Local News

Miss Alma King has accepted a place as teacher at Caroleen.

Colonel J. C. Scruggs has been confined to his bed the past week with grip.

William Butler left last week for Spartanburg to enter a business college.

Mrs. Pracilla Padgett has returned from a visit to her son William in Charlotte.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Black, Friday, January 23, a fine girl, Jennie Sue.

B. R. Hamrick of Bostic spent the week-end here visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. J. L. Butler and sons, Beason and Roy, spent last week-end at Boiling Springs.

J. R. McDaniel, prominent citizen of Sandy Mush, was here on business Wednesday.

The road between Forest City and Rutherfordton is reported in almost impassable condition.

The first real snow of this season fell here Sunday night, covering the ground to a depth of about three inches.

Mrs. W. J. Davis, who has been on the sick list for a few days, is improving, we are glad to say.

Mrs. C. M. Crowell spent the past week in Asheville visiting a former school mate, Mrs. Hampton.

Mrs. A. W. Lynch returned home Monday from Marshall, where she had been on an extended visit to her parents.

David Philbeck, a prominent farmer of the Bostic rural section, was a business visitor in Forest City one day last week.

Messrs. J. H. Thomas and B. B. Doggett spent the past week in South Georgia looking after their lumber interests.

Misses Nell Padgett and Jennie Mae Harrill are with home people for a few days. Their college, Limestone, is having much flu.

Max Blanton, who has been a printer on the Southern Textile Bulletin in Charlotte for several months, is back with The Courier.

Bill Arp Lowrance, an old Forest City boy who is now associate editor of the Southern Textile Bulletin, Charlotte, spent Monday with his mother here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Hamrick, who moved to Lexington from this place a few months ago, have returned and will probably make Forest City their home.

Paul Doggett is home this week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Doggett, who have just moved from Caroleen to Forest City. Paul is in Wofford college.

V. L. Hughey, of West End, has accepted a position as bookkeeper for a large Richmond, Va., concern and will leave this week to take up his new duties. Mr. Hughey has been agent at the Seaboard depot here since the resignation of Mr. J. P. Williamson and has been a good one.

Rutherford county now has a real first class photograph studio, Messrs. Gilbert & Hames having just opened such a place at Cliffside. These gentlemen are experienced in their line and will no doubt do a big business from the beginning. See their opening announcement in this paper.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. F. S. (Major) Gamble in the loss of their 3-year-old daughter, Eleanor. Little Eleanor died Friday night of pneumonia, and the body was laid to rest in Cool Springs cemetery Sunday afternoon, after funeral services conducted at the home by Rev. S. N. Watson.

Padgett & King, local furniture dealers and undertakers, received this week the new Michigan Six motor hearse which they recently purchased. It is two-tone grey in color and quite the finest and handsomest in this section of the state. This firm will shortly move their undertaking parlor into the room over Moore's wholesale store which is now being remodeled. This will give them more space and enable them to give better service than ever.

Cliffside Local News—Death of Mr. Padgett.

Cliffside, Jan. 26.—Miss Belle Allen and Mrs. Dora Cumcock of Spartanburg were pleasant visitors here last week.

J. R. Padgett, who was reported last week as being seriously ill, died at his home on North Main street last Wednesday morning, and was interred in his lot in the Cliffside cemetery Thursday afternoon. The funeral service was held in the Baptist church at one o'clock, conducted by Mr. Padgett's pastor, Rev. D. J. Hunt, assisted by Rev. J. A. Burrus, pastor of the Methodist church. The Cliffside Renown Band, of which Mr. Padgett was a member, attended in a body and as the casket was being placed in the hearse the band played softly an arrangement of "Jesus Lover of My Soul." The band marched before the hearse to the church and played a funeral march, "The Last Call." Mr. Padgett was forty-five years old the day before he died. He leaves a wife and five children and one brother to mourn their loss. Our town has lost one of its best citizens. Mr. Padgett was a man of quiet, unassuming mien, a christian gentleman in the true sense of the word. He seemed to realize that his days were few from the first of his illness and said he was ready and waiting to go. We deeply sympathize with the sorrowing family and his host of friends.

Master Summie Scruggs had the misfortune to fall from a horse last Friday and sustained injuries that are painful but not necessarily serious. We hope he will soon be out again.

Rev. D. J. Hunt attended the Mobile School at Greensboro last week, returning Thursday for the funeral of J. R. Padgett.

Mrs. D. J. Hunt and children are spending a few days with Mrs. Hunt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardin near Marion.

The health officers deemed it wise not to have Sunday school or church service of any kind last Sunday, as there are a few cases of flu and small pox reported in this vicinity, and you know "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

News Letter From the County Seat

Rutherfordton, Jan. 26.—The annual report of the condition of the Citizens Building & Loan Association, of Rutherfordton, which will be issued at an early date, will show a most prosperous year's business closing December 31st. The number of shares subscribed during the year were 849, against 177 during 1918, the shares increasing from 814 to 1527 during 1919. Eighty-four shares of prepaid stock were also issued during the last three months business closing December 31st. The loans have increased from $36,117.10 to $52,442.84 and the total receipts have increased more than 50 per cent, growing from $21,452.80 to $46,301.68. The officers of this institution are: K. J. Carpenter, president; W. J. McDaniel, vice-president, and Miss Virginia Grayson, secretary and treasurer.

Rev. T. L. Blalock, a returned missionary from China, who has spent about 25 years in China and who has been spending his furlough in the United States, preached at the Baptist church here yesterday morning and night, the sermon at night being on China and her condition.

Rutherfordton is mantled in pure and white today, sleet and snow having fallen during last night and today, giving us the first snow-fall of the season.

The February term of Rutherford superior court for the trial of civil cases, will convene at Rutherfordton on Monday, February 2nd, Judge Ben. F. Long, of Statesville, presiding.

We learn that owing to existing conditions and as a matter of precaution against the "flu," the graded school will be closed indefinitely, and Sunday school and church service may be discontinued for a period of time.

838 Shares

Have been sold in the twenty-eighth series of this Association, and they are still selling. That means a weekly income of $202.25 from the last series alone, which will enable us to make two $500.00 loans per month if we only had the 28th., to back us up. But we have about 900 other shares, and we average making one $500.00 loan every week. We said when we came here that we would double the number of shares in force within a year, but we've done it in less than six months. That's going, some for Forest City. But listen friends, within a year we'll have one of the largest Building and Loan Associations in western North Carolina. This is the place to invest your spare change.

Buy prepaid shares at $72.50 if you desire to invest in lump sums. That pays you six per cent.

You Can Buy Shares In the 28th Until February 8

Mr. George Doggett, who lived about two miles from Forest City, dropped dead in his yard Monday while shoveling snow. Burial services were held at Tanner's Grove Tuesday.

Mt. Pleasant News

Mrs. J. R. McDaniel and daughter, Flora, are visiting relatives in Cliffside.

Mr. Crawford Lancaster, from Boiling Springs, is at home on account of the school being stopped for small-pox.

Miss Selma Price entertained a number of her friends at a pound supper, Saturday night, January 24, in honor of Misses Baber and Gwyn of Lawndale. It was quite a delightful occasion, music and games being enjoyed throughout the evening.

Mr. J. S. Morgan has resigned his position as section foreman on the C. C. & O. Railway. Mr. T. M. Minish, of Pitts, N. C. is his successor.

Mr. Morgan has purchased a Ford touring car.

A Road to Health and Happiness.

If a person is weak, feels tired or run down, there is no reason for remaining in that condition if you want to be strong and healthy. Healthy people are the happy people. People who always feel tired cannot be happy and contented.

If you have that tired, weak feeling, go to Long's Drug Store and get a bottle of Syrup of Hypophosphites. It is a reconstructive tonic in bronchitis, mal-nutrition, nervous exhaustion, emaciation and strumous skin affections. It aids nutrition of the structural parts of the body and is a reconstructive and tonic for convalescents from wasting and debilitating diseases.

Get a bottle today and begin at once to build yourself up. For Sale by Long Drug Co. Forest City.
