

People and Events

Miss Mattie Stansel, Reporter

Little Samuel Joseph Bryson is getting better from his recent sickness. Harry Ewbank spent the Easter holidays with his family. Miss Pink Gash, from Etowah, visited friends here last week. Major Michael Schenck, of Washington, D. C., arrived last Friday to spend a week with his family. Miss Effie Shipman, from Blantyre, visited relatives and friends here last week. Rev. Raymond Browning is conducting a meeting at Waynesboro, Ga. Miss Artie Barber has returned from a visit to her brother in Asheville. Mrs. J. Foy Justice is improving nicely after a stay at the Patton Memorial Hospital and has gone home. Mrs. John C. Brooks, of Greenville, S. C., spent the Easter holidays with her sister, Mrs. C. J. Valley. Pvt. C. Few, Jr., has received his discharge from service and arrived home last Friday. Miss Margarite Smith, of Petersburg, Va., is visiting Mrs. D. T. Fuller on Mt. Echo. Solicitor J. E. Shipman has returned from Brevard where he attended Transylvania court. Wm. A. Laws is spending a couple of weeks with his daughter, Mrs. H. E. Black near Laurel Park. Misses Marie and Leona Lane have returned from Baltimore, Md., Washington, D. C., and Norfolk, Va. The trip to Norfolk was by boat. Misses Ethel and Blanche Thomas, who frequently spend May and June at the Cedars, arrived this week from Chicago, Ill. Miss Louise Browning from McCrary, Ark., is spending awhile with Mrs. Raymond Browning on the Haywood road. Mrs. H. H. Ashmore and son, William, returned to Knoxville, Tenn., last Friday after a visit to her sister, Mrs. C. J. Valley. Pvt. Walton Browning, from Camp Jackson, is spending 10 day's furlough at his brother's Rev. Raymond Browning.

Mrs. J. C. Bryson, who is convalescing from a recent operation at the local hospital, returned home on Tuesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Lily Hight Pitts spent the week-end with Mrs. E. R. Black. Mrs. Pitts has a position in Columbia, S. C. Mr. and Mrs. Byron Croake, from Florida, en route to Springfield, Ky., spent several days at Kentucky Home to see their friends here. Miss Theopa Parker, who spent several days with her friend, the late Mrs. J. D. Boyd, has returned to Spartanburg, S. C. Mrs. Lila Ripley Barnwell will represent the local chapter of the U. D. C's at the state convention which meets at Wilson next week. Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Razoock came last week for a stay of two weeks at the Cedars. They will go to New York city and return for the summer. W. P. Gosnell, from the Tuxedo section has been at the local hospital for three weeks suffering from a compound fracture. He is reported as getting along nicely. R. C. Clarke has returned from the west feeling much benefited from his vacation. Mrs. Clarke and R. C. Jr. are visiting Mr. Clarke's parents at New Castle, Pa. Reginald Morris, enroute from Charlestown, West Virginia, via Asheville to Spartanburg, S. C., where he has accepted a position, visited his relatives here last week. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. McAllister and daughter, Nancy Pope, who spent the winter at Lumberton, N. C., returned to their summer home at Laurel Park last Thursday. The Sunday School classes of Mesdames W. M. Guill, T. C. Westall and S. L. Jones at East Flat Rock, had an Easter egg hunt on Friday afternoon, 3 o'clock in the grove at Mrs. W. M. Guill's. Col. and Mrs. S. V. Pickens, who were at Apopka, Fla., for the winter, came home last week. Col. Pickens has been in bed four months but stood the trip home remarkably well. L. E. Rackley has returned from Greenville, S. C., where he carried Mr. and Mrs. Rile Shipman to their home. Mr. Shipman has been in poor health for a long time. Miss Anne Oates and Lieut. William Oates arrived last Sunday afternoon from New York city to spend this week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Oates.

F. S. Wetmur goes to Winthrop, Iowa, this week to have a house built on his farm as a recent fire destroyed the one that had been there. Edward Earle Bomar, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Bomar, has been elected president of the Ciceronian Literary Society in the Georgetown College at Georgetown, Ky. C. F. Capliner, from Rosman, has been spending the Easter holidays with his daughter, Mrs. M. C. Hogsett. Little Miss Winny Hogsett has been kept away from school for several weeks on account of ear trouble. She is reported as getting better. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shipman and little son motored from Brevard last Thursday for the Good Roads' meeting which Mr. Shipman attended. Mrs. Leslie Lee, who has been a guest at the Waverly for some time and has been of great service in the Red Cross work, will spend a week at Waynesville enroute to her home at Cambridge, Mass. Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Martin, who were called here on account of the illness and the death of the former's sister, Mrs. J. D. Boyd, have returned to Antreville, S. C. Pvt. Edgar Pace, who served overseas in the 30th division, 120th infantry, returned home last Saturday. He is a son of Mrs. E. C. Ward on the Edneyville road. W. C. Burnette and family from Mills River were here last Saturday. Mrs. C. M. Howie and baby, from the Asheville Farm School, are spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burnette. Mr. and Mrs. Smith gave an informal dance, at their home near Naples, on Friday evening, April 18. Music was furnished by a string band and 30 people had a good time. W. C. Burnette from Mills River was among the invited guests. Miss Mary Purkey and brother Murphy, spent several days last week with Mrs. E. L. Osteen. They came to move their furniture to their home at Morristown, Tenn. Miss Pearl Purkey has accepted a position in the alteration department of a large establishment in Jacksonville, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. John Marsellus, who have been at Park Hill for two months and are very enthusiastic over the healthful character of the town, left last week for New York. Mr. and Mrs. Marsellus have spent three winters at Park Hill. Dr. Guy E. Fixon was elected a delegate to the South Carolina State Medical Society at the Pinehurst meeting which he attended last week. Dr. Carl Reynolds, of Asheville, was elected president of the society which will meet next year in Charlotte. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Davis entertained with a supper party Thursday evening of last week, having as their honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Theron Holcombe. The other guests were, Misses Gertrude Shipman, Willie Carmichael and Grover Shipman. During the evening Miss Ethel Manders, Joe Freeman and Willie Reese called. The science sections in the seventh and eighth grades of the city school thoroughly enjoyed an Easter egg hunt last Friday afternoon at Lenox Park. Reginald King received the prize for finding the largest number of eggs and the booby prize was given to Miss Ouesha Case. Miss Margaret Bomar was chaperon. The children, of the Flat Rock graded school were given an Easter egg hunt last Friday afternoon by the Parent-Teacher's Association, on the school grounds. There were 166 happy children who had a most delightful time at this surprise which had been so well planned for them. The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church realized $133.00 from their Easter sale of fancy work and good things to eat. Mrs. F. E. Duffee was untiring in her efforts to make the sale a success. The society feels grateful to the public for their patronage. The ladies worked faithfully in preparing for this annual sale. Pvt. M. L. Walker, who spent 12 months with the 30th M. P. Co., in England, France and Belgium which was attached with the British army until latter part of November and then placed with the A. E. F., in France, is visiting his uncle P. H. Walker at East Flat Rock. Mr. Walker will return to his former position with the Bland Hardware Co. The Elopement of Ellen, which will be given at the Opera House for the benefit of the Woman's Club, under the management of Miss Connie Morrow, on Monday evening, will furnish amusement for all. The nymph and tambourine drills will be worth the price of the ticket. Be sure to encourage the young people by your presence. J. H. Stackhouse, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Wetmur, who lives at Dunbar, S. C., has returned to a hospital at Fayetteville for further treatment. Mr. Stackhouse has never recovered from the ill effects of influenza. Miss Dilla Candler was hostess to 30 of her friends at Richlieu on Friday evening, April 13, from 9 to 12 o'clock. The out-of-town guests were Messrs Beechboard and Taylor of Asheville. The color scheme of pink and yellow was carried out in the decoration of crepe paper, sweet peas and marguerites. The refreshments were served in the dining room where pink baskets containing yellow chicks and Easter eggs were given as favors to each guest. A fruit salad course and pink lemonade were served as refreshments. During the evening there were contests and music by a local stringband. Billy McClain won the prize for the contests. There was a happy re-union of families and old friends at Dr. and Mrs. C. Few's last Friday afternoon. This re-union was entirely unexpected. The motor parties were made up of Prof. and Mrs. Dunford, from Anderson, S. C., en route to Asheville to visit their sister, Capt. and Mrs. Ernest Bell, Lieut. and Mrs. John Henry from Greenville, S. C., en route home from Chimney Rock, Major Michael Schenck and C. Few, Jr. Mesdames Bell and Henry were the Misses Rickman who are well known here. Prof. Dunford taught in Judson College when the late Rev. Mr. Boone was president. Little Carl Morris had such a happy time on his seventh birthday which he celebrated on Friday afternoon, April 11, from 4 to 6 o'clock, at his home. Seven of his friends were present to share the pleasures that his mother had planned. The Easter decorations of chickens and rabbits, out-door games and refreshments of ice cream, with individual birthday cakes that held a lighted candle, pleased the little folks very much and they were sorry when the party ended. Mrs. J. Mack Rhodes was hostess to the Ladies Aid Society last Thursday afternoon, April 10. There were 37 present to share the work. Several who usually attend were kept away on account of sickness. Committees were appointed to prepare for the Easter Sale on Friday, April 13, in the Morey building. The society will not meet again until the ladies have finished their spring cleaning. Mrs. Rhodes served chicken salad, saltines, pickles, olives and piping hot coffee which everybody enjoyed.

We need one hundred customers this week. First come, best bargains. Chas. Rozzelle.

Restless nights will turn to restful nights, ask those who have taken Gardner's Tonic.

The season's smartest models
—So comfortable, too!

The simplicity of style, and the beauty of line that characterize the Red Cross Shoe is shown here.

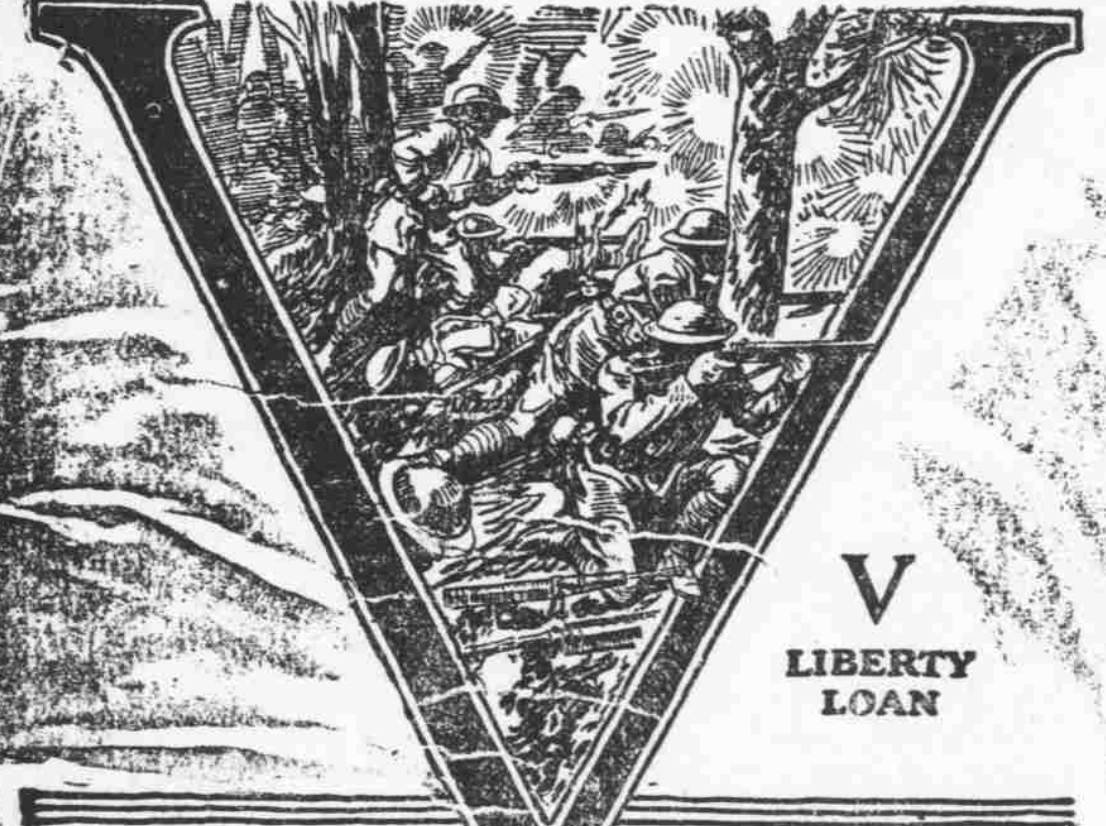

And these stylish models are delightfully comfortable, too—a requirement that the modern American woman demands! You'll be so pleased to find that in the Red Cross Shoe you can hurry through the busiest day, trimly and smartly shod—and yet feel fresh and rested at night! The famous "bends-with-your-foot" feature makes these shoes absolutely comfortable.

Come in and see our attractive new Red Cross models. They're so charming you'll want to try them on at once. They're so comfortable you'll want to keep them on.

Red Cross Shoe prices are moderate. They range from $6.00 to $12.00

E. LEWIS & SON

Red Cross Shoe

You Go Through with it too.

They went through with their part of the job—went through Hell for days and weeks on end. Many of them gave their all.

Go through with your end of the work!

Buy to your limit!

Victory Liberty Loan Committee

This space contributed by

Hendersonville Hardware Co.

Dr. Guy E. Fixon was elected a delegate to the South Carolina State Medical Society at the Pinehurst meeting which he attended last week. Dr. Carl Reynolds, of Asheville, was elected president of the society which will meet next year in Charlotte. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Davis entertained with a supper party Thursday evening of last week, having as their honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Theron Holcombe. The other guests were, Misses Gertrude Shipman, Willie Carmichael and Grover Shipman. During the evening Miss Ethel Manders, Joe Freeman and Willie Reese called. The science sections in the seventh and eighth grades of the city school thoroughly enjoyed an Easter egg hunt last Friday afternoon at Lenox Park. Reginald King received the prize for finding the largest number of eggs and the booby prize was given to Miss Ouesha Case. Miss Margaret Bomar was chaperon. The children, of the Flat Rock graded school were given an Easter egg hunt last Friday afternoon by the Parent-Teacher's Association, on the school grounds. There were 166 happy children who had a most delightful time at this surprise which had been so well planned for them. The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church realized $133.00 from their Easter sale of fancy work and good things to eat. Mrs. F. E. Duffee was untiring in her efforts to make the sale a success. The society feels grateful to the public for their patronage. The ladies worked faithfully in preparing for this annual sale. Pvt. M. L. Walker, who spent 12 months with the 30th M. P. Co., in England, France and Belgium which was attached with the British army until latter part of November and then placed with the A. E. F., in France, is visiting his uncle P. H. Walker at East Flat Rock. Mr. Walker will return to his former position with the Bland Hardware Co. The Elopement of Ellen, which will be given at the Opera House for the benefit of the Woman's Club, under the management of Miss Connie Morrow, on Monday evening, will furnish amusement for all. The nymph and tambourine drills will be worth the price of the ticket. Be sure to encourage the young people by your presence. J. H. Stackhouse, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Wetmur, who lives at Dunbar, S. C., has returned

The Day the German Fleet Surrendered—

THE DAY those great gray ships of war came sneaking out from the Kiel Canal marked the end of Germany's naval power.

Thanks to the Allied Navy, thanks to our Boys of the Sea, thanks to the Ships and to the Liberty Bonds that put them there, the seas are safe!

Do your full share in the Victory Liberty Loan—in payment for the Victory that might have cost everything if we had not gone at it wholeheartedly and in the nick of time.

Victory Liberty Loan Committee

Out of the grey mist they came—the German Navy—to the greatest humiliation the world has ever known—

SKYLAND HOSIERY CO.
EAST FLAT ROCK, N. C.