Buncombe Convention

July 30.—The Buncombe republican convention here today, was largely enthusiastic and harmonious, a perfect order which presented a refreshing contrast to the proceedings of a demonstration held in the same town a few weeks ago. It was made permanent and presided with his authority. The ticket nominating was very strong one. There was a good day's work in the republican cause was accomplished today. W. Wakefield, a well known very popular railroad man, was nominated for state senator. Guy Weaver, a well known legislator, John A. Nichols, a man of high reputation, was nominated for clerk of the court; C. A. Rice for register; Clyde Reed for tax collector; Barrett for auditor; Frank for sheriff. A republican in Buncombe is growing.

Wayside Inn Formal Opening Tuesday was an Enjoyable Occasion

The formal opening of Wayside Inn, the new family hotel on Butte mountain at East Flat Rock, was held Tuesday night, August 2, with a banquet and a dance. There was a large and representative attendance from Hendersonville and Flat Rock and other points.

The evening was greatly enjoyed by all who were present. The prize for barn dancing was awarded to Miss Lillian Hight and Alex Willson.

Throughout the day a number of visitors from various points came to inspect the hotel and its beautiful surroundings and they were very favorably impressed with all that they saw. The hotel is modern and up-to-date in all respects and will meet a want which has long been felt in that community. The location is admirably chosen, as it is easily accessible and commands a view of extraordinary beauty and attractiveness.

Among the guests Tuesday night were a party from Hendersonville chaperoned by Mrs. Lila Ripley Barnwell.

Wednesday afternoon a little smoke was discovered from a burning brush pile on the mountain, and some sensational person started the report that the hotel was on fire. We are glad to say that the report was absolutely without foundation.

Lee's Statue

Beverly, July 31.—President Taft has approved without comment an opinion by Attorney General Wickensham to the effect that there is no provision of the law by which the statue of General Robert E. Lee, in Confederate uniform can be removed from Statuary Hall in the Capitol at Washington.

Taft Not Asleep

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 2.—New York state politics brought Vice-President Sherman and William T. Ward, republican national committeeman for that state, to Beverly late yesterday, and they were in conference with the president for an hour or more. The visit had to do almost wholly with the situation in New York. General politics was also discussed and the president enjoyed his visitors.

As to the influence of Theodore Roosevelt in New York, there is every reason to believe that the state leaders fully recognize its potency. This phase entered into yesterday's conference at Burgess Point and President Taft was told that it was the hope of New York politicians that a candidate might be selected upon which all factions can unite.

The vice president and Mr. Ward told the president that there has been no crystallization of sentiment in favor of any one man as yet. The state convention is not to be held until the later part of September, and the leaders feel there is plenty of time to work out the situation.

Death of Miss Stikeleather

Asheville, Aug. 1.—Miss Jessie Stikeleather, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Stikeleather, died this morning about 3:30 o'clock after an illness of two weeks. She made a brave and determined fight, but the skill of a corps of physicians, with her own hearty co-operation in the unequal battle, was not sufficient to overcome the complication of diseases, among which was pneumonia.

Store Robbed

Tuesday night some persons or persons unknown broke into the Hawkins jewelry store on Main street and stole six diamond rings, some watches and other property, the aggregate loss being more than $1,000. No clue to the thieves has yet been found.

Several months ago the same store and several others on Main street were robbed; but perpetrators of that set of crimes were discovered and arrested and a large part of the stolen property was recovered. Every effort will be made to locate the last gang of culprits.
