THE ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL FUND

Monday was Roosevelt day, and all over the country people made contributions to the fund which is being raised to erect suitable memorials to the late lamented ex-President. While the canvass in this county proved fairly satisfactory, we did not go over the top. That is, we did not succeed in raising our quota. We need about $160 more, to complete our quota. Therefore, the canvass will have to be carried on in this county until sufficient funds are raised to complete our quota. The committee, requests us to urge all friends and admirers of the late Theodore Roosevelt, who have not already made contributions to this fund, to do so at once. Contributions can be made to A. O. Jones, county secretary-treasurer, at the register's office, or to any member of a precinct committee.

The requests of the following persons had been reported to county secretary, A. O. Jones, as having made contributions, at the time we go to press. Reports from a few solicitors in several precincts have not yet come in.

A HIDE IN OUR TANNERY

The following letter has just been received by us:

Umatilla, Fla., Oct. 23, 1919.

"The Rector Publishing Co., Hendersonville, N. C. Gentlemen:

Yours of 18th with reference to subscription to your paper, just received. I have never known how my name ever got on your list—if put there by a friend, I appreciate the motive—but as to the paper I have been so thoroughly disgusted with its policies and attitude toward vital public questions that I had intended long ago to ask you to stop sending it to me. It will be a favor to take my name from your mailing list.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) Geo. V. DeVault.

We do not know Mr. DeVault, and do not know how his name got on our subscription list. But we will wager the last button on our coat that some friend of his, who was anxious to have him read a good newspaper that stands foursquare at all times for the principles and policies which have made our beloved country great and prosperous, paid a year's subscription for him and had us put his name on our mailing list. He has been getting the paper for more than a year, and has been reading it too, because he says he has "been so thoroughly disgusted with its policies," etc., that he had long ago intended to have us stop sending it to him. It would have been impossible for him to become disgusted at our policies if he had not read the paper.

Despite the fact that this Florida cracker says he decided long ago to have us take his name from our mailing list, he did not direct us to do so until we sent him a request in writing politely and asking him to pay up. Kept getting our paper and reading it, and doubtless would still be getting it if we had not called upon him to pay for it. What sort of man is this who, after getting and reading our paper for so long a time, writes us a note to stop sending it, only upon receipt of a notice from us that we would like for him to pay up? Well, to say the least, he is one of those fellows who will not endure sound doctrine. Poor, deluded fellow, we wouldn't have thought of placing his hide in our tannery if he hadn't waited until we asked him to pay up to order us to stop sending him our paper.

This poor fellow, too, appears to be president of the Bank of Umatilla. Now what do you think of a bank president becoming "thoroughly disgusted," etc., with the policies of The Times and its attitude toward "vital public questions?" Is it any wonder that his friend who had us send him our paper, wanted him to read it in the hope that he might be brought from darkness to light? But light doesn't seem to be what this Florida bank president most desires. It seems that he is abashed with a desire for filthy lucre more than he is for light. After having worked on him for over a year and failed to accomplish the results his friend desired have us accomplish, we will quietly and unceremoniously remove his name from our mailing list.

BLOCKADERS CAPTURED

Sheriff Case and Deputy Sheriff T. V. Lyda, accompanied by W. J. Freeman, T. C. Huntley, Thomas Staton and W. M. Hill, following up a tip which had been received at the sheriff's office, went Tuesday morning to a point near St. Paul's in Edneyville township, and there captured a complete blockade distilling outfit, and arrested Jesse Freeman and Ed. Laws, two colored men who were operating the moonshine plant at the time of the arrival of the officers.

The still was in full operation and three gallons of whiskey had just been run off when the officers made their raid. Four or five fermenters, with their contents, were destroyed, together with the still itself. The worm, which was made of copper, was brought to town and stored away to be used as evidence against the blockaders, in case it is needed for that purpose.

The two men whom the officers arrested were brought to town and in default of bond, were placed in jail pending a preliminary hearing before a magistrate.

Sheriff Case says this is the 52nd still he and his men, have destroyed since his term of office began. And in the raids on moonshine plants he says he has succeeded in arresting seventeen moonshiners.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS

We have been mailing from this office to our subscribers, statements of subscription accounts as fast as we are able to prepare them and do the other work required of us and it is very gratifying to the management of the paper the way its friends are responding. Let the good work go on, don't wait to receive a statement, but send us your check for back dues and a year or two in advance and we will take care of you.

HENDERSONVILLE SCHOOL NEWS

The civic class in the high school here is getting down to business—practical business at that, which will not only benefit the classes in this branch of high school work, but the public generally.

Some of the students with pencil and tablet are making detours of the city, inspecting drainage, sidewalks, streets, railroad crossings, the fire department, the water system, etc. These students do not hesitate to condemn what in their opinions is detrimental to health and general sanitary perfection, and stamp their approval on those which tend to the beautification of the city, health and happiness of the inhabitants.

VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE INTRODUCED IN CITY SCHOOL

Superintendent Honeycutt and Victor J. Garvin will meet all those interested in studying vocational agriculture at the city school building Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The class will be organized Saturday and regular work begun on Monday. Any bona fide resident of Henderson county may be enrolled without tuition charges.

BOYD ASKS FOR NEW JUDGE

James E. Boyd, federal judge in the western district of North Carolina, has addressed a letter to the President requesting the appointment of an additional judge in this district. Judge Boyd tells the President he is no longer physically able to perform efficiently all the duties of the office, and suggests that an additional judge be appointed without delay.

It is understood Congressman E. Y. Webb, of Shelby will receive the appointment.

Last Monday morning Dewey McCall, Harold Patterson, U. G. George, J. H. Capps, Lewis Drake, Robert McDowell and Frenno Osteen left on a truck for Winter Haven, Fla., where they will be engaged in gathering and packing fruit for the winter.

SKETCH OF LIFE OF G. M. GLAZENER

Giles Monroe Glazener, familiarly known by his many friends throughout this and adjoining counties, as "Bud" Glazener, departed this life at the Patton Memorial hospital in this city, at 8 minutes past noon last Saturday.

About a month ago Mr. Glazener became afflicted with a malignant carbuncle which came on the back of his neck at the base of the brain. Despite the efforts of physicians, this continued to grow worse, until it was decided that an operation would be necessary, the efficacy of which the doctors doubted because of a diabetical trouble with which the deceased had been afflicted for quite a long while. The operation was performed, and the patient seemed to rally and show signs of improvement for two or three days thereafter. This did not last, and another operation or two was performed as a last resort in the hope that the deceased might be restored to health. His condition, however, continued to grow worse until the end came at the time above stated.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday morning at the Methodist church here by Rev. E. E. Bomar, pastor of the Baptist church of this city, Rev. Moores, the Methodist pastor, being absent at conference. The church was filled to its capacity with the friends of the deceased of this city and vicinity, which attested the high esteem in which Mr. Glazener was held by the people among whom he had lived for the past twenty years.

At the close of the church service members of the local Masonic lodge accompanied the body to the station and placed it on the train which carried it to Calvert in Transylvania county, where interment in Greenwood cemetery, near where the deceased was born and raised, was made. Members of Dun's Rock Masonic lodge at Brevard, of which the deceased was a member, assisted by about twenty members from Kedron lodge of this city, performed the Masonic, ritualistic ceremony at the grave. The deceased was 51 years of age. He was a son of Mrs. M. J. Glazener and her later husband, who died a few months ago. He lived with his parents at the old home near Rosman until he reached his majority. He then procured a position with a sewing machine company for whom he traveled for several years in the upper part of South Carolina, and later in some of the western counties of this state. He came to Hendersonville and embarked in the mercantile business about 20 years ago. His business grew from the start until at the time of his death, he was one of

MR. LATHAM IS BANK EXAMINER

It became known on our streets Wednesday that Clarence Latham, a well-known business man of this city, had been appointed chief bank examiner for North Carolina and would assume control of his new duties November 1st.

Mr. Latham is well and favorably known here in business circles as a man of sound business judgment and is well qualified to fill the responsible position which he has been called upon to fill. We quote the following taken from the Raleigh News and Observer:

"Mr. Clarence Latham, of Hendersonville, has been appointed chief bank examiner of North Carolina and Mr. C. S. Attmore, of New Bern, has been appointed his assistant.

"Strangely both appointments are made to fill vacancies left by Bank Examiner John Nichols who recently resigned to accept a position as vice-president of the American Trust Company of Charlotte. When Mr. Nichols was promoted to state bank examiner from the position of assistant, his office was not filled. Consequently comes the necessity of making two appointments now.

"The announcement of the latest appointments was made by the corporation commission yesterday. Mr. Latham, formerly of Plymouth, has had seventeen years banking experience and is regarded as a conservative, accurate and efficient banker. He has been identified with the banking interests of the state and is a successful business man.

"Mr. Attmore is a native, of Pamlico county, and has been identified with the First National Bank, of New Bern. He is considered one of the best banking men in that section of the state."

PLATFORM KENTUCKY PATRIOTIC LEAGUE

The following is the declaration of principles of the Citizens' Patriotic League of Covington, Ky., in which they pledge their lives and their services to "America first and America forever:

First—We believe in the Constitution of the United States as the written basis of the most perfect system of government ever devised by the mind of man.

Second—We believe in the flag of our land as the perfect emblem of that for which our nation has always stood—liberty, equality and justice to all over whom it waves.

Third—We believe that these privileges are the equal property of every citizen of this country, without reference to his ancestry or birth, and that, therefore, his country has the right to demand of him his undivided allegiance in peace and in war, under all circumstances, likewise without reference to birth or ancestry.

Fourth—We believe that in the hour of danger the Constitution and the flag demand the loyal service, and, if need be, the life of every citizen of these United States, and that the man who, in such an hour, withholds either service or blood is a bastard citizen and no true son of America.

Fifth—We believe that the danger to the nation and its principles is greater and more insidious today than at any hour during the active hostilities of the recent past.

Sixth—We believe that this danger arises from several sources, namely:

(a) German propaganda which is ever with us, albeit under a new guise each day;

(b) Appeals to racial prejudice in political effort, which we unqualifiedly condemn as un-American and therefore dangerous;

(c) Socialism, whether radical or otherwise;

(d) The presence of millions of illiterate foreigners, incapable of comprehending or appreciating either the principles or the blessings of American institutions, and forming a most ready and willing agency through which both German propaganda and Socialistic principles are disseminated;

(e) Weak-kneed or conscienceless politicians, who skillfully refrained from offending the traitors amongst us during the war and are now striving with might and main to gather the practical fruit of their treasonous cowardice;

(f) Citizens of any class who put party before principle, or prejudice ahead of the weal of the country.

Seventh—We believe that the salvation of the nation demands that America shall be Americanized, letting the process hurt whom it may.

Eighth—To this end, we believe that certain radical steps of reconstruction must be immediately adopted:

(a) Resident aliens of all nationalities who are incapable of approaching the blessings of our institutions must be deported;

(b) Foreign-born citizens who have proven their unfitness for citizenship by either open disloyalty in word or deed, or by seditious inactivity in the times of war, must have the rights of citizenship withdrawn and they likewise must be deported;

(c) German and all other modern foreign languages must be banished from all elementary schools and from public print and public speech alike, save where they are employed for the purpose of Americanizing foreignborn people not yet acquainted with the English language;

(d) All methods and plans for Americanizing our foreign-born population must be directed by Americans whose antecedents and environment have given them a clear conception of the principles of American institutions;

(e) All immigration must be immediately suspended for an indefinite period.

Ninth—We believe that German propaganda must be destroyed, and with it all of the spawn which it has produced—social revolution; pussy-footing politicians who seek pro-German support; race agitation and agitators.

Tenth—We believe that the ballot is the one and only constitutional means by which Americans can secure needed changes of governmental policy and purpose and that the honest and intelligent use of the ballot in placing in position of responsibility only loyal Americans, without reference to ancestry, will effectually safeguard our inherited rights.

PLATFORM KENTUCKY PATRIOTIC LEAGUE

Eleventh—We believe that all attempts at coercion in the control of the legislative, executive or judicial departments of the government are un-American, treasonable and pregnant with unspeakable danger to the nation.

Twelfth—We believe that the hour has come when every loyal American who values his inheritance of liberty and loves the flag of his land must put country first, and, forgetting other affiliations, join hands with every loyal citizen to free American from its present peril.

Then, God helping us, all else forgot, we pledge our hands, our hearts, our lives, our services to America first and America forever.

PRITCHARD ENDORSED

A representative gathering of Republicans of the 10th district assembled in the Elk's building in Asheville Tuesday at noon, and listened to an able speech delivered by Bert Fuller, a personal representative of Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee.

Mr. Fuller spoke at length of the mission of the Republican party as he understood it, its duty to the country, and the methods by which its return to power ought to be achieved. Short and enthusiastic speeches were made by a number of leading Republicans who were present at the meeting, all of them striking for their keynote the basic need of organization, of working in harmony, and forgetting old inter-party quarrels in the common cause for the common good.

An enthusiastic endorsement of Judge J. C. Pritchard for President on the Republican ticket in 1920, was given by the meeting.

A resolution was adopted expressing for J. J. Britt, who is critically ill at Rochester, Minn., sympathy and best wishes of his fellow party-workers here at home, and expressing the hope that he may speedily recover.
