CHEAT IMP OF WAKEFULNESS

Some Methods by Which It Is Said the Drowsy God May Be Successfully Wowed.

Sufferers from sleeplessness should try this trick. Have a pair of blinders made from a double thickness of black silk. These should just cover the eyes, with a cut for the nose, being held in place by a broad elastic band. Hang these on the bed post, and if the morning light comes in too early put them on. Another remedy is suggested by the sleeping methods of pigs. Tie two paper clips to either end of a cord seven or eight feet long. Clip the top of the counterpane with one and a soft weight with the other. If not sleeping after 15 minutes, pull the counterpane over your head. This induces that long, even breathing, natural to the approach of sleep, as may be noticed in pigs. As one dozes off, the band holding the counterpane relaxes, and the weight pulls it down, so that one is again breathing fresh air. People suffering from insomnia should, when traveling, insist upon a double bed in a quiet room. Be sure that it is not over the kitchen or near a motor garage, or facing a clock that sounds the quarter hours, or within a girl's throw of a fowl house.

ART WORKS ON LARGE SCALE

Interesting Figures Concerning Decorations for Lincoln Memorial Building at Washington.

Simply to stretch the canvas, says Jesse Lynch Williams, describing in Scribner's Magazine how Jules Guerin painted the decoration for the Lincoln Memorial building in Washington, required eight men, which is less surprising when one realizes that each figure in the groups Mr. Guerin was about to paint is a good deal larger than the painter himself. One agrees with the writer that, although such details are not necessary to art appreciation, it is interesting to know that the two unpainted canvases cost $400 apiece, and that when the artist finished his work the paint he had used added 150 pounds to their weight. And because the paintings will be somewhat exposed to weather, the paint was mixed with wax, in a way which chemical analysis shows was done to weatherproof painting when the ancient kings of Egypt were erecting memorial buildings.

Not for Him.
"Here's just the thing for your new mansion," said the art dealer. "Daub-leigh's famous canvas, 'The Portrait of a Lady.'"

"How much is it with?" asked the man who had recently grown rich in the oil fields.
"Only $100,000."
"What! A hundred thousand bucks for the picture of a lady! Great Christopher, man! I don't even know her!"

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL
SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(Copyright, 1920, Western Newspaper Union)

LESSON FOR JANUARY 25

PETER STANDS UP FOR TRUTH AND HONESTY.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 5:1-16.
GOLDEN TEXT—Lying lips are abomination to the Lord; but they that deal truly are his delight.—Prov. 12:22.
ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Ex. 20:16; Prov. 11:1; Matt. 6:2-4; Gal. 6:7, 8; Eph. 4:15, 25, 30.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Telling the Truth.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Two Disciples and What Became of Them.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Folly and Sinfulness of Lying.

In this lesson we see the new community now called "the church" (v. 11) vindicated. In the boldness of Peter and John we see that the break with Judaism has come—the authority of the Sanhedrin is repudiated with the determination on the part of the disciples to be led by the Holy Spirit. It is for this reason that the body now gets the name "church." Since the break has come it must be shown to be a holy body; it must have recognition as being sacred. The sanctity of the tabernacle is transferred to the new body, which is God's dwelling place (Eph. 2:19-22). The church itself, as well as the people about, did not know this until God's judgment burst forth.

I. Characteristics of the Primitive Church (4:31-35).

1. It was a praying church (v. 31). For every want and every need they betook themselves to God in prayer.
2. It was a Spirit-filled church (v. 31). A praying church is a Spirit-filled church. The Spirit is given in answer to prayer (Luke 11:13).
3. It was a church which had great boldness in preaching the Word of God (v. 31). The minister in a Spirit-filled church will not offer an apology for the Bible, but will fearlessly preach it.
4. It was a united church (v. 32). They were "of one heart and one soul."
5. It was a charitable and generous church (v. 32). As needs arose supplies were given from a common fund.
6. Its ministers had a powerful testimony (v. 33).
7. It was a church whose membership exhibited unblemished characters (v. 33). For "great grace was upon them all."

II. The Sin of Ananias and Sapphira (vv. 1-11).

1. Its occasion (vv. 1, 2). This was their hypocritical imitation of the generous act of Barnabas (4:36, 37). Because of the peculiar distress of the early church when the open rupture was made with Judaism, the members for a time had a "community of goods." This was not universal nor permanent; some continued to own their own homes, as for example John Mark's mother, who used her home in which to entertain Christians. Ananias kept back a part of the money received for his land while pretending to have brought it all. His wife was a partner in it. They wanted the honor of generosity without paying the price.

2. The judgment (vv. 3-10). Ananias allowed Satan to fill his heart and led to the Holy Ghost in keeping back a part of the price of the land. It was most likely an acted lie. They were not under obligation to sell their land, or having sold it, to bring any of the money and place it in the common fund. Peter declared that they were absolutely free to do as they pleased with it. Love of praise is causing many today to make the same dreadful mistake. People are walking in the way of Ananias and Sapphira when they make a profession of religion for temporal gain and pleasure; or even preaching sermons not their own. Frequently men preach the sermons of Moody and Spurgeon without giving credit. Physical death was visited upon Ananias and Sapphira for their sins.

III. The Effect (vv. 11-16).

1. Great fear came upon the church and upon all who heard of these things (v. 11). Irreverence is an outstanding sin of this age. The church should be recognized as holy—the very dwelling place of the Most High God.

2. Multitudes of men and women were added to the Lord (v. 14). This caused the fame of Peter to be spread far and wide, so that the people were anxious to come under his shadow. Were the holiness of the body of Christ recognized, there would be many coming for pardon and salvation.

3. The hypocrites did not dare to join (v. 13). It is interesting to note that this vindication of the holiness of the church did not deter any but hypocrites from joining it. Nothing unhallowed nor any unregenerate person has a place in the church. This applies to our offerings as well as to our person.

Daily Prayer.
Oh Lord, we thank thee that men turn to thee; the measure of their need is the measure of thy supply. Let thy spirit dwell in our spirits, and then all shall be well within and peaceful without. We pray thee to give us a fuller and firmer, and more continual, and more vigorous and efficacious confidence in thyself. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Character Building.
Life is mainly an opportunity for character building and testing.
