MADERO AGREES TO FOUR DAY ARMISTICE

Rebel Leader Will Now Talk Peace With Diaz.

An armistice to discuss terms of peace has been arranged between the insurgents and the Mexican government. A commission representing both sides will be appointed to discuss the conditions for the re-establishment of peace. Hostilities will cease for four days pending the negotiations, and both federal and insurgent armies will maintain their present positions.

The successful conclusion of the negotiations for an armistice, which have been in progress for several days, was announced in a formal statement issued by Dr. F. Vasquez Gomez, confidential agent in Washington of the insurgent party.

"I am in receipt of a telegram from General Madero," he said, "telling me that an armistice has been agreed upon between himself and Senor De la Barra as representative of the federal government."

"This means that the federals will not abandon their position about the city. I am not at liberty to state in detail what the terms of peace will be."

How the peace negotiations were initiated is a mystery. The insurgent representatives here declare the first intimation came from the Mexican government.

Senor Manuel de Zamacona, the new Mexican ambassador, said his government had always had the military power at its command to crush the revolutionists and had not sought peace, but had always been favorably disposed to discuss peace terms.

Dr. Gomez promptly issued a statement taking issue with the Mexican ambassador. It is apparent, however, that both parties are jockeying on the question and that neither is anxious to have the exact facts become known.

The names of the commissioners to represent both sides and the place where the conferences will be held will probably be arranged within a few days.

President Taft and other officials of the government are highly gratified over the success of the movement for the restoration of peace. The president fears an attack on Juarez might bring about a situation on a larger scale similar to that which occurred last week at Douglas, Ariz.

RECIPROCIITY PASSES HOUSE, 266 TO 89

Canadian Treaty Up to Senate. Cannon Leads Opposition.

The Canadian reciprocity measure has again reached the senate on its journey toward adoption by the United States. The agreement for which President Taft called the extra session of congress passed the house by a vote of 266 to 89.

Seventy-eight Republicans—only less than a majority of representatives of that party in the house—voted against the measure. Sixty-four Republicans upheld the hand of the administration. Eleven Democrats deserted their party organization by voting against the administration bill reported by Representative Underwood of Alabama, the Democratic chairman of the committee on ways and means.

The old guard leaders, headed by Uncle Joe Cannon and Representative Dalsell, made the boast that the Canadian bill would go to the senate with a big majority of the Republican voters of the lower branch of congress registering their disapproval of its terms. The struggle was made by the followers of Mr. Cannon. They expected that at least a hundred Republicans would vote against the bill, but finally only seventy-eight Republicans could be mustered in opposition.

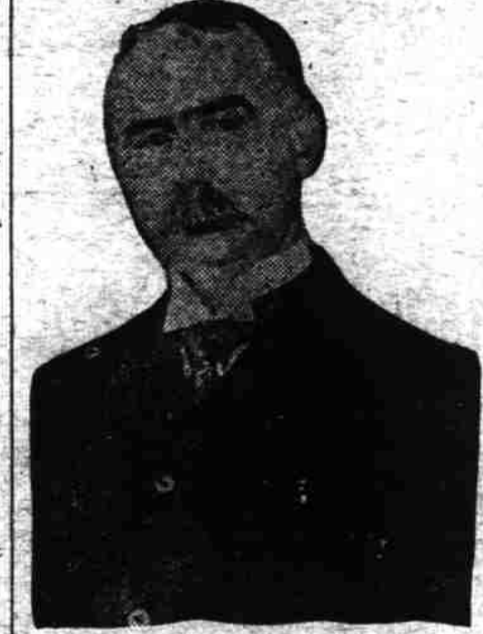

The Republicans who voted for the bill were Ames, Anthony, Austin, Barsheld, Bartholdt, Bingham, Bowman, Burke of Pennsylvania, Butler, Caldwell, Cary, Catlin, Cooper, Cramer, Crumpacker, Danforth, Dyer, Farr, Foss, Fuller, Gillette, Greene, Griest, Harris, Heald, Higgins, Hill, Howland, Hubbard, Kent, Knowland, La Follette, Lawrence, Longworth, Loud, McCall, McCraw, McKinney, McMillan, Madison, Mann, Matthews, Miller, Mitchell, Moon of Pennsylvania, Murdoch, Needham, Parran, Olmstead, Porter, Roberts of Massachusetts, E. B. Edwards, Sprague, Stephens of California, Tracy, Francis, Gardner of New Jersey, Good, Guernsey, Hamilton, Hanna, Hartman, Haugen, Hawley, Hayes, Heleghaan, Hinds, Howell, Humphrey, Jackson, Kendall, Kennedy, Kinkaid, Kopp, La Follette, La Follette, Langley, Lenoce, Lindbergh, McGuire, McKinley, McLaughlin, McMoran, Malby, Martin of South Dakota, Mondell, Moore of Pennsylvania, Morgan, Mott, Nelson, Norris, Patton of Pennsylvania, Pickett, Plimley, Powers, Pray, Price, Frosty, Rose, Rosenber, Simmons, Sloan, J. M. C. Smith, Samuel W. Smith, Stevenson, Stirling, Thistlewood, Townar, Volsted, Warburton, Wedemeyer, White, Woods and Young of Kansas.

The eleven Democrats who voted against the bill are: Bathrick, Claypool, Doughton, Fowler, Gudge, Hammond, Pujo, Rucker of Colorado, Webb and Whiteacre and Aiken of New York.

CAPTAIN KNIGHT EXONERATED.

President of Navy Ordnance Board Cleared of Inefficiency Charge by Court Martial.

Captain Austin M. Knight, president of the ordnance board of the navy, who was court martialed following the sinking of the monitor Puritan in Hampton Roads last November, was cleared of a charge of inefficiency.

CAPTAIN AUSTIN M. KNIGHT.

Member on a charge of culpable negligence and inefficiency, has been acquitted and restored to duty. The Puritan sank twenty-two hours after the second charge of 200 pounds of Isaham high explosive gelatin had been fired against her.

Secretary Meyer did not like the findings and sent the case back for reconsideration. The court resubmitted its findings without changing them. The secretary disapproved the findings, but under the law had to restore Captain Knight to duty. Mr. Meyer said he based his disapproval on the fact that the court had held no person responsible.

A TIGER HERO WEDS.

James L. Cooney Marries Sarantou Correspondence Teacher.

James L. Cooney, who captained the Princeton football team in 1905 and was rated one of the "tigers" most popular all around athletes, was married in St. Peter's cathedral, Scranton, Pa., to Miss Margaret Sheerin, until recently an instructor in a correspondence school.

Cooney is superintendent of a salt plant at Ithaca, where he and his bride will make their home. He formerly lived in Scranton.

During his captaincy of the football team Cooney was also captain of the baseball team. He was tackle and catcher on the two teams during his entire career. The Ignor men claim they are going to settle the liquor question by regulation, but hundreds of years of failure to regulate shows any mind whose gray matter has not been poisoned by alcohol that this is not the right settlement. If prohibition is such a failure why does every class of liquor men fight it so vigorously?—Alabama Citizen.

WHY DO THEY

The trite saying, "a question is never settled until it is settled right," is more worthy of notice than is usually given it. The Ignor men claim they are going to settle the liquor question by regulation, but hundreds of years of failure to regulate shows any mind whose gray matter has not been poisoned by alcohol that this is not the right settlement. If prohibition is such a failure why does every class of liquor men fight it so vigorously?—Alabama Citizen.

ARREST LABOR LEADER.

Secretary-Treasurer of Ironworkers Charged With Wrecking of Los Angeles Times Building.

Charged with murder in connection with the explosion that wrecked the building of the Los Angeles Times on Oct. 1, 1910, causing the death of twenty-one persons, John J. McNamara, secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers, has been arrested in the headquarters of the organization in Indianapolis.

The warrant was based on an indictment found by a grand jury in Los Angeles and was served by William J. Burns, a detective.

Detective Burns, Superintendent of Police and Chief of Detectives Holtze found seventeen sticks of dynamite and two quart cans of nitroglycerin in a barn near here owned by T. E. Jones, a structural ironworker, which Jones says was put there last January by McNamara.

Responsibility for other destructive explosions in different parts of the country would be placed as the result of an investigation now in progress. J. B. McNamara and McManigal were arrested in Chicago as accomplices. McManigal is said to have confessed.

"This is the beginning of one of the greatest criminal prosecutions the country has known," Burns said.

The warrant against McNamara charges him with murder in complicity in the wrecking of the Los Angeles Times building and further alleges that he was implicated in an explosion in the Llewellyn Iron works, Los Angeles, on Dec. 24, 1910.

WARNS AGAINST INCOME TAX.

Duke of Manchester Says it is Impractical in New York.

Before settling for England on the Campaign the Duke of Manchester, son-in-law of Eugene Zimmerman of Cincinnati, remarked the income tax has been England's curse, and he was sorry to see that the United States had been considering the establishment of a similar tax.

"It is foolish for New York to favor such a measure," the duke added, "for if the figures I have seen are correct New York will pay one-seventh of the total tax once it is adopted. For a state like Oklahoma it may be all right, but not for New York."

DAY HEADS EQUITABLE.

But New President of Life Assurance Society Gets Picked as Cut of $30,000 in Salary.

After some discussion it was decided that William A. Day, new president of the Equitable Life Assurance society, would only be given a salary of $50,000 instead of $80,000, which was the allowance made to the late Paul Norton, to whose office Judge Day has been elected. The lopping off of $30,000 and making the head of the insurance company on a level, so far as salary goes, with the president of the United States, was finally decided upon after a lengthy discussion.

SOLVES A GOOD MYSTERY.

"I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart," wrote G. B. Bader, of Lonsburg, W. Va., "for the wonderful double benefit I got from Electric Bitters, in curing me of both a severe case of stomach trouble and of rheumatism, from which I had been an almost helpless sufferer for ten years. It suited my case as though made just for me." For dyspepsia, indigestion, jaundice and to rid the system of kidney poisons that cause rheumatism, Electric Bitters has no equal. Try them. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50c. at all druggists.
