n St. Bond Election Tuesday. If You Don't Vote FOR the Bonds You Vote Against Them

estern North Carolina Times

UME XXVI

HENDERSONVILLE, N. C., FRIDAY, JANUARY 12, 1912

e Daily epublican" ut May 1st

y Newspaper Will The Daily Republi-" and First Issue Appear May I.

mature and prayerful conon—or was it simply inspirait has been decided to name sonville's new daily newspahe Daily Republican" and not aily Times" as was at first ined upon.

Daily Republican" will apearly during this Spring. It e an eight-page, six-column its news and editorial columns worth while, and the subon price will be four dollars

Daily Republican already has ses of generous support. Its to vote for the bonds and urge all will be right here in Hender- my friends to do likewise. le-its field of earnest endeavbe the State of North Carowhich has 124,000 Republican and not one daily Republican paper.

of Only Republican HendersonvilleCannot Afford Not to Vote the Bonds, Says Business Man. Electton on Next Tuesday, January 16

Bond Election

On Tuesday

Means Much

"Main street-one hundred feet wide, straight and level-is one of Hendersonville's chief assets as a resort," said a well known business man 'this week, "and with the proposed repaying of the street it will undoubtedly become famous as the most magnificent business thoronghfare in the South.

"While I own property in Hendersonville, it is situated in other parts of the town. I do not own a foot of Main street property. I have sufficient pride in my town, however and realize the urgent necessity of re-paving this street sufficiently well

New Health Ordinances Contain Many InterestingProvisions.City Buys Two Horses for the New Fire Wagon.

City Council

and the New

Health Rules

City Council met last Thursday night] and transacted much busi-

Two good horses, a matched pair of blacks, admirably adapted to the purpose, were purchased for the new fire wagon. When suitable arrangements have been made to house the apparatus Hendersonville will have what it has long needed-adequate fire protection.

Health ordinances were adopted which provide as follows:

Section 1. That the following diseases are declared to be communicable and dangerous to public health, viz. : small pox (variola, varioloid), cholera (Asiatic or epidemic), scarlet fever, measles, pul

Famous "Mystery" Is No Mystery for Mythical Murderers of MissMyrtle Hawkins are But Figments of Imagination

Sobs Citizen

Who Killed

MissHawkins

"Who killed Myrtle Hawkins?" asks the Asheville Citizen in an editorial criticism of the county and city authorities here for failure to discover the mythical murderers, and proceeds to draw an unfair parallel between the "unsolved" mystery of the young girl's death and the quick sentencing to the chair of Richeson, the Boston preacher-murderer-the self-confessed killer of Avis Linnell.

placed behind the bars a few days after the commission of the crime, although the police had but slender clews to work upon, while the Henderson county authorities, it charges,

Annual Meeting of Big About to Introduce Bill in Bank's Stockholders.All Old Officers Re-elected. Wm. Lott Succeeds G. W. Ragan as Direcror

First National

Stockholders

Are Pleased

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National cording to a dispatch in an Ashe-Bank, held Tuesday, the report of ville paper of January 5, is about general business for the year just to introduce a bill in Congress apended showed a handsome and very propriating $60,000 for a postoffice satisfactory increase over any previous corresponding period.

All the old officers were re-elected. One change was made in the board of directors, William Lott succeeding G. W. Regan. A large number of the stockholders were present at The Citizen says Richeson was the meeting-a meeting, by the way, paid for it, and there is a balance which was very pleasant and enjoyable.

> The excellent report of the year's business was naturally gratifying to sibly have absolutely no bearing on the men who have their money in the matter whatever, for John

House Making Appropriation for Hendersonville Postoffice, Which is Already Provided For

Gudger Plays

PeanutPolitics

Unprofitably

No. 39

Representative J. M. Gudger, aobuilding in Hendersonville, -for which the necessary authorization had already been secured by John G. Grant while representing this District in the 61st Congress.

The Government has a lready bought the site for the building and on hand of the appropriation available for construction.

Of course, Mr. Gudger's action was needless, useless, and can pos-in The Times, The Daily Re-Own Bugle." It will not be ly an organ of publicity to boost olitical fortune of any one inual but will be a NEWSpaper y, and in so far as it is within power of the men back of it, it be a readable newspaper. It advocate most earnestly the ciples of government of the ublican party-six days a week d will aid in the development estern North Carolina and help te its infinite charm better known nany thousands he establishment of a daily newsins a great deal to the townch has already indicated its intion to give the new enterprise a m welcome.

he Merchants Grocery Co.

Effective February first, the Merints Grocery Company will sucd the Calhoun-Wilkins Company, olesale grocers. The charter of old company has been amended the capital stock increased to 5,000.

The officers of the new company as follows: Charles P. Hayes, esident; Charles C. Humphries, ce-President and Secretary ; John Wilkins, Treasurer and Maner. Mr. A. W. Calhoun has sold s interest in the business and ne to Charleston.

The Merchants Grocery Company, th their long established connecons and increased facilities, will elp very materially to make Henersonville still better known as a bbing center. The Calhoun-Wilins Company was as well known any other jobbing house in West-

"It would be a mistaken policy to let the street remain in its present condition during the coming season To do so, would, in my opinion, result in giving the thousands of visitrepeat a statement made last ors expected here a totally wrong impression of Hendersonville-of its can will be no man's "Blow growth, its progress, and of that great public spirit so characteristic of the place and which, after all, is the mainspring of its civic activities regardless of parties or politics.

"I repeat, the street is one of the town's best assets, and properly paved, free from the mud and dust which the tourists have so sadly experienced in the past, will be the very finest advertisement Hendersonville could possibly have.

"We cannot afford NOT to repave the street. There is altogether too much at stake to let any question, save the urgent necessity of the improvement, enter into the proposier in Hendersonville naturally tion. Every hotel and boarding house keeper, every merchant, every mechanic, in fact every man, woman or child who is interested in the yearly increasing popularity of Hendersonville as a resort, will get out and work for the bonds on election day-January 16th-if they have the best interests of the best town in the South close to their hearts."

The Last Tribute. MYRTLE 1891-1911

'He Liveth to Intercede For Us.' HAWKINS

This is the simple inscription on a simple and very beautiful block of marble which will mark the last resting place of Myrtle Hawkins in My dear Mr. Justice: Oakdale Cemetery. The block is about two feet each way, about six Zirconia to Tryon via Saluda to see if it is inches thick and rests upon a base. It is being made by the Hendersonville Marble Works, F. E. Tipton, day evening, reaching Hendersonville the proprietor.

Mr. Holt Endorses Changing Road

Editor Times: I heartily endorse the cation in last week's Time advomonary and laryngeal tuberculosis, diphtheria, typhoid fever, typhus fever, yellow fever, spotted fever (cerebro-spinal meningitis), epidemic of dysentery and whooping cough.

Section 2. That when ever any householder knows that any person within his family or household has a communicable disease, dangerous to public health, he shall within twenty-four (24) hours, report the same to the health officer of the city. giving the street number or location of the house; and any such householder failing or neglecting to comply with the provisions of this section shall be subject to a penalty of $25 for each and every such offense. Section 3. That whenever any physician finds that any person whom he is called upon to visit has a communicable disease, dangerous to the public health, he shall, within twenty-four (24) hours, report the same to said health officer, giving the street and number or location of said house, upon the receipt of which report the said health officer shall immediately notify the school committee of the city, the superintendent of the city schools, and the principals of all private schools within the city; and any physician or officer failing to comply with any provision of this section shall be subject to a penalty of

To Survey New Road Monday

I finally arranged to make a survey from possible to get a good road through that way. Mr. R. T. Brown will leave here Frinext morning. He will look you up and let you know what he is going to try to do. Any assistance you can give him I shall appreciate very much. On receipt of this letter I will appreciate it if you will wire me the weather conditions and what you think about the possi bility of making a survey at this time.

Yours very truly Joseph Hyde Pratt State Geologist. are doing nothing to bring the slayers of Myrtle Hawkins to justice, relying upon the fickle memory of the public and the lapse of time to wipe the case off the public records. "Yet that Myrtle Hawkins was murdered," says our contemporary, is an admitted fact, and it is known of all men that the murderer or murderers committed their crime within the county and are still living there."

"AND ARE STILL LIVING THERE !" Strong words these-"And are still living there!"

Then who are they?

It is now up to the Citizen to name names that delayed justice may not be defeated entirely.

But the mystery of Myrtle Hawkins murder is no mystery-for no murder was committed.

Myrtle Hawkins took her own life.

Driven desperate by her shame, after attempting to deliver herself of her heavy burden and dreadfully failing, she took her own life, and more sinned against than sinning, The First National Bank is often an she has been ere this judged by the one great and supreme Judge of us all.

On that peaceful Sunday morning when the waters of Lake Osceola revealed their secret and gave up their dead, there was no water found in the lungs of the betrayed girland upon that fact is based the many fantastic theories as to the method of her death, nearly everyone taking it for granted that she was dead when her body was placed in the lake or water would have

There are instances on record right here in Henderson county where men, known to have been drowned, whose lungs, when the bodies have been recovered, were as empty of water as were Myrtle Hawkins' on the day her body was dragged from the lake.

Those who remember the evidence given at the second coroner's inquest will recollect that the ill-fated girl's little clock was found, exactly no less than it will be to the army of depositors in the "oldest and people think he is about to do. strongest bank" in Hendersonville James Knox Taylor, Supervising and to the public generally. The Architer Taylor, Treasury Depart-First National Bank's steady growth ment, Washington, The Times has is the result of that confidence of has received the tollowing replies, satis fied customers which is acquired only by safe and careful management, and its ability and willingness Gudger's actions. to give the most liberal banking facilities to its customers.

of the important and best known fi- propriated? nancial institutions in this part of the State, does enjoy the absolute partment to contract for building at confidence of the community to a Hendersonville, using the money remarkable degree. The personal integrity of its officers, and their well known financial ability, combined with the character of the successful business men who sit around the director's table, are responsible for this-partly.

But there is another, deeper, underlying reason, and that is the broadgauge business policy of this bank-a policy which prompts it to take an active interest in all things, all movements, which tend towards a Greater Hendersonville and a more prosperous Henderson county. instigator, always a liberal subscriber and "booster" to any movement having as its aim the increased sary? prosperity of the community in general and the farmers of Henderson county in particular. Possibly they realize that a more productive, more prosperous agricultural country means a still more useful First National Bank-for it is through its confidence-inspiring strong and banks that the business blood of a country flows.

The officers of the bank are: W. J. Davis, president; K. G. Morris, vice-president ; J. Mack Rhodes, cashier; S. G. Rhodes, assistant cashier.

May Establish Creamery Here

For the purpose of forming a cooperative creamery company, if possible, a well attended meeting of representative business men was time enriching and building up their held in the director's room of the soil. First National Bank, Monday night, vested in the First National Bank, Grant has already done what Mr. Gudger apparently would have the

In answer to four questions asked which explain themselves and which show the utter absurdity and the peanutty political flavor of Mr.

1. Can you authorize the erection of a Federal building here until all For the First National Bank, one the money necessary has been any

> The reply: "Have authorized deavailable until that amount is spent."

2. Does Congress appropriate all the money at one time when they authorize the erection of a Federal building?

The reply: "It is not usual to appropriate the entire authorization at once.

3. When the Treasury Department is authorized by Congress to erect a Federal building, is not Congress bound to protect such authorizaeion?

The reply: "Congress eventually appropriates for all authorizations."

4. Was this second appropriation for Hendersonville, N.O., neces-

The reply: "The introducing of the bill referred to in your letter is evidently inadvertent. Nothing in the way of construction of building except previous authorizations have a prior right. The Hendersonville plans will probably be taken up in about fifteen months."

Mr. Brydges representing to do this and turn the plant over to the stockholders on completion, when the subscribers are to pay for their stock and not before.

It was said that 300 gallons of milk daily at the creamery would make it profitable to the stockholders. Of course, the greatest benefit will be derived by the farmers as a creamery here would enable them to keep dairy cattle and find a market for the r product, at the same

So long as Henry Jordan continand decided that such an enterprise use a shining example of what cat-

been found in her lungs.

m North Carolina, and the com- any's successer will continue the ld firm's aggressive policy. They re in a better position now, with in- reased capital and facilities, to nake that policy even more aggress- ive-which means something to lendersonville. The company is very greatly trengthened by the addition of Mr. lumphries who has had long ex	known to the merchants of Western North Carolina to require any com- ment, while Mr. Jno. T. Wilkins' executive ability, responsible large- ly for the past success of the corpor-	Mr. Justice informs The Times that, the survey will be made Monday. VOTE ! If you don't vote for the street bonds you vote against Henderson- ville's best interests.	o'clock on Saturday evening, while the remains were discovered there on the following morning. Did the mythical murderers make two journeys to the lake? One to carefully deposit the clock where the rays of the setting sun would reveal it to a passing child, and an-	would be decidedly helpful to the farmers of the county They also decided to take stock in the inter- prise—solely for that reason. A proposition was submitted by a Mr. Bridges to form a stock com- pany of sixty men, each to take one share of stock at $100. This money	If the co-operative creamery company is actually organized, milk routes will be established, the milk collected daily, the butter fat ex- tracted and the skim milk returned umphries who has had long ex	ly for the past success of the corpor- ation, will now be more in evidence	Vinces best interested	reveal it to a passing child, and an-	share of stock at $100. This money is to be used to build the creamery, buy the site, equip it, the company	to the farmer, who will receive a