

BIG FIRE AT NEW ORLEANS.

A Big Conflagration Disturbs Sunday's Quiet.

SWEEPS OVER THREE BLOCKS

Firemen Enjoying Their Annual Picnic at Suburban Park and the Blaze Gets a Good Working Before They Get to Work to it.

New Orleans, Special.—Fire which broke out in the center of the commercial district here Sunday afternoon swept over portions of three blocks, destroying a large number of wholesale houses, manufacturing plants and small stores.

Several circumstances combined to give the fire a headway which proved hard to overcome. At the time the alarm was turned in, shortly before 3 o'clock, the New Orleans firemen were in the midst of their annual picnic at suburban park and the engines and patrols responded with a mere handful of men.

The fire was one of the most spectacular that has occurred in New Orleans during recent years. The section devastated was made up largely of old buildings, some over a half century in use.

Two warehouses, filled with wines and liquors, were among the buildings destroyed by the fire. As they burned the barrels of whiskey and brandy exploded with thunderous roars which could be heard for blocks and which shook the walls of adjoining buildings and endangered the lives of firemen engaged in fighting the flames.

Gen. A. P. Stewart Dead.

Biloxi, Miss., Special.—Gen. Alexander P. Stewart, one of the last surviving lieutenant generals of the Confederate States Army, died at his home here Sunday. Although in his 87th year and suffering from the infirmities of old age, General Stewart lived the greater part of a distinct shock to his relatives and friends.

Nearly Stabbed to Death.

Winston-Salem, N. C., Special.—Dangerously, perhaps fatally wounded, Sid Chandler, a young white man, was found early Sunday morning bleeding and unconscious on the ground near the home of Millie Bullock, a white woman, on Crawford street. He had been cut and stabbed on the body.

Killed in Family Quarrel.

Tallahassee, Special.—In a shooting affray Sunday night at this place Jim Duncan was killed. Investigation has consumed all day to determine whether the man was shot by one Harvey, who was visiting at the Duncan home, or by the wife of Will Duncan, a brother of the dead man.

Aged Man Walks a Hundred Miles to Fulfill Promise.

Huntsville, Ala., Special.—Charles Eaton, an aged one-armed man, who had been released from jail by Federal Judge Hundley to visit his sick wife, surrendered himself Saturday night after having walked over 100 miles to fulfill his promise to return.

Found Dead in His Office.

Raleigh, N. C., Special.—Cold and stiff in death the body of Mr. S. G. Ryan, a lawyer of this city, was found Sunday night at 11 o'clock in his office in the Commercial and Farmers' Bank Building. Mr. Ryan had probably been dead for twelve or fifteen hours, as he had not been seen all day.

Atlantic City's N. J. Special.

A real blue Sunday came to Atlantic City Sunday. Many persons familiar with the history of this far-famed resort have been inclined to doubt the possibility of such a thing, but Sunday every one of the 220 saloons and hotel bars were closed.

REPORT ON FLOOD DAMAGE.

Farming Lands Demanded More Than A Million Dollars.

The recent heavy rains have not only done an enormous amount of damage to crops, bridges, roads and railroads, but according to a estimate made by W. W. Ashe, State geologist at Raleigh, the spread and farming lands have been washed to an extent of more than a million dollars, the damage being heavy in those sections where the country is most hilly and where the rainfall was most concentrated.

These estimates, based on the amount of soil in the water of the rivers, as shown from previous records of freshets of the same height indicate that more than 1,500,000 tons of soil were washed from the piedmont region of North Carolina during the past week; more than 500,000 tons from the farms of northern Georgia, 700,000 tons from upper South Carolina, and 400,000 tons from the hills of Virginia.

At one dollar a ton for this humus, which is less than it can be replaced for, the loss to these States in impoverishment of the soil exceeds $1,200,000. This is a loss which is largely overlooked and under-estimated by the farmer, because it is a loss which takes place so constantly.

The rainfall at Raleigh and at many other points in middle North Carolina exceeded 12 inches in four days, parts of upper South Carolina it was 15 inches in three days, while more than 4 inches fell at many places during one day.

Company of Infantry and Regimental Band for Greensboro Fair. Greensboro, Special.—It appears that a troop of cavalry and the regimental band will be sent to Greensboro, and since that time the chief of staff has agreed to send a company of infantry and a regimental band, and it is not improbable that artillery will also be sent.

Fire Destroys Handsome New Home.

Asheville, Special.—Fire Saturday morning at 6 o'clock completely destroyed the residence of Bonnie Macdonald on Black street, restating in a loss of probably $3,000. The fire was discovered a few minutes before 6 o'clock and an alarm turned in the department got away in good time, but owing to the distance it reached the scene too late to save the structure or any great amount of personal effects.

Pockets of Circus-Goers Picked.

Morganton, Special.—Friday was gala day in Morganton. Fully four thousand people came into town from all parts of the county to see John Robinson's circus. Everybody went to the show. Pickpockets got in some good work. One man, a Mr. Whistman, was relieved of a pocket-book containing $100. Quite a number of other people was relieved of smaller amounts.

The Young Men of Thomasville have decided to organize a fire company for the purpose of successfully operating the town fire engine. The machine is the best hand machine made and if properly operated will do a great deal of good.

Many Lives Nearly Lost.

Tryon, Special.—Passengers on train No. 13, westbound, on the Southern Railway had a narrow escape from death here Saturday. One car is derailed and overhangs a steep embankment. Outside of a severe shake-up no one was injured.

AFTERMATH OF RECENT FLOOD

Further Loss of Life and Damage to Property is Revealed by the Receding Waters at Augusta.

Augusta, Ga., Special.—The flood water at Augusta is receding rapidly and as the water leaves the streets it is apparent that the loss has been underestimated. In addition to the disasters already reported it is found that the Riverside Mills, in damage to plant and loss of cotton, which floated away, sustains a loss of $100,000; Reid's Cotton Warehouse, the finest in the South, is damaged in a large sum, but it will require a survey to determine the amount; a large block, where the wholesale houses are assembled, is badly injured. The Nelson Morris & Co. warehouse has collapsed, and is being raised; the Augusta Grocery Company's building is damaged to the extent of $6,000; Hill & Terry escaped serious loss; C. D. Carr & Co., Paul Muslin & Murphy are comparatively slightly damaged; the National Biscuit Company's building, wrecked. The Central Grammar School is badly hurt and the Davidson Grammar School is damaged severely.

Starvation Threatened.

In some districts people who cannot leave their homes, have not had food since Wednesday night. Augusta is trying hard to measure up to the demand upon her. At the public meetings it was decided not to make an appeal for outside assistance, but to accept any contributions offered. It is a question if the city council meeting and city council did not err in declining to make a public appeal for assistance and many believe they will yet be compelled to ask aid of the outside world.

The Night Session.

At 8:45 Judge Adams called the meeting to order and announced that he would appoint Mr. Daniel A. Knappe, of Marion, sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Knappe is a well known citizen and able to throw out an ordinary citizen.

Estimated losses are as follows:

- Total damage from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000.
Damage to city property $200,000 to $250,000.
Damage to steel railroad $25,000.
Damage to railroads $50,000.
Damage to telephone and telegraph companies $20,000.
Damage to merchants and local industries $150,000 to $200,000.
Damage to residents $50,000.
Probable loss in wages to mill operatives and others $30,000.
Loss by fire.

FLOOD FAST RECEDING.

Bodies of Two White Men and Eight Negroes Have Been Found Cabs Now Taking Place of Boats.

Augusta, Ga., Special.—Water is fast receding from the streets of Augusta, and the city will soon for most part be dry again. Merchants will probably begin to look over their stock by noon. Bodies are being found. So far two white men and eight negroes have been found. It is believed that about 25 persons, mostly negroes, have lost their lives. The city is now free from water except in the extreme lower portions, and cabs are taking the place of boats. Property loss is now estimated at not less than $1,500,000.

Relief in the Piedmont.

Charlotte, N. C., Special.—The flood situation here is only a memory, except great damage to crops, to streets and public roads and bridges. Train schedules are being rapidly resumed.

George P. Rowell Dead.

Poland Springs, Me., Special.—George P. Rowell, of New York, prominent for many years in the newspaper advertising business, died Friday night at the Poland Springs House, following an illness of more than a month.

Part of Seaboard Bridge Near Rockingham Gone.

Rockingham, N. C., Special.—The flood situation is getting better, the water receding. The trestle on the island connecting the steel parts of the Seaboard bridge on the Pee Dee river is washed away. The Rockingham Power Company's damage at Blewett Falls is not as great as at first feared. Crops in the lowlands are ruined.

Use Gun on Alleged Despoiler of His Home.

Bristol, Tenn., Special.—Charles Armstrong, a prominent and wealthy cattle raiser shot and killed Andrew Arnold, a merchant fourteen miles north of Rogersville, (in Hawkins county). The shooting was caused, it is said, because of Arnold's alleged intimacy with Mrs. Armstrong. No arrest has yet been made. Armstrong left home presumably for Rogersville but returned unexpectedly and found Arnold at his home.

COX AND TONS NOMINATED

Republican State Convention Names Standard Bearer

THE MEETING WAS HARMONIOUS

State Republican Convention Adjourns After Sessions Lasting Two Days. Mr. J. Elwood Cox, of High Point, Given First Place on Ticket and Mr. Charles French Toms, of Hendersonville, the Second.—Cyrus Thompson Named For Secretary of State.

Charlotte, N. C., Special.

At 5:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon the Republican State Convention which assembled here at noon Wednesday, completed its work and adjourned. A platform was adopted and a State ticket nominated.

Judge Adams, as leader of the Republican organization in the State, delivered the opening address of the convention. Judge Adams declared that the Republican electors would carry North Carolina and that Taft and Sherman would sweep the country.

Mr. Charles A. Reynolds, of Winston-Salem, put in nomination for permanent chairman of the convention, Mr. A. H. Price, of Salisbury, in a brief speech. He said that Mr. Price was eminently fit for the position. Mr. Virgil S. Lusk, of Asheville, seconded the nomination of Mr. Price in a characteristic speech.

Mr. Price was escorted to the chair by George W. Depriest, of Gaston, and Mr. Lusk and Mr. Adams introduced him. On taking the chair as permanent chairman Mr. Price made a strong speech, declaring for the interests of the party and claiming that Republican victory this year is sure.

Mr. Cox said:

I recognize it is a great honor to be Governor of the Great State of North Carolina. I appreciate the fact that it is a great honor to be considered and to be nominated for this high office by a great convention like this, representing as it does one hundred and thirty-two counties of this State. I am a native born, and as good men as ever trod shoemaker's belonged to any political party anywhere.

My friends, you well know I have not sought this honor, but have been nominated. I could not stand for it, or in any sense be considered a candidate. My business interests and the interests of others under my care, fully occupy my time and attention.

But when a man is drafted, as it were, by some magnificent assembly of representative North Carolinians, what can he do but accept. I desire to emphasize one feature of this great convention, which has impressed me more perhaps than any other, and which appeals strongly to me, and which has largely decided with my decision, and that is the presence of so many intelligent, stalwart young men, who have enlisted under the Republican standard. This emphatically means a brighter day for the Republican party in North Carolina. I thank you gentlemen for this high honor. You must understand, however, that in my case this campaign will be a quiet one conducted in a dignified manner. It will be on a high plane, and an appeal made to the reason and intelligence and not to the prejudices of our people. I shall later in a more formal way make known my views upon those issues in which our people are so vitally interested.

Free Words From Mr. Toms.

Mr. Z. V. Waiser, of Davidson, introduced Mr. Toms, who said that he considered it an honor to be the nominee of his party for lieutenant Governor. At Chicago, where he saw the convention that nominated Taft and Sherman, he thanked God that he was a Republican. Again, when he read that Bryan had fed the negroes on chicken, he rejoiced. At 2:30 the convention adjourned to meet again at 8:30, on motion of A. A. Whitener, seconded by Judge Spencer Adams.

playing, since the attainment of the years of manhood, a potential part in its commercial upbuilding. His life history is the story of steady, energetic development and of untiring exercise of his business qualifications in a way which has won for him a high place among the business men of the Commonwealth.

Mr. Cox's of a sturdy English descent. His earliest known ancestor in this State was Joseph Cox, who came from England, settled in the county of Perquimans and built a home there. He, the great-grandfather of Mr. Elwood Cox, was a teacher and a preacher, a firm believer in the tenets of the Quaker belief and influential in promulgating this faith among the settlers in the section. William Rogerson, a Revolutionary soldier, was another great-grandfather. The father of Mr. Cox, Jonathan E. Cox, was also a teacher and a preacher. In 1833, when his son was two years of age, he left his Northampton farm and accepted the superintendency of the Quaker school at New Garden, Guilford county, which, after years of successful management by him, was converted into Guilford College.

Here young Cox received the training that fitted him for the important station in life he has since occupied. On the 23d day of October, 1878, he was married to Miss Bertha E. Snow, the only daughter of Capt. William H. Snow, who has been spoken of as "the father and founder of the real High Point," where in the year 1838, the first of the events transpired, was an important event in the life of Mr. Cox and of the section, as it led to the association of Mr. Cox and Captain Snow in the manufacture of hardware, at the High Point, which has since become known in North Carolina. With what success this industry was nursed until it sprang into power all North Carolina knows. Today the business has grown until, through its branch plants, it covers nearly every State in the South and is finding present reaches nearly every country in Europe. Mr. Cox now supplies the demand of nearly the entire world for shuttle looms.

So rarely less important has been the work of Mr. Cox in other fields of commercial advancement. In 1833, he was one of a half dozen present of High Point who combined with leading citizens of Randolph to secure a railroad from Asheboro to High Point. The result was the securing of a charter for the organization of the High Point, Randolph, Asheboro & Southern Railway Company, which was put into operation in July, 1839. He was one of the first directors of that company and has been one of its directors continuously since. He has been one of the executive committee for years. Again he was an active promoter of the establishment in 1891 of the Commercial National Bank of High Point when better banking facilities were demanded. At the first meeting of the directors he was chosen president, a position which he has occupied with ability and success ever since.

Mr. Cox was one of the backers of the Home Furniture Company, of High Point. He was a charter shareholder in the organization and creation of the Globe Furniture Company, which makes the higher grades of furniture in this section. The consolidation of the two into the Globe-Home Furniture Company, making it the largest furniture plant in the South, with a capital of $170,000. Since the consolidation of the company he has been its president. He has also been a director of the Greensboro Loan and Trust Company, one of Greensboro's strongest financial institutions. He is president of the Southern Car Works of High Point, and other manufacturing concerns in different towns of the State.

Quite apart from his activities in the world of commerce has been the educational and governmental friends. He has been an untiring friend to Guilford College, giving both of his ability and his means to its effectiveness.

The Platform.

We, Republicans of North Carolina, in convention assembled, commend the wisdom of the national Republican convention, and congratulate the people of the United States on the nomination of William H. Taft for the presidency of this great republic, and we endorse the principles and policies of the Republican party as enunciated in its platform at Chicago, June 16, 1908, and we endorse the administration of Theodore Roosevelt.

We appeal to the people of North Carolina to set the welfare of our State above party and above prejudice; to exercise their freedom of conscience; and to choose those men for public office whom they deem best fitted to serve the public interest.

We ask the people to consider whether they will best promote the welfare of the State by committing its affairs to the radical faction now in control of the Democratic party or by voting for the candidates and policies we offer.

We ask all thoughtful North Carolinians to consider particularly whether the present Democratic Governor and Legislature have dealt wisely or justly with all classes of our citizens in the laws they have recently passed concerning railroads and the collection of taxes. We have taken to give these laws effect. We believe in regulating railroads and other public carriers strictly and carefully and in compelling all corporations to obey the law as faithfully as the humblest private citizen. But we do not believe that Legislatures are competent to fix absolutely the precise rates at which passengers and freight shall be carried. We are sure that the Legislature of this State, which attempted to fix passenger rates absolutely and to regulate the rates of the railroads, has done a more substantial grievance of our people—had neither the special knowledge nor the right spirit for such an undertaking.

They disregarded the constitution of the United States, and they have thousands of North Carolinians out of employment.

We denounce in unmeasured terms the unwarranted and uncalled for attack of the Democrats on capital, culminating in the light on our railroads inviting the State to a general litigation of our resources in government securities down to less than half their value.

We pledge ourselves, if the people entrust us with power, to set ourselves against two kinds of injustice. The injustice which permits wealthy corporations and individuals to prey upon the poor, and the injustice which sacrifices property and degrades business in order that cheap demagogues may get to keep office.

We favor the policy of learning, furnishing free of charge and under proper regulations to every child in the public schools all necessary textbooks; the further improvement and extension at whatever cost of the public school system, embodied in the constitution of North Carolina, by the Republican party. We favor the education of all our children up to the very limit of our available means.

We also favor a liberal policy with our higher institutions of learning. The South needs highly trained men, and we would have the necessary training provided here, so far as we have the means, and put within the reach of our young men of talent and industry, to the end that Southerners may guide our people in the development of our resources in government business, in the beautifying of our towns, our cities and our homes and in the elevation of our daily life.

This is also true of our institutions of charity, particularly the provision made for the blind, the deaf and the insane, for the pauper, and for other commoner miseries to such unfortunate beings is a measure of their civilization. It is equally true of our Confederate veterans who have not the means of self-support; the State loves and honors them, and they must not be permitted to suffer.

We denounce the Democratic party for not keeping its repeated pledges to provide our Confederate soldiers and their widows with suitable pensions commensurate with their services to the State and we believe that whenever practicable the should be given the preference in matters of employment, and all things being equal, they should be honored with the emoluments of office.

We demand a fair election law which will permit an elector to cast a ballot privately, without interference or dictation.

We favor, as we have ever favored, local self-government, and demand the right to elect by the people all members of the county board of education, county superintendent of public instruction, county commissioners, tax collectors and justices of the peace.

We favor an extension and improvement of the public roads of the State, and believe that the employment of the State's convicts on such work is the best use that can be made of our convict force.

We favor the establishment of one or two reformatories for the correction of youthful criminals convicted of minor offenses, and we favor a separate reformatory for females convicted of similar offenses.

We favor the appropriation for the care and support of our charitable institutions. We favor the exemption from taxation of two hundred dollars worth of personal property owned by each household in the state of North Carolina.

We believe in the dignity of labor and the elevation of the wage earner, and pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will best promote this end; we believe that labor and capital are co-ordinate branches of our industrial life—necessaries to each other, and that neither can prosper without the other, and looking to this end we pledge our party to the enactment of such laws as will so far as possible create the kindest feeling between labor and capital, remove all causes for conflict between the two, and promote the upbuilding of both classes in North Carolina.

We favor restricting immigration rigidly, admitting none but the better class of our shores, and protecting American labor against foreign cheap labor of Europe and the Orient.

We believe the South should no longer hold itself politically separate and apart from the rest of the country. We believe the time has come when no interest or principle any longer demand such isolation. We ask the people of North Carolina to vote for the candidates who, not merely because the Democratic party under its present leadership, both in the State and in the nation is unfit for power, but merely because the candidates were here nominated and the policies we recommend, are worthy of acceptance, but because every Republican vote cast in the South is a vote for freedom, a vote for the right of our children to enter fully into the life of the great republic, which our fathers labored and fought and suffered to establish.
