiting to buy goods from our traveling 'Y.' Grateful is no name for it. The men can't do enough to show their gratitude."

Feast Ends the Case.
Labor disputes are often settled in China by a chamber of commerce, and after the award has been made all the parties concerned take part in a feast which is paid for by the side which has won the decision.
