If you want to keep out of the clutches of the law, pay your poll tax, and pay it yourself.

Judge Webb in his charge to the grand jury spoke plainly on this subject. He said that if any person pays the poll tax of another with the understanding that the vote of the second person will be influenced thereby, both parties are guilty. The offense is a grave one, and the penalty prescribed by law is severe. The law is a dangerous thing to monkey with.

A public meeting in connection with the Laymen's Missionary Movement will be held at the court house Sunday afternoon, March 13, at 3:30 o'clock. F. E. Durfee will preside, and the program will consist of three addresses (of not more than 15 minutes each) on the following subjects:

"The Stewardehip of Life."-C. H. Broward.

"America's Debt to Foreign Missions."-J. C. McPheeters.

"Business System in Missionary Finance."-E. C. McLaughlin,

Some time ago we published a statement showing the need of increased and improved accommodations at the graded school. The building in its present condition is inadequate. Something must be done.

The suggestion is made that, the old academy building be renovated and used for some of the grades, thus relieving the pressure at the academy property with the proviso | ty. that it be used for educational purposes. At present it is not being
