The Lenox Park section, formerly known as Columbia Park, the name it bore in its days of growth, blds fair to enjoy another building boom as a result of a handsome structure to be erected and the change in ownership of the majority of the undeveloped Lenox Park property.

P. L. Wright and A. R. Hanson recently purchased the property from F. A. Sumner and sold to W. W. Watt the top of the hill surrounded by Crescent avenue, just above the noted springs. Plans are now being prepared for a fine colonial home to be erected on this site by Mr. Watts, whose home is in Charlotte, where he serves as president of the Southern Hardware company, an organization which operates eighteen hardware

Messrs. Wright and Hanson now hold 20 lots above the springs. These are to be placed on the market. They are within the city limits and electric lights and sewer lines will be available for those who build. Mr. Sumner, who spent a great deal of money in developing the property since he purchased the holdings a few vears ago, retains a portion of his interests and also the springs, use of which he guaranteed to the new own-
