

People and Events

MISS MATTIE STANSEL, Reporter
PHONE 6

Claude S. Pace, who has been ill with pneumonia, is holding his own.

Miss Leona Allen has influenza but there are no complications so far.

Mrs. David Barnett, at Horse Shoe, is convalescing from influenza.

Mrs. Henry Allen visited Mr. L. E. Davenport at Horse Shoe last week.

Miss Carson Horne is at Wadesboro for an extended visit to her brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Reese of this city have recently moved to Asheville.

Miss Alma Lee Edwards has returned from a visit to Greenville, S. C.

Louis Giannakos is in New York City visiting relatives.

George Freeman's entire family, who have had influenza, are getting better.

Mr. and Mrs. Erle Bass, from Greenwood, S. C., are with the latter's parents, Judge and Mrs. C. M. Pace.

Mrs. H. S. Johnson, who has been on a visit to Pomaria, S. C., has returned to her home at Horse Shoe.

Mrs. J. F. Brinkley is with her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Broughton, in Columbia, S. C.

Mrs. D. B. Irby, from Woodruff, S. C., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. F. Ligon.

Miss Charlie Potts has accepted a position in the school at Horse Shoe and is reported as doing good work.

Morris N. Orr, who was confined to his bed for 19 days with influenza, is able to be out again.

Mrs. R. C. Clarke and son, R. C., Jr. have been with relatives in Atlanta, Ga., returned home on Monday.

Mrs. W. C. Stradley has gone to Spartanburg, Columbia and Sumter, S. C., on important visits.

Louise and Grace Bly, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. T. Bly, are kept in-doors this week with mumps.

Mrs. Paul Rhodes, who underwent a successful operation at the Biltmore Hospital recently, is improving.

Rev. Father Powers, who has been visiting Father Marlon, is expected to return to Boston, Mass., this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerow closed their cottage at Laurel Park and are guests at Marlboro Villa.

Will Egerton has accepted work with the Green River Manufacturing Plant.

Mrs. W. L. Carmichael of Brevard, N. C., spent Thursday here, visiting relatives.

Mrs. Alice Green has returned from an extended visit to Warrenton and Henderson where she lived formerly.

Miss Sue Cannon, of Horse Shoe, is reported as being sick at King's Mountain.

Miss Elizabeth Bomar who is teaching in Spartanburg, spent the week-end with her parents.

Supt. G. W. Bradshaw has been kept away from school this week on account of sickness.

Dr. A. B. Drafts has returned from Columbia, S. C., and reports his father's condition as satisfactory.

Mrs. Annie V. Martin has returned to Woodfield at Flat Rock, from a visit to Asheville.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church are meeting with Mrs. L. M. Colt this afternoon.

Mrs. T. L. Allen and daughter Edna from Brevard, N. C., spent several days last week visiting here.

Dr. L. E. Bane has returned from Raleigh where he went in the interest of the state bill.

Mesdames J. M. Stewart and her sister Miss Annie Patton were Asheville visitors last week.

Pvt. Gustave Bane, who is stationed at Fort McPherson, Ga., is spending a furlough of 15 days with his father, C. C. Bane, at Flat Rock.

Pvt. Robert Lockaby has been dismissed from service and is with his mother, Mrs. John McCall at Flat Rock.

Manning Morris, who was stationed at Fort Caswell in company with and spent six months overseas, has returned home.

J. Mack Rhodes and family who have been motoring through Florida, came home last week and reported a delightful trip.

Mrs. Hugh McCreary, sister of Mrs. A. D. Brown, and Miss Cassie Byers, have returned to their homes at Hillsville, Pa.

Mrs. Otis Powers is convalescing from influenza-pneumonia and expects to be sitting up within a few days.

Mrs. Clarence Latham is expected home this week from visits to Plymouth, N. C., and Norfolk, Va. Mr. Latham came home last week.

Miss Jennie Brinkley, who has been with her aunt, Mrs. J. T. Brinkley, has gone to visit relatives at Georgetown, S. C.

Mrs. Brownlow Jackson and Miss Birdie West arrived Monday from New York City where they combined a visit of business and pleasure.

Roy Pace, who came to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Gaither Rhodes has returned to Spartanburg, S. C.

W. A. Keith, who has been troubled with neuritis and his little daughter, Isabelle, who has had influenza are both convalescing.

Misses Cornelia Durham, Estelle Randall and Clarence Durham who have been influenza victims are reported as convalescing.

Henry Howard has returned from Asheville where he had an operation on his ear. Since returning home he has been sick with influenza.

J. F. Sargent, who is the eastern representative of the National Office Supply Co., came home last week to be with his family awhile.

Mr. Chas. Kilpatrick of Brevard spent Sunday and Monday with his daughter, Mrs. T. J. Shipman on Willow Street.

F. S. Wetmur left last Saturday for St. Petersburg, Fla., to join Mrs. Wetmur and others who are motoring through Florida.

W. H. Zimmerman, who was in the Mission Hospital, in Asheville with influenza, came home for a week before returning to his work at Azalea.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Freeman's children have had influenza. Grace is convalescing nicely but the baby, Albert Ashworth, isn't doing so well.

Miss Bessie Jordan, who has been on the sick list, is out again and is expecting to resume her work in the High School department this week.

Henry Byers, who is in service with the Motor transportation corps in Washington, D. C., is visiting his brother.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Few have received a cable message from C. Few, Jr., that he has recovered and thinks he will soon be on the way home.

Mrs. J. S. Brown's niece, Miss Margaret Smith, who lives in Penn., has just sailed for Armenia as a Red Cross nurse. Miss Smith has often visited Mrs. Brown.

The condition of W. J. Davis continues practically the same. Mrs. Davis has been on the sick list for a week. She has had influenza, however.

Miss Gertrude Shipman returned on Monday from Florence, S. C., where she attended the Dowling-Brown wedding. Miss Gertrude also visited Miss Flossie May Stone at Darlington, S. C., while away.

Mrs. W. A. Smith, who was taking care of Miss Florence Jordan at Laurel Park Villa, with a deep cold, came home with an attack of influenza and is still kept in bed from the effects of it.

Among the sick with influenza are: Mrs. H. M. Flynn, Lucile Flynn, Jessie Bowen, Mrs. R. P. Gfegorv, Florence and Mildred Orr and the children of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hogsett.

Pvt. Chester R. Glenn, of Seventh A. A. Battery writes that his company is at Nantes waiting for a ship to bring them back to the good old U. S. A.

J. Virgil Norman, seaman from East Flat Rock, who has been in service at Tampa and Key West, Fla., for 10 months, has been dismissed and reached home Sunday.

Dr. L. P. Ambler, of Asheville, enroute to Charlotte for a brief visit to his daughter, was the supper guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Egerton one evening last week.

George Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Edwards, at Hillgirt, who has had a position in Fayetteville, came home Sunday suffering from influenza.

Mrs. A. F. Naylor writes friends that she had been called to Port Royal, S. C., to nurse Fred Scheper who is ill with pleurisy and other complications.

Dr. Z. K. Justus, who came to attend the funeral of C. C. Hyder has returned home. Dr. Justus has an extensive practice in Western North Carolina.

Mrs. Lily Williams has returned to Greenville, S. C., after spending a few days with relatives. Mrs. Williams has charge of the Brandon Mills Community Club House.

Mrs. Hunter Bell, who has been with her daughter, Miss Mary, at Edgemont sanatorium, will visit in Asheville this week enroute to her home at Owensboro, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davis, Harold Davis, Jr., and Miss Willie Carmichael spent the week-end with Miss Carmichael's parents near Brevard, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. George Matthews spent the week-end with the latter's parents at Waynesville. Little Kate Matthews returned with them and will spend a month.

Mrs. James H. Patterson, who has been so critically ill, is reported as better. Her brother, Adam Baxter, who came to be with her has returned to Marlinton, Va.

Miss Minnie Varner, sister of E. T. Vann, has returned to Columbia, S. C. to resume her missionary work with Miss Mattie Perry. They are planning to tour Georgia in the interest of missions.

Mrs. E. H. Penley, who nursed Frank Morris in the Mission Hospital in Asheville, came to visit her sister, Mrs. Embley and was called to take care of Miss Ashley Ray.

The first quarterly Conference of the M. E. Church for 1919 will be conducted by P. E. R. E. Willis in the parsonage on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance of the stewards is desired.

Miss Edith McKellar, who is the president of the Red Cross branch at Flat Rock, has gone to San Antonio, Texas, in response to a message conveying the illness of her brother-in-law who died before she arrived.

Miss Eliza Peden is in Charlotte with a married brother who is in the sanatorium with erysipelas. Miss Peden will remain until her brother has recovered sufficiently to return to his home at Laurinburg.

F. E. Durfee has been appointed as Supt. of the Methodist Sunday School to succeed Hal Whitfield who resigned. Mr. Whitfield left on Monday for Asheville where he has accepted a position in the American National Bank.

Mrs. B. I. Hazard, from Saluda made a brief visit to friends here last week. Mrs. Hazard expects to move to Asheville in the early spring so as to be near her daughter, Miss Lucile who is in training at the Mission Hospital.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society met at the First Baptist Church on Tuesday afternoon. Owing to the inclement weather and the epidemic of influenza there was rather a small attendance.

Rev. W. J. Chedester, who has been with the Y. M. C. A., at Camp Shelby, Miss., until recently, has been at the Balfour Orphanage for several weeks assisting with the work. Rev. Mr. Chedester was pastor of the Brevard Presbyterian Church several years ago.

MORE STRONG LEADERS--PRICES THAT SELL GOODS

OUR LINE OF LEADERS LAST WEEK WERE SO POPULAR THAT WE ARE OFFERING OTHERS THIS WEEK EQUALLY AS ATTRACTIVE. THESE PRICES ARE FEATURING OUR SALES WHILE OUR NEW FRONT IS BEING ERECTED. SOON IT WILL BE COMPLETED AND A PRIDE NOT ONLY TO US BUT TO OUR CUSTOMERS. IT WILL MEAN A MORE ATTRACTIVE STORE AND BETTER DISPLAY FOR OUR GOODS.

Special bargains in closing out a line of white messaline and white tafeta silk, regular price $1.25, now 49c. 48 inch wide sheeting, 17c. Extra fine quality Sea Island sheeting, 40 inches wide, 20c. Large assortment of cotton plinids, 15c. Good quality bleaching, 36 inches wide, 17 1-2c. Blue Chambray, 32 inches wide, 22 1-2c. Extra quality Greenfield long cloth, 36 inches wide, 15c.	New pattern dress gingham, 22 1-2c. Standard calicos, 15c. Percales, 36 inches wide, 20c. Silk poplin, 36 inches wide, 38c. Children's and Misses' EZ union suits, good quality, heavy winter wear, 95c. Men's ribbed union suits, regular price, $2.25, for $1.49. Men's heavy sweaters, solid wool, regular price, $8.00, for $4.55. All ladies' sweaters at reduced prices. Ladies' house dresses, $1.95. Ladies' large bungalow aprons, 38c.
---	---

WE HAVE HAD TWO BUYERS IN NEW YORK FOR THE PAST WEEK AND ARE DAILY RECEIVING SHIPMENTS OF STYLISH SPRING DRESSES AND SUITS FOR LADIES AND A FINE LINE OF MILLINERY. WE WOULD BE GLAD FOR YOU TO COME IN AND LOOK THROUGH THESE BEAUTIFUL GOODS AT YOUR PLEASURE. WE ARE ALWAYS GLAD TO SHOW YOU THROUGH.

E. Lewis & Son

THE UNDER SELLERS

Miss Evelyn Orr, who was superintendent of the Biltmore Hospital at one time, has been at the Balfour Orphanage for two weeks aiding in the care of the influenza patients there. Miss Orr's present address is in Asheville, 84 Starnes Avenue. She formerly lived at Brevard and is well-known in Western North Carolina.

Mrs. H. M. Nichols, who has been very sick at the home of her grandson, Joe King, is improving. Mrs. L. L. Featherstone, who has been nursing her mother, returned to her home on route 5 last Saturday and Miss Ethel Featherstone came to be with her grand-mother until she recovers sufficiently to return to her home in Spartanburg, S. C.

Miss Eleanor Sargent, who is a student in Columbia College Conservatory of Music, appeared for the first time in a Student's Recital which was given on Monday, 8:30 p. m., Feb. 3. Miss Sargent's number on the program was a piano selection, "A Question" by Friml and was well rendered from memory.

NuBone Corsets are not sold in stores, but each corset is tailored to your measure. I will be glad to call and take your measure. Miss Lillian Murrah, Phone 230-W.

Lieut. George W. Belk, who has been overseas for six months landed in New York City recently and is dismissed from active service and returned home last week. Enroute home he visited his sisters, Misses Lucile in Raleigh and Elizabeth at Concord.

On Friday afternoon, Feb. 7, from 4 to 6 o'clock, Mrs. C. L. Gray gave an informal tea party, at her home in honor of her mother, Mrs. J. M. Wherry. Mrs. Gray's guests were her mother's friends, of years ago, Mesdames, W. M. McPheeters, her sister, Robert S. Hutcheson, J. F. Ligon, W. A. Alexander, George W. Belk and A. E. Sample. Mrs. Gray's little daughter, Jean, assisted in serving the following refreshments, Waldorf salad, beaten biscuit, nut cake, stuffed dates and tea.

Miss Lexine Davenport at Maplehurst, Horse Shoe, was hostess at a 6 o'clock dinner on her 18th birthday recently. Covers were laid for 19 at a beautifully appointed table with a centre piece of sweet peas. The dinner was well served in six courses. The invited guests from Hendersonville were: Misses Lily G. Allen, Irene Wetmur, Charlie Potts and Lee Allen. During the evening Miss Davenport gave several numbers on the violin accompanied by Miss Allen at the piano. The birthday cake, which was lighted with 18 candles, was watched with interest until the hostess blew out the lights and served the cake to her guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John Addison Hendricks of Marshall have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Nellie Hendricks to Mr. Samuel Hayes Willigms. The wedding to be celebrated on Saturday, February 22 at high noon at Marshall. Miss Hendricks is a graduate of St. Mary's college, Raleigh, and is a young woman of culture and accomplishment. She has many friends here as she frequently visits Miss Charlotte du Pont at her home on Montford avenue. Mr. Willigms is of Birmingham, Ala., he is a civil engineer for the Southern Railway company, and has been in charge of the work in this section of the state, for the last year. He has spent much time in Asheville and is well known here.—Asheville Citizen.

GARREN--FRADY

Miss Irene Garren and Edgar Frady were married at the home of the bride in the presence of a few friends, on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, by Rev. C. S. Blackburn. Mr. and Mrs. Frady left on the Carolina Special for Asheville and will visit in Columbia, S. C., before returning home.

SEYMOUR--SMITH

In the parlors of the Kentucky Home in the presence of the invited guests of the hotel, at 3 p.m., Feb. 10, Lieut. Harry Seymour of Yonkers, N. Y., and Mrs. Maude Smith, from Beaufort, S. C., were united in marriage by Rev. W. S. Potter, a Presbyterian minister, from Battle Creek, Mich., who is a guest of the hotel. Mrs. Bruce Drysdale rendered Mendelshon's wedding march. Miss Mary E. Brown, John C. Wooten, manager of the hotel, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Bigwood, of Terra Haute, Ind., who are guests of the hotel, were the official witnesses. Lieut. and Mrs. Seymour will remain at the hotel for some time. They expect to make Beaufort, S. C., their home.

Insignia of Army Officers.

An officer of the rank of general is allowed to choose his own insignia of rank. Some recently appointed chose four stars on the shoulder. We have, therefore, this rule to indicate the different grades of general officers: One star, brigadier general; three stars, lieutenant general; four stars, general.

The Bellinger subscribers can obtain this month's numbers at J. B. Duff's. J. O. Williams.

THE J. O. WILLIAMS STOCK HAS GOT TO GO

LADIES' COAT SUITS AND COATS, MEN'S AND BOYS' CLOTHING, MEN'S AND BOYS' WINTER HATS AND CAPS, WOMEN, CHILDREN, MEN AND BOYS SWEATERS ALL WOOL. ALL HEAVY UNDERWEAR OF ALL KINDS MUST GO IN THIS SALE AT SOME PRICE.

MEN'S WOOL HOSE, MEN'S HEAVY WORK SHIRTS AT 25 TO 50 PER CENT LESS THAN MARKET VALUE, MEN'S HEAVY BLUE OVERALLS $2.00 THE PAIR. WE HAVE LOTS OF THE J. O. WILLIAMS STOCK YET TO BE SOLD AT SACRIFICING PRICES. WE HAVE LOTS OF PURE WOOLEN DRESS GOODS WHICH WILL BE OFFERED AT THIS SALE AT A BIG SACRIFICE. WE PLEASE OTHERS AND CAN PLEASE YOU. 25 TO 50 PER CENT SAVED ON CLOTHING. 50c GINGHAMS, 25c. 25c GINGHAMS, 20c. 25 TO 50 PER CENT SAVED ON SILKS. LET NOTHING KEEP YOU AWAY. GET OUR PRICES BEFORE YOU BUY.

GLAZENER'S

TWO STORES

"Cuts the Price and Sells the Goods"