Good Roads

About fifty citizens of Hendersonville and Henderson county met at the court house last Saturday and organized the Henderson County Good Roads association. The meeting was called to order at 2:50 p.m. and Judge C. M. Pace unanimously elected chairman. After the association was organized, Judge C. M. Pace was elected president, Prof. W. S. Shible vice-president, and J. Pres. Fletcher secretary. Addresses were made by James H. H. of Greensboro, Judge Pace, A. Smith, McD. Ray and P. E. Call. The president appointed a committee consisting of P. Patton, McD. J. Pres. Fletcher and Prof. W. Shible to draft a constitution and laws for the association. At 2 p.m. the association adjourned to meet again Saturday, August 20, at noon.

Caustic Comment

The following, from the News and Review, a democratic paper published at Raleigh, is a severe criticism of the democratic ring which this paper has been supporting for many years:

Liberty has become so much a part of the policy of the Ringsters that men who, ten years ago, would have been insulted to be offered money for political influence, have now become known to solicit money to work for candidates. If they do not solicit, the Ringsters endeavor to corrupt them by offering them money. This has become a public scandal in Hendersonville and the Ring is responsible for the deplorable condition. Not long ago, Nick DeBoy, of Raleigh, was elected by the Ring to the position of member of the county democratic executive committee and member of the county board of elections, made the following statement:

"Yes, I'll buy votes and steal them, too. I will buy all I can get, and what I can't buy, I'll steal."

An Apt Suggestion.

The Rev. Samuel Longfellow was a man, as well as was his more eminent brother. He was the compiler of a book for churches, in which he was assisted by a fellow cleric of the same Christian name. In applying to a third member of the congregation to give the book a title the Rev. suggested that it be called the book.

The Usages of War.

War is necessarily had enough under any circumstances, but its laws and usages are steadily changing for the better. In very early times all prisoners were ruthlessly put to the sword or reduced to slavery, and as for the property rights of the belligerents they did not exist. In the famous pandict of Justinian it is stated without the least equivocation that an enemy's property of every description is res nullius (that is to say, is without an owner) and that occupancy, by which the captor makes it his own, is an institution of natural law. If things were as bad as that so late as the time of Justinian what must they have been in still earlier times?—New York American.

Grasping.

Captain Kidd—What's the trouble? Can't you make the prisoner walk the plank?

Lieutenant—No, cap; he absolutely refuses to be a part of the spectacle unless we guarantee him a percentage of the moving picture receipts.—Puck.

40 PER CENT INCREASE

In Postoffice Receipts in This City Since Last Year

The receipts of the Hendersonville postoffice for the first fifteen days of August, 1910, show an increase of 40 per cent. over the corresponding period of last year.

Comment is unnecessary. The fact speaks for itself.

It is interesting to note that this greatly increased business is handled without any increase in the postoffice force. You can therefore readily imagine that Mr. Jackson and his force are leading a strenuous life these days. They were working hard a year ago; they are working 40 per cent. harder now,---and there are only 24 hours in the day.

At Offices whose business is in this proportion throughout the year have from six to eight regular clerks and five or six carriers.

But John Grant's persistent efforts have insured the erection of an adequate government building in this town, and then it will be a heap easier to handle the vast volume of business.

More People Here Than Ever Before

The crowd is here. There was a very big crowd here last week; a further instalment arrived Sunday; and the big excursion came in three sections Wednesday. And they were big sections. Ask the transfer men.

There are more people in Hendersonville now than ever before in the history of the town.

We learn that, after most folks thought the excursion was through, No. 41 arriving early Thursday morning dropped ninety-five more trunks here. We don't know when this thing will end.

ALDERMEN STRUGGLING WITH SUNDAY PROBLEM

At a meeting of the town council Monday night an ordinance was introduced prohibiting the sale, delivery, manufacture or make of candies, confectioneries, fruits, vegetables ice-cream, meat or photographs on Sunday in Hendersonville.

The ordinance was enacted, J. M. Rhodes, J. M. Stepp and J. W. McIntyre voting for it. J. D. Davis and F. Z. Morris opposed it. Mayor Staton announced, before the vote was taken, that he was opposed to it, and W. C. Rector, who was unavoidably absent, was also opposed to it. Their opposition is based on the ground that the ordinance is unfairly discriminatory; that it permits a man to buy cigars, but forbids a lady to buy candy; that it forbids the "manufacture or sale" of vegetables but permits the "manufacture or sale" of wearing apparel; that it singles out a few articles to forbid, and leaves everything else wide open. Those who oppose it on these grounds say they will try at the next meeting to have it amended so as to put the same embargo on one business as on another.

Locals

Don't forget the precinct meetings Friday.

Mrs. J. L. Egerton is traveling in the northern states and Canada.

Friday, August 19, is the night for the regular communication of Kedron Lodge A. F. and A. M. at 8.30. Visiting brethren welcome.

Rev. C. H. Durham of Lumberton, will preach at the Hendersonville Baptist church next Sunday morning, August 21. The officers of the church request a full attendance of the church membership and the visitors are also invited to be present. Mr. Durham has made many friends in Hendersonville and a good impression on the people generally.

The attention of our readers is especially invited to the announcement, published elsewhere in our columns, of the concert to be given next Thursday at the Heidelberg-Flat Rock, for the benefit of the North Carolina Children's Home Society, of Greensboro. That society has long been doing an excellent work and fully deserves all the support and encouragement that can be given. The concert will be an enjoyable affair in itself, and the fact that it is given for a well known and deserving charity ought to draw a very large attendance.
