JEWISH RELIEF MEETING TONIGHT

MASS MEETING TO BE HELD AT CITY HALL

Local Organization For Raising of City's Quota of $1,200 to Be Made Tonight.

At the mass meeting which has been called by the proclamation of Mayor Rhodes for tonight at the city hall, in the interest of the suffering Jews of Europe, a chairman and committees will be appointed and ways and means discussed looking toward raising Hendersonville's quota of $1,200. The meeting will probably be opened by Mayor Rhodes. Many citizens of the city, including the ministers, have signified their intention of attending the meeting tonight.

That the Jewish Relief movement is gaining impetus in the state is illustrated in a letter received by A. Kantrowitz from Lionel Weil, Goldsboro, state chairman of the campaign, in which the following statement is made: "Ten days prior to the appeal of February 6, following collections reported—Salisbury, whose quota is $3,000, has already raised $1,725; Wilson, with a $3,000 quota, has raised $1,700; Goldsboro, whose quota is $10,000, has raised $3,900."

The state organization was effected and the quotas were fixed at the North Carolina State Conference, held at Raleigh January 11, attended by a large delegation of the most prominent Jews in the state. By vote of this conference the date for the appeal for the North Carolina quota of $100,000 was set for the week beginning Monday, February 6, and ending Sunday, February 12. Shortly following the Raleigh meeting a proclamation was made by the Governor of the state, setting aside the above date as Jewish Relief Week and urging the people to contribute liberally to this most needy cause.

Extracts from the address of Dr. E. N. Calisch, who spoke at the Raleigh conference of the condition in Europe calling for this service are given below:

"Picture to yourselves," he said, "the devastated areas through which armies have fought and refought leaving ruins and desolation. You must try to picture a country where there is suffering almost beyond description, a country in which facilities for sanitation are very few. There are right now over 300,000 war orphans—innocent and helpless victims—in Central and Eastern Europe. Shall they become wandering derelicts, mentally dwarfed, physically crippled, morally perverted, strangers to their faith, outcasts in a world steeped with turmoil? I am here reminded of the very touching tribute paid Marshal Foch of France, upon his visit to New York, by the parade of ten thousand school children in honor of that great hero. It took those 10,000 school children exactly two hours to pass the reviewing stand. How long do you think it would take our own 300,000 poor, weak, emaciated and physically stunted war orphans to have passed in array before the great Marshal, dragging their weary limbs, suffering well nigh unto death? How long, I ask you? Very probably, that parade would never have been terminated. These children are crying, begging for a crumb. You cannot resist them. You will not deny them, even in sacrifice to yourselves."

Providing protection, food, clothing, and shelter for these 300,000 war orphans, the problem of helping 400,000 refugees who have fled from the Ukraine and from other pogrom-lands, establishing a system of credit loans which will enable the small merchant and manufacturer to resume business again, in order that he may gain his self respect, and assisting the Jews of Soviet Russia—these constitute the four-fold aim of the American Jewish Relief Committee, as outlined by David A. Brown, Chairman of the National Appeal, in his explanation as to why America is being appealed to to raise $14,000,000.

COMMITTEE RAISES $500 TOWARD BUYING FORD COUPE FOR NURSE

The committee appointed to raise sufficient money by public contribution to purchase a Ford coupe for the county nurse to come here soon reports that the sum of $555 has been raised. The American Legion headed the list with $100, and about seventy-five of the leading citizens of the city contributed the remainder. The physicians and druggists were particularly liberal in contributing.

The committee requests that any others who wish to help swell the sum to the necessary purchase price of a Ford coupe and extra tire, send their contributions to Hesterly Stepp, treasurer of the local American Red Cross chapter.

The committee, composed of A. W. Honeycutt, Lee Whitmore, and Miss Ruth Crenshaw, field representative of the American Red Cross, was appointed at the mass meeting held last Tuesday, which decided to employ a full-time health nurse for Henderson county. Miss Crenshaw volunteered to remain long enough in the county to help raise funds necessary for the purchase of a car for the use of the nurse.

A near-serious automobile accident occurred on the corner of Main and Third avenue, east, Saturday, when a truck driven by Robert Levi for Byers Bros. ran into a Ford coupe driven by Dr. A. B. Neither driver was injured, but a wheel and axle of the coupe were badly damaged.

Dr. Drafts had practically rounded the corner, having entered Main from Third avenue, east, when the truck, whose speed did not slacken, crashed into his car.

W. HENDERSON MISSION NOT DEAD SAYS COMMITTEE

Contrary to Circulated Reports, Committee Declares Mission Is In Thriving Condition.

We desire through the columns of your paper to correct the report that the West Hendersonville Mission is dead. The Lord is with us in our work and we are doing business right on. We are dead to the follies of the world, but are very much alive in Christ our Lord.

We have a splendid Sunday School which convenes every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, preaching Sunday night at 7:30, and prayer meeting every Thursday night at 7:30. Everybody is cordially invited to these services, to help us in our Father's business.

We call especial attention to our Bible class which has been organized with Bro. C. S. Fullbright as teacher. We hope to see all the men and women in this and other communities in our Bible class.

"My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge," says the Lord; so come on, folks, let's learn more about God and his word. "Acquaint thyself now with him and be at peace." Oh, that we would listen to Him, then would our peace be as a river.

Subject for prayer meeting Thursday night is "Jacob's Ladder."

Realizing there is a special work to be done here for God, we desire the prayers and co-operation of all the christian churches in town.

(Signed) Committee on Arrangements.

BARACA-PHILATHEA PLANS GO FORWARD

STATE CONVENTION PLANS BEGUN LAST NIGHT

Mrs. N. Buckner, General Secretary, Led Meeting Here, and Calls Another for Feb. 9.

Mrs. N. Buckner, General Secretary for North Carolina of the Baracas and Philatheas, met last night with representative men and women of these organizations for the purpose of beginning plans for the annual state convention to be held here next June.

Mrs. Buckner has called another meeting for Friday night of next week, this to be held at the Presbyterian church, when plans will be discussed for entertaining the guests expected in Hendersonville at the convention next summer. She expresses confidence that there will be in attendance on this meeting fully 1,000 delegates, who will represent about fourteen leading denominations in the state.

For this great event, which will be held from June 15 to 18, Mrs. Buckner says a very interesting and instructive program is being prepared by the program committee, and plans are being entered into heartily for making this the greatest convention ever held by them. Reduced rates have already been secured from the railroads; reduced rates for room and board will be given all registered delegates; the entertainment on the afternoon given over to recreation and entertainment will be of the highest order; and Hendersonville assures the Baracas and Philatheas a royal welcome awaiting them as well as a delightful program.

The Baptist Baracas and Philatheas are planning great things for the year 1922. Just now a "Book Shower" is being planned for the Baptist orphanage at Thomasville for February 15; each class in the state is asked to send one or more good books to the orphanage on this date. The local Philatheas class appointed a committee Sunday to go forward with this work.

They are planning on this date, also, to give the children of the Caswell Training school a "Valentine Shower." Valentines will also be distributed to the soldiers at Oteen and Kenilworth by the organization, assisted by the club women of the state.

Turner's trial has been set for February 14.

Federal agents claimed a soldier brought a flier from Paris Island to a point near Savannah where they claim he was paid $300 for the machine and promised $300 more. Secret service men say the airplane went into the care of Turner and Runser.

STATON & RECTOR FIRM IS DISSOLVED

OLD FIRM DISSOLVED FRIDAY AND NEW FIRM CREATED

W. C. Rector Leaves Firm of Staton & Rector, Which is Succeeded by Staton Realty Company.

The firm of Staton & Rector, composed of R. H. Staton, B. F. Staton, and W. C. Rector, real estate, brokerage, renting, and insurance agents, and the law firm of Staton & Rector, were dissolved Friday, January 27, by mutual consent of the parties concerned, and a new firm, Staton Realty Company, composed of B. F. Staton and R. H. Staton, was then created.

B. F. Staton will be in active charge of the business, and R. H. Staton will continue as formerly with his active duties as postmaster.

S. G. Staton, a nephew of R. H. and B. F. Staton, will be connected with the firm, and will represent them in the writing of insurance and in other capacities.

R. H. Staton and W. C. Rector formed a law partnership about twenty years ago; and about five years later, with a third member, Mr. Staton's brother, B. F. Staton, they added real estate and insurance. From the beginning, Mr. Staton said, his relationship to Mr. Rector had always been of a pleasant and congenial nature, no harsh work ever having passed between them. "And this dissolution was done by mutual consent and entire good feeling by all parties concerned."

The successors to Staton & Rector, the Staton Realty Company, state that the business will be conducted in the future under the same guiding principles which have enabled this company to gain a foremost place among the progressive and reliable business institutions of Hendersonville. Actual figures bear out the statement that this company has ranked high in the public's estimation and esteem. The have been agents for the sale or transfer of millions of dollars' worth of property in and surrounding this city, and all things being equal, give promise of doing even a greater volume of business in the future. Under their insurance department they have hundreds of policies in force at the present time, which represents a large amount of business.

The most recent sales announced by the firm, while it was yet Staton & Rector, were accomplished during the past two weeks, when a farm in the county and three residences within the city were sold by the agency, involving the sum of $12,000.

The new firm will continue in the same office until the new bank building for the First Bank & Trust Company is completed, when they will occupy a handsome room 13x19 facing Fourth avenue, a few feet east of the site of their present office.

BIG CATCH MADE BY RAIDING PARTY

ELABORATE STILL IN MILLS RIVER TOWNSHIP CAPTURED

M. A. Case, Brownlow Jackson, and V. E. Grant Find 45-Gallon Copper Outfit Friday.

An elaborately equipped still, 4,900 gallons of beer, and a quantity of other supplies were captured twelve miles west of this city, in the Mills River township, Friday by a raiding party composed of M. Allard Case, senior federal prohibition officer of Western North Carolina, U. S. Marshal Brownlow Jackson, and Sheriff V. E. Grant.

The still, which was complete in the minutest details, gave evidence of having been in uninterrupted operation for several years, during which time the officers estimate many thousand gallons of corn liquor were manufactured. It was set up in a log cabin, apparently built for that purpose, which was so well lined, the officers said, that it would be impossible to perceive a light in the house even near at hand.

The still was a 45-gallon copper outfit, with a well constructed worm and cap. Barrels containing 4,000 gallons of beer were at hand, the liquor being ready for distillation. Three gallons of molasses, three bushels of meal, and six gallons of corn whiskey of high grade were also found.

Marshal Jackson said the still resembled the old government outfits of years ago. The furnace and equipment showed that it had been in use for a long time.

The whiskey was brought here and poured out in the presence of officers. H. A. Kesterson, on whose farm the still house was found, was arrested and brought to the city, where he was given a preliminary hearing before U. S. Commissioner G. H. Valentine. In default of $500 bond he was held in jail, where he now is. He is charged with manufacturing and having whiskey in his possession. A small amount had been found near his dwelling and a bushel of malt in his barn.
