TWENTY YEARS IN ONE POSITION

"Doc" Potts, known to almost everybody in Henderson county, says it feels rather strange not to show up for work at S. Johnston's store, where he was employed for twenty years. Mr. Potts has not yet decided just what line of business he will enter, but thinks Hendersonville is a pretty good town in which to enter some business.

A YOUNG HERO

At the age of 15 John C. Wilson, a grandson of E. M. Allison of this county, put on his first long breeches. He celebrated his sixteenth birthday in a Texas training camp, dreaming at night of the time when he could be in the thick of the fight over there. At 17 he is back home, safe and sound and wearing a French Croix de Guerre.

Mr. Allison submits that this is some record for a youngster. He received the decoration for carrying a message through a rain of steel and lead, and the message saved his battalion from entire destruction.

Extort Sympathy.
"Some folks," said Uncle Eben, "kin act up so dat de fus' thing you knows dey begins to get a little sympathy fob bein' so mean an' unpopular."

DEATH OF KATHRYN CALDWELL

Miss Kathryn Caldwell, the younger daughter of Mrs. S. C. Caldwell, died Sunday morning, July 6 at 1:30 o'clock from a complication of troubles. She had been in poor health for years but her recent illness lasted three weeks.

Kathryn was a lovely girl of 14 years, with gentle manners and devoted to her church of which she had been a faithful member for several years.

The funeral services were conducted in the home by her pastor, Rev. J. F. Ligon on Monday afternoon. The flower covered casket which held the body of Kathryn was laid to rest in Oakdale cemetery.

Made Early Use of Coal.

Though wood and turf formed the fuel of our early ancestors, investigations have proved that the Britons, even prior to the Roman occupation, made use of coal. But as it was possible to utilize only such coal as lay at or near the surface, the practice did not make headway for many centuries.

Holly Used as Symbol.

It was usual at Roman weddings to present the bride with a wreath of holly, significant of the warmest congratulations. In India and Persia the followers of Zoroaster, the founder of fire worship, soak pieces of holly bark in water and throw the infusion in the faces of newly born babies, believing this will insure them prosperity and safety in this world.

Opportunity at Funeral.

Shortly after the new family moved into the house across the street the old grandfather took ill and died. When my little son heard of his death he said he was going to the "foonerak." "Why, Bobbie, you don't even know them," I said. "I know, mother," was his reply, "but I think the foonerak would be a good place to get 'quainted.'"—Chicago Tribune.
