A female servant, sweeping out a bachelor's room, found a four penny piece on the carpet, which she carried to the owner.

"You may keep it for your honesty," said he. A short time afterward he missed his gold pencil-case, and inquired of the girl if she had seen it.

"Yes sir," was the reply.
"And what did you do with it?"
"Kept it for my honesty."—Paris Figaro.

Save Some of Your Earnings

Most men and women—especially men, perhaps—are lured by other things than mere money. They imagine that they are captivated by the lure of coin, but, ah, no; other things obsess them. Take the men who earn, say $40 a week; nine out of ten spend all they earn and are no better off on one Monday morning than on any preceding Monday. They imagine they want money, but in fact they want other things more than they want money; otherwise they would save the money. Sometimes laziness, sometimes sport, and sometimes luxuries command all cash obtainable. The inward desires of most people are stronger than their outward desires and the dollars filter or fritter away. They lack

WE K LINKS IN A STRONG CHAIN

That's just what imitation parts are when they become a part of your Ford car. They look strong enough, but the metal isn't there—the strong, durable Vanadium steel that goes into the Ford chassis and every Ford part. Ford parts are specially cast and heat treated, each according to its use. Some require a hard, flint-like wearing surface, others need resiliency, and some need just "toughness."

Ford metallurgists have been studying these problems for sixteen years and know just how each unit should be made to endure a maximum of wear and tear. They know that best results can be obtained only by the use of special formulas for different parts, and that honest Ford parts wear from thirty-five to one hundred per cent longer than counterfeits.

We carry complete assortments of genuine Ford parts for both passenger cars and trucks. And our garage is equipped to give careful, prompt Ford service—from minor adjustments to complete overhauls. Drive in, it's better to be safe than sorry. Come to the Authorized Ford dealer for service
