Lyceum Course?

Shall Hendersonville have a Lyceum course this winter? If you are interested in this matter, go and see Judge Blythe about it.

Judge Blythe has been looking into the matter and now has it under consideration. He says that if he can obtain reasonable support and encouragement he will bring a good Lyceum course here. The attractions he has in mind are of a high quality and will be well the effort required to obtain them.

The rush of summer is over. Now is the time to think about the winter. If a good Lyceum course appeals to you, go and talk to Judge Blythe.

Bright Prospects in McDowell

Special Correspondence of THE TIMES.

Old Fort, Sept. 28.—McDowell county republicans held their convention last week and nominated their county ticket. The nominations were as follows: D. G. Taylor of Dysartsville for the Legislature; P. H. Mashburn of Old Fort for sheriff; J. A. Langbridge of Marion for treasurer; L. W. Williams, Lee Chapman, G. W. Conley for county commissioners.

We think that we have a winning ticket; I know it to be a good one.
They are all good substantial citizens and men of ability. Three of them (Messrs. Mashburn, Lang-bridge and Jones) are the present incumbents of the offices to which they have been nominated for re-election.

We expect to give Hon. John G.
Grant a good substantial majority in this county. The outlook is good to carry the county for the whole ticket. I see Mr. Crawford is taking the back track of Mr. Grant over here to see his "ignorant country people;" but I don't think he will be able to undo the work already done by Mr. Grant.

There was quite a crowd here Saturday night to hear the Bryan graphophone speeches; but they are mistaken when they think that they can accomplish anything by this method of campaign. The republicans will do their effective work another way, and succeed. Standard Oil, Foraker and Haskell did Bryan up pretty well this last week; and now we only wait for the votes to be counted, and nearly all democrats will be glad Taft is elected as he is sure to be on the third of November. A. J. D.

Convention High Praise for W. H. Smith

A small number of Bryan's followers in Henderson county met in convention in the court house here Tuesday at eleven o'clock and placed upon the altar, for slaughter on the third of November, the following lambs: A. Cannon for the house; V. C. V. Shepherd for sheriff; J. R.
Wilkie for register of deeds; Sam Y. Bryson for surveyor; L. P. Russell for coroner; S. J. Justice, Preston Fletcher and G. B. Hill for commissioners.

It had been published that Locke Craig would address the convention, and it was understood that the band would play, and much effort had been put forth to have a big attendance at the convention. The band did not play and Mr. Craig failed to put in an appearance, and when all had assembled the court house was only about half filled with people.
The convention was not marked by any great outbursts of enthusiasm, and the ticket named, or at least a portion of it, is not at all satisfactory, so it is said, to a number of democrats in the county, and it is predicted now that the republicans will carry the county this year by at least five hundred majority.

Rules of Registration

The registration books for the general election will be opened October 1 at 9 o'clock and will remain open until October 24, just twenty days, excluding Sundays. In response to an inquiry sent him by State Secretary Alex J. Reid, Assistant Attorney General Hayden Clement has made the following ruling on this matter:

"Replying to your favor request-an opinion as to when the registration books should be open and closed for the general election to be held in November, I beg to state that under and by virtue of the revival, section 4293, the general election will be held on Tuesday, the 3rd day of November, 1908. Now section 4323 of the revival provides:
'That the registration books shall be closed for registration at sunset on the second Saturday before the election.' The second Saturday before November 3 is October 24. Therefore, the registration books should close at sunset on Saturday, October 24. Section 4323 of the revival further provides that the books shall be kept open between the hours of 9 o'clock a. m. and sunset on each day, Sunday excepted, for twenty days preceding the day for closing the registration books. Counting then twenty days from Saturday, October 24, 1908, excluding Sundays, would make the time for opening the registration books the first day of October, 1908, at 9 o'clock a. m., making in all twenty-one days for the registration books to be opened."

Polk Convention

Columbus, N. C., Sept. 28, 1908.

—A large, enthusiastic and representative body of citizens met here today in the republican county convention, and a better ticket of capable, sober men was never placed before the voters of Polk county than the present republican ticket.

Before going into convention C.
F. Toms of Hendersonville, our next lieutenant-governor, spoke to a large and enthusiastic audience, defining the principles of the republicanism in the state and Nation.

Mr. Toms is one of the most eloquent and able speakers in the state. His speech was on a high plane, convincing, and of such a character that no one could take offense. He made many warm friends in Polk and will be well supported on the third of November.

After the speech of Mr. Toms, the delegates went into convention and a more harmonious and considerate convention was never held in Polk county.

J. C. McFarland a broad-minded, well posted and capable man is the nominee for representative. Mr.
McFarland has ably represented this county three times in the legislature and there is no man more highly esteemed in Raleigh than Mr. McFarland during his previous terms.

W. C. Newman, one of Polk county's most popular and able men, is the nominee for sheriff. He will be elected and will make a sheriff the people of the county will be proud of.

James Jackson, the present treasurer, was nominated for register of deeds. Mr. Jackson has made such a good record as treasurer of the county that his party wished to elevate him to a higher position.

Patterson Arledge, one of Polk's most substantial men, was nominated for treasurer. The balance of the ticket was filled by men of honor and ability. The present board of county commissioners, C. A. Carson, D. Conner and J. L.
Jackson, were all renominated.
Polk county has never had a better board of county commissioners than the present occupants. Their administration has been of such careful handling of the county affairs that the county is in the finest financial condition it has been for years.

W. C. Robertson, our veteran sheriff, who kindly asked the party to not run him for sheriff anymore, was elected chairman of the county executive committee. He is one of the most popular men of the county and will lead the party to a grand victory on November 3. S. B.

Edwards, our popular clerk of the superior court, was elected secretary of the executive committee.

The republican party is well organized in Polk county. Look out for the third of November; she will be there with both feet.

thing before it, a lot of rain is left
