The following letter has been received by the Board of Trade from Ellis & Beadles, a big Asheville concern dealing in soda fountain supplies. Mr. R. L. Ellis and N. N. Beadles of this firm are well known in Forest City. They are the principal owners of the local Coca-Cola Co. and their faith in our town is shown by establishing here one of the finest bottling plants in the South.

Board of Trade,

Forest City, N. C.

Gentlemen: We thank you for the marked copy of Charlotte Sunday Observer. We feel that Forest City has done herself proud in more ways than one. The full page ad is splendid, and the spirit that prompted the advertisement is even better.

We have faith in the future of Forest of our good wishes for a bigger and the cake. The box of candy for the ugbetter Forest City.

Good advertising helps a town just as much as it does a business, and a little more of the same would be a splendid investment for the town.
