COUNTY'S NEAR EAST RELIEF CAMPAIGN ON

Movement Begun to Raise County's Quota to Feed, Clothe, and Educate 25 Armenian Orphans.

Henderson county's campaign to raise its quota of $1,500 for the Near East Relief this year was launched Sunday with J. Allen Rhodes of Hendersonville in charge.

This money will feed, clothe and educate twenty-five orphans of Armenian martyrs who are now in the five North Carolina orphanages at Trebizond. The Tarheel state is saving the lives of 3,334 of these helpless tots this year. Col. George H. Bellamy is state chairman, and Josephus Daniels is honorary state chairman.

Mr. Rhodes has been at work for some time perfecting his organization and reports Henderson county ready to do its duty.

Many of these children were made orphans during the great war when 300,000 of Armenia's 400,000 troops lost their lives in defense of the Baku oil fields.

Had the Central powers captured these vast stores, Col. Bellamy has pointed out, they would have prolonged the war many months according to experts. Had this been the case there are many North Carolina boys back home today who would now be sleeping under a wooden cross in France. North Carolina cannot see the children of these heroes starve or freeze to death, he declared.

Others of these children were made homeless and helpless during Turkish depredations into Armenia and their fathers were murdered and their mothers carried off to Turkish harems because they would not renounce Christ and become Mohammedans.

C. C. RICHARDS DIED YESTERDAY AT HOME HERE

Lumber Salesman Succumbs to Serious Throat Disease Following Several Weeks' Illness.

C. C. Richards, aged 49, died at his home on Fleming street last night, his death being caused by a throat trouble which became serious during the recent Christmas holidays. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Presbyterian church, with Rev. J. F. Ligon officiating, and interment will be made at Oakdale cemetery.

Mr. Richards has for many years been connected with the lumber business, at the time of his death being a traveling salesman for a large lumber company. Several years ago he was for a time in the mercantile business with his brother in this city. He has been from childhood a professed Christian man, and at the time of his death was a member of the local Presbyterian church.

He was a native of Mississippi, but in early life went to South Carolina, where he met his wife. They lived at Sumter several years prior to coming to Hendersonville about six years ago.

The deceased is survived by his widow and three little daughters, Mattie, Isabel, and Cecile; one brother, I. E. Richards of Savannah, Ga.; and two sisters in Mississippi. Tom Burgess of Sumter, S. C., has been for several days with his sister, Mrs. Richards.

Light Stuff and Ladies Featured Board of Trade

The regular February meeting of the Hendersonville Board of Trade was held Monday night at the Kentucky Home Hotel and was a departure from its regular course in that it was termed "ladies' night." It was featured by a dinner that was satisfying to the appetites and a suspense of all business and a liberal indulgence in "light stuff," it being the purpose of the committee on arrangement to get away from serious matters and to turn the wrinkles on man's face another way.

There were about 100 present. Yates Arledge presided and he and the long list of fellows that he moved to their feet in response to his apt application of jokes practically exhausted all the joke books and the original supply before departing time at 11 o'clock.

The only "breakovers" from the light features of the program (and they apparently proved to be a great relief), were by C. F. Bland in bringing a message from the bedside of W. F. Penny, whose heart was in the securing of industries, a sentiment that was endorsed by Mr. Bland; and the breach made by Prof. A. W. Honeycutt, who took occasion to point out something of the immensity of the program the city has on its hands in entertaining the state Baraca-Philathea convention in June and expressing the hope that something of a constructive nature might come as was at the banquet.

Mr. Honeycutt led the community songs and rendered a couple of solos, with Mrs. Honeycutt accompanying.

ONLY THREE FIRES, WITH SMALL DAMAGE, IN CITY SINCE JAN. 1.

The report of the local fire department of the fires in 1922 make an excellent showing, only three fires in the city having taken place since January 1, and these of little or no consequence. "No damage" was recorded after each of the three, which were as follows: January 10, the late Mrs. C. E. Wilson's residence, caused by oil stove; January 19, J. V. Heisel's Tin Shop, caused by blow pot; January 28, Patton Memorial Hospital, caused by chimney burning out.

UNIQUE PROGRAM IS STAGED BY LADIES

"WE WON'T GO HOME 'TILL MORNING," THEY SANG.

Women of City and County Joke, Toast, Speak, and Eat, 160 Strong, While Husbands "mind babies."

Never before in the annals of Hendersonville's history has there occurred such a unique and thoroughly enjoyable affair as that of the Woman's Club get-together banquet, which took place Thursday evening at the Kentucky Home hotel.

About 160 handsomely gowned women, representative of the city and county, were present. The excellent program reflected much credit upon the originality of Mrs. R. P. Freeze, Mrs. Frank Ewbank and other members of the program committee.

Mrs. Frank Ewbank was also the originator of a number of clever songs for the occasion, one of which was, "To Our Husbands!" and ran like this:

"We won't go home until morning,
"We won't go home until morning,
Till daylight doth appear.
For our husbands are minding the babies,

For our husbands are minding the babies,
For our husbands are minding the babies,
Till we will all stay here."

Sung: "We Won't Go Home Until Morning."

Between the courses there were jokes, toasts, music and short talks by distinguished speakers of the city organizations. Mrs. R. P. Freeze presided as toast-mistress, introducing the speakers with brief and appropriate remarks. The musical numbers were announced by Mrs. Frank Ewbank. Mrs. A. W. Honeycutt was the accompanist for the community songs which were led by Mrs. Charles Morrow.

The banquet was such a decided success the ladies hope to make it an annual affair. Its success was due in part to the efforts of Mrs. John S. Forrest, chairman of the committee having in charge the sale of the tickets. The program follows:

PLANS MADE FOR JUNE CONVENTION

BARACAS AND PHILATHEAS ORGANIZE FOR STATE EVENT

Convention Committees Appointed in Meeting Friday Led By Mrs. N. Buckner, General Chairman.

A small but very representative and enthusiastic meeting in the interest of the Baraca-Philathea state convention, which meets in this city in June, was held Friday evening in the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. N. Buckner of Asheville, general secretary of the national Baraca-Philathea movement, and Miss Thelma Smathers, president of Roberts Philathea class of Central Methodist Church, Asheville, were present. Dr. E. E. Bomar presided as chairman.

Mrs. Buckner outlined plans for the convention and suggested the election of a general chairman for the convention and a number of committees. A. W. Honeycutt was elected general chairman, and the committee chairmen were elected as follows: cooperative committee, C. S. Fullbright; finance, John T. Wilkins; housing, Miss Mary Rector; music, Mrs. Frank Ewbank; social, Mrs. M. A. Brown; devotional, Dr. E. E. Bomar; assignment, A. S. Truex; reception, C. F. Bland; decoration, Miss Florence Justus; advertising, Noah Hollowell; badge, Miss Emma Sample; transportation, Lawrence J. Pace; information, Mrs. John S. Forrest; slogan and name, Misses Martha Sullinger, Evah Blythe, Lottie Dixon.

In addition to workers from Asheville and Hendersonville there were some from East Flat Rock and Fruitland.

It is predicted that the Baraca-Philathea state convention will bring at least one thousand delegates to the city, making the largest convention the city has ever had the honor of entertaining.

Mrs. Buckner met with the committee Monday night at the Kentucky Home and plans were made looking to the success of the convention. E. H. Wooten invited the committee to designate the Carolina Terrace as convention headquarters and as an inducement offered an attractive rate to delegates, free entertainment to speakers and the use of the hotel and new pavilion for convention gatherings. Mr. Wooten's generous offer was heard with deep interest by those at the meeting as it was regarded as an indication of the spirit in which the city will welcome the convention.

"Goat-Riding" To Be Enjoyed (?) Tonight By Eight Local Boys

"Goat riding" is to be indulged in tonight by eight of Hendersonville's enterprising young (all young!) business men, when the third degree in the right noble order of the Knights of Pythias is administered them by the famous Canton team at Pisgah Lodge, Asheville. With them a smaller class from Asheville will also enter the ranks of the third-degree.

Composing this illustrious band of eight are: A. O. Jones, Arthur Byrd, Gordon Ramsey, F. H. Kincaid, Houston Kincaid, Frank Brothers, Frank Randall, and E. L. Feagin. Accompanying and caring for these boys will be twenty to thirty of the officials and members of the local order. They are to meet at six this afternoon at their lodge rooms and proceed together to Asheville.

JEWISH RELIEF QUOTA NOT YET REACHED; REPORTS NOT ALL IN

The committees in charge of the Jewish Relief drive state that at last count about $900 had been raised, but express hope that, after all reports come in, including those from Flat Rock, East Flat Rock, Tuxedo, and other points in the county, the quota for Henderson county, $1,200, will have been reached.

The quota set for Asheville, $10,000, has been more than raised, according to the Asheville Times, and the reports throughout the state are bright for the raising of the amounts appealed for. The campaign began Monday, February 6, and ended Sunday, February 12. North Carolina's quota was $100,000. America was appealed to raise $14,000,000.

E. G. Stillwell Will Plan Fine Court House in Marion

The following from the Marion Progress relating to awarding contract for plans and supervision of the construction of a $150,000 court house in the adjoining county of McDowell will be of general interest:

"The county commissioners at their regular monthly meeting Tuesday decided upon the present site on which to erect the new court house. This decision was reached after consulting with the people of the county as to their wishes. The following order was made:

"In the opinion of the Board the present courthouse site together with the adjacent property is the proper location upon which to erect the new courthouse, and that it is necessary to acquire the property known as the Mrs. Dora Nichols Finley lot and that the needs of the county demand the acquisition of said property.

"It is further ordered that the new court house be erected upon the combined lot of the present court house site and the Nichols property.

"It is further ordered that Erle G. Stillwell be, and he is hereby employed as architect to prepare the plans and supervise the erection of the new court house upon the usual architectural commission basis."

Mr. Stillwell, when seen by a representative of The News, confirmed the foregoing report. Mr. Stillwell was called to Marion on Monday of last week to confer with the county authorities and despite the fact that they had conferred with a number of other architects from various points in North Carolina and even in other states, the visit resulted in the awarding of the contract to Mr. Stillwell, who will draw the plans and have general supervision of the erection of the court house, which will cost in the neighborhood of $150,000.

At the church service Dr. Bomar spoke eloquently of Mrs. Wilson's worth to her community and paid a glowing tribute to her memory. Following this, a quartet, composed of Mrs. J. F.
