Parents and Teachers Hear Kindergarten Plan And Hold Open Meeting

The February meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was featured by a paper by Mrs. W. H. Vander Linden, on "A Kindergarten for Hendersonville," in which the history of the organization founded for the little tots and a need for one in this city were strikingly presented. Though the weather was extremely cold and windy, twenty to thirty parents and teachers listened to this and the other subjects discussed during the meeting.

The meeting was "open" for free discussion, resulting in the introduction of various topics, such as a roller-skate rink, a "milk station" and other things for Hendersonville children. Those present definitely decided that they were in favor of the "milk station" idea, and made plans for its materialization. Community singing, led by Mrs. Charles Morrow, was enjoyed. Mrs. J. W. Williams, Commander of the American Legion Auxiliary, proposed to the Association a plan for building in the city a general club house as a memorial to those who took part in the World War. The suggestion met with approval by the parents and teachers, who declared they were in accord with the idea of providing a general meeting place for the organizations of the city.

Refreshments consisting of sandwitches and coffee were enjoyed by the members.

Postmaster Staton Makes Tour of Inspection of Six Routes From

By direction of the Post Office Department, Postmaster R. H. Staton recently made an inspection of the rural routes from his office. purpose was that he might ascertain by personal observation and make report whether the roads used were in good condition for travel, the routes well arranged, boxes properly erected. so as to be easily reached by the carriers without difficulty and without obstructing travel, the carriers serving their routes as officially prescribed, the schedule observed, and whether the families served were satisfied with the service rendered. or there were improvements which could be suggested in the interest of the patrons or the department.

It became necessary, in connection with the inspection,, to request many patrons to take action to the end that their boxes might conform with reguor height, and in having the name of the owner plainly printed on them. Also, to bring to the attention of road overseers or other responsible persons the need for improvement in roads or repairs or construction of culverts or bridges. It is the desire of the department be possible, to all persons residing the civic work of the club. serve them promptly, regularly, and meats, vegetables, etc. satisfactorily.

Whatever facilitates the work of the carrier is a direct benefit to the patrons, for the greater the ease and speed with which a carrier may cover his route the earlier and better the service afforded. So, patrons of rural delivery can greatly help themselves by helping their carriers, seeing to it that roads are kept in good condition and boxes promptly opened after storms, by keeping the approaches to their boxes clear, and by promptly and willingly correcting any irregularities affecting their boxes when asked to do so.

Another great assistance that patrons can render carriers is by keeping themselves supplied with and using stamps instead of placing unstamped mail, without money for the purchase of the required postage, in the boxes. This delays the carrier and sometimes imposes a great hardship on him, especially in cold or stormy weather. If preferred, stamped envelopes, either printed or plain, may be obtained from the carrier, are of good quality, and costs but little upon them, and are redeemable at the value of the stamps if damaged. but returned in a practically whole condition. If necessary to place money in box, it should be put in a wrapped so as to be easily picked up by the carrier.

Money for the purchase of money orders should not be left in boxes, but should be handed to the carrier and a receipt obtained.
