

Why buy a cheap buggy at a high price?

When you ride, ride RIGHT!
Buy a HIGH POINT buggy!
We don't sell CHEAP buggies!

Farmers' Hardware and Supply Co.

Everything for the Farmer and Builder at Mail Order Defying Prices

The Very Best
Mitchell Wagons
Cortright Shingles
McCormack Reapers and Binders.

Buy a
Two-Horse
Cultivator Now!

The Very Best
Geo. E. Nisson Wagon
John Deere
Disc Cultivators
Many other things too!

A HARNESS SHOP

that is fully prepared to furnish all kinds of horse and stable goods INVITES YOUR INSPECTION.

Do not be persuaded to send your money out of town for this class of goods until you are posted on what we are able to do right here. We not only save you money, but you are permitted to inspect the goods before you pay for them. No annoying delays. No substitutes. No shortages. Our guarantee goes with every article we sell. Compare our goods and prices, and you will surely decide to buy here.

Cheple & Staton

HENDERSONVILLE NEWS STAND

Periodicals.

Newspapers
Magazines

Exclusive Agents: Saturday Evening Post; Ladies Home Journal; Country Gentleman
Phone us your order and we will deliver to your home.

TELEPHONE 260

SALUDA NEWS

Leo C. Pace has returned from Enoree, S. C. He reports a pleasant trip.

Fred Oehler, who has been attending school at Westminster, has returned to Saluda.

Mrs. Ralph Newman is visiting friends and relatives in Newberry.

C. O. Sparling, the up-to-date and proficient jeweler of Ellenboro has opened up his shop in R. B. Staton's Photo gallery.

Miss Arra Lankford spent Sunday in Landrum, S. C., visiting friends.

The singing contest held at Friendship church last Sunday was well attended. The contestants, tarts, Upward and Friendship, will sing in the County Convention at Hendersonville next Sunday.

Rev. Messrs. Bross and Ferguson are conducting a revival at the Methodist church.

John Garmany spent Wednesday in Asheville on business.

Mrs. Mattie Leonard and Miss Nona Miller spent Monday in Asheville.

The editors of The Times and The Democrat were pleasant callers last week.

D.H. McAllister of Asheville was here Monday.

The Saluda advertisement carried in the Good Roads edition of The Times and The Democrat was very attractive, and the progressive citizens of Saluda are more than pleased with such a boost. It pays to advertise;—and yet, sad to relate, some people have not found it out yet. The combination edition of the above named journals was a thing of beauty and a joy forever.

Leo C. Pace has accepted a position with Hopkins' up-to-date pharmacy for the season. Leo is very popular, and Mr. Hopkins is to be congratulated on his selection.

W. D. Aiken and family of Columbia, S. C., are in Saluda for the season.

E. L. Wagoner of St. Petersburg, Fla., is with us for the season. All of his friends are glad to shake his hand again.

Mrs. W. H. Pace is visiting her parents in Statesville for awhile. Morgan Aiken is visiting in Charleston, S. C.

Calvin Hill is visiting at Tuxedo for a few days. Look out, girls!

N. B. Gibbs, the popular express agent of Hendersonville, was a pleasant caller Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Rogers of New Orleans is visiting her brother, E. B. Goelet.

J. H. Lawson of Knoxville, Tenn., is building a house near the depot for Mrs. Richmond.

H. P. Locke has gone to Macon, Ga., on business.

The many friends of Miss Annie Hart are congratulating her on her successful campaign and the fine piano she won.

William Forest has opened up his barber shop near the post office.

G. W. Pearson and Miss Leathia Morgan were quietly married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Patterson's last Sunday. Their many friends extend congratulations and best wishes for a long and prosperous married life.

MT. HEBRON

Misses Matilda Revis and Geneva Drake made a flying trip to Hendersonville Sunday morning.

Joseph E. Huggins leaves shortly for Tampa, Fla., where he expects to spend the summer.

George Lambreth was at Mt. Hebron Sunday afternoon and made an interesting talk on Sunday school work.

F. C. Justus expects to open his boarding house June 1.

Elijah Cantrell is on the road to recovery, as he was seen at prayer meeting Sunday night.

B. F. Orr has been elected choir leader at Mt. Hebron Sunday school.

Harvey Hamilton has returned from Rosman. His many friends welcome him home again.

Everybody is glad to see Henry B. Hamilton delivering corn meal in his new automobile.

For Sale—At a bargain, 8-room cottage, all modern conveniences, beautiful lot, good barn, nice lawn. One of the nice houses in Hendersonville. Two 4-room cottages, good location, will pay in rents 10 to 12 per cent on investment.

Also stock of general merchandise, good location and a good business. Inquire at Times office for further particulars.

BANKRUPT SALE!

DOOMED!

$12,000 Stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Shoes, Clothing,

Farming Tools, Etc., must be sold by Saturday Night, May 31st, regardless of cost or price

You make the price we wrap up the goods.

T. B. CARSON'S BIG STORE

At the Depot

Hendersonville, N. C.