

DEATH OF T. B. YOUNG

Thomas B. Young died suddenly on Sunday afternoon at the residence of his sister, Mrs. C. S. Fullbright. Mr. Young was 55 years of age and a brother of W. A. Young of the Citizens National bank, which institution closed Monday in honor of the deceased. Mr. Young had been an invalid for many years.

Funeral services were conducted Monday by Rev. J. F. Ligon, burial being at Swannanoa.

Surviving are: Mrs. S. C. Young, his mother; W. A. and J. M. Young, brothers; Mrs. C. S. Fullbright, Mrs. R. C. Clayton and Mrs. R. V. Miller, sisters.

MCDUGALL CABINETS

Is the oldest and best there is

We have some bargains in old price goods yet the new is coming in almost every day. Anything in our line see us before buying

CHAS ROZZELLE, "The Furniture Man"

IT'S SERVICE THAT COUNTS!

We sell gasoline, oil and greases, wood and coal, plus prompt and satisfactory service.

We do all kinds of hauling and plowing, again plus prompt service.

Just call phone 40-- we will do the rest, for it's service that counts.

Carolina Oil & Supply Co.
C. S. FULLBRIGHT, Manager

UNANIMOUS FOR POWERS

While there may have been a difference of opinion among members of the new board as to the best men to appoint to some of the city positions, there was none when it came to appointing a chief of police.

Otis Powers received the unanimous vote of the board for the position he has so very satisfactorily filled during the past several years. The vote of the board was unanimous and the satisfaction the appointment has given is unanimous too.

For it is the strong belief here that Chief of Police Otis Powers is just the right man in the right place. Big, burley, and of fine physique, he is amply able to handle any proposition that may come his way, and to this mere physical ability he brings a discerning tact and good judgment that is invaluable in a resort town like Hendersonville. During the years Chief Powers has filled that position, and not merely occupied it, he has established a record for straight out efficiency that will compare with any police official in the state, and the citizens of Hendersonville are congratulating themselves upon securing his experienced services for another term.

J. W. WOFFORD IS DEAD

The name of Captain J. W. Wofford is inseparably connected in the minds of many with the old Hendersonville board of trade, father of the present efficient organization.

And now Captain Wofford is dead—died at the age of 77 years at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. J. Benjamin at Greensboro, on last Saturday morning. He had been ill for a long time. The funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church here on Sunday, burial being in Oakdale cemetery.

Surviving are: Miss Elizabeth Wofford, New York; Mrs. G. W. Brooks, Hendersonville; Mrs. B. Coogan, Asheville; Mrs. Benjamin, Greensboro; J. Y. Wofford, Danville, Ky.

Captain Wofford earned his title, and earned it gallantly. He was a member of a noted South Carolina family, came to this city nearly thirty years ago and was always identified with its best interests.

CITY FATHERS

(Continued from First Page)
fill for another term.
Dennis Gibbs is reservoir keeper, A. A. McCall, water superintendent, A. D. Hill, fire truck driver.

The retiring members of the board are Mayor C. E. Brooks, J. W. Bailey, John S. Forrest and K. G. Morris, resigned.

Bitter or Better Baking

A letter makes a great difference in a word. A word makes a great difference in baking powders.

If the little word "alum" appears on the label it may mean bitter baking.

If the word ROYAL stands out bold and strong, it surely means BETTER baking.

This is only one reason why it pays to use

Royal Baking Powder

Absolutely Pure

Made from Cream of Tartar derived from grapes

Royal Contains No Alum— Leaves No Bitter Taste

USED HANDS AND FEET

A blind negro attracted a crowd at the depot, Saturday, by his ability to play both a violin and a oboe at the same time. He played the violin as it is usually played. The banjo, by a clever arrangement of pedals was played with his feet, the home-made contrivance being attached to a low stool on which he was seated.

SHRINERS HERE IN JULY

The Shriners of the state will gather at Hendersonville on the Fourth of July. It will be a state meeting and many of the delegates will bring their families with them for a more or less prolonged stay.

This will be the most important convention held in this city this year, and local members of the order are making elaborate preparations for the entertainment of their visitors.

DON'T JAY WALK

The traffic standards are in place on Main street, and the safety crossings are outlined in nice new paint. It is not the proper thing to get off these pathways when crossing the street, for that is what is popularly called jay-walking, you know.

DEATH OF ROBERT OSTEN

Robert Osten, an esteemed citizen of the Dana section who had lived there practically all his life, died at his home on Sunday afternoon, June 8, after an illness of several months. Mr. Osten was 75 years old and had been a consistent member of Refuge Baptist church for many years.

He was a patient at Patton Memorial Hospital for awhile last fall. His sufferings were borne beautifully. The funeral services were conducted by Revs. N. A. Melton and J. L. Brookshire at Refuge church on Monday afternoon.

Mr. Osten is survived by his wife, several children, a sister, Mrs. Nancy Sentelle, at Columbia Park, three brothers, Solomon Osten, Greenville, S. C., M. F. Osten, Kanuga Lake and C. D. Osten, Tuxedo.

JUST LIKE BILL

In the Ideal fruit store on Main street an apple had rotted and on its galvanized iron tray left an impression—an absolute and life-like likeness of the kaiser. You see, the fruit was rotten and so naturally it left a likeness of a man who had rotted too.

Miss Martha Willis has recently purchased the cottage next door to the corner one where she has been living. The Misses Willis will occupy it during the summer.

EXPECTS TO BE SHERIFF

Mrs. Dycie Hyder, who lives on the Ridge, says now that congress has passed the suffrage resolution she fully expects to be sheriff of Henderson county—some day. She also remarks that no other democrat has ever been elected to that position and that she will be the first one of the true faith to sit in the sheriff's office in the big building on Main street. Mrs. Hyder already has many votes pledged to her from the young ladies and the young men in the Justus pharmacy, enthusiastic admirers of the sheriff to be—maybe.

THE SEXTETTE

The Syncopated Sextette, of Hartford, Connecticut, which will play during the entire season at Laurel Park, will open the years festivities on Monday night, June 16, when the opening dance of the season will be given.

This orchestra has won a reputation in several of the foremost Northern cities. Dances will be held at the Laurel Park pavilion at least three nights weedy until July fourth, and from then on they will be held nightly.

The members of the orchestra are: pianist, Ralph Yaw, saxophonist, Henry Clifford; director and violinist, Chas. Dunlop, trombonist, James Evans; drums and banjo-uke, Chauncey Roberts and Robert Stowell.

THE STAR DRAY COMPANY

RE-ENTERS THE

COAL BUSINESS

After being in the coal business about 12 years and building up the largest business of this kind in the city we discontinued because we could not uphold our good name and reputation and deliver a poor grade of coal, which was the best we could get.

The situation has improved and we are again in the business ready to give you the best of coal and service. We will continue the dray and transfer work, and contracting for grading and excavating hauling stone, sand, cinders, etc., for drives and walks.

We run a moving van and employ only experienced men who exercise care and diligence in moving goods, We are always pleased to serve you in any capacity for we give our customers complete satisfaction. Call on us.

THE STAR DRAY COMPANY

PHONE 175

W. J. TURNER, Proprietor