Local Items and Personal Mention

Dora Dean, of Mooresboro, is at the home of her brother, J. Suggs, in Forest City.

Minnie Cody, of York, S. C., has been visiting Mrs. F. I. Barrow in Hendersonville.

Searcy, a prominent citizen of the section of the county, was a visitor at the metropolis Monday.

Mrs. W. M. Newton, of Newburg, spent Sunday in Forest City at the home of his cousin, Dr. Newton.

Mrs. Palmer Rollins and two friends, Mr. Jolly and Miss Searcy, spent Saturday night and Sunday at the home of Mr. J. J. Rollins.

There is quite a bit of interesting news crowded out of this paper's extra run of advertising. It is interesting next week.

"Pollyanna" unconsciously teaches a wholesome lesson, which, if it would quickly transform this world into a joyous place to live in.

That is what "Pollyanna" is making people do for years, when its innovations were being sneered and jeered from skeptics.

Gladden, of Cleveland county, Saturday night and Sunday at the home of H. L. Johnson, Bostic route 3. Good prospects and health are improving in his section.

Who have seen MARY PICKFORD as "Pollyanna," have cried and over her experiences. It is a story that all members of the family will want to see. And they never forget it.

MARY PICKFORD as "Pollyanna," first independently produced for United Artists Corporation, the sweetest, dearest little maid that has been screened. She takes her the hearts of the members of the family. The story has so much pathos that besides being interesting, it is wholesome, fresh and engagingly natural.

"Pollyanna" is a story of unusual interest and charm. MARY PICKFORD in the title role will teach you to be glad game. She will teach you to bring sunshine into your lives of others. The picture that everybody should see, be it picturization of a beautiful girl and the lessons taught by the philosophy of "Gladness."

Who never seen a picture which is so refreshing and intensely interesting as MARY PICKFORD in "Pollyanna." The story grips the soul of a misanthrope who will be ready to play the "Glad Game" because of the influence "Pollyanna" has on those whose lives had been darkened by their own misunderstanding of looking at illness or misfortune from the wrong standpoint. The young alike will enjoy this production.

For a while—as when a blue shining—we have the privilege of seeing a picture which is both life and literary in style, and one of which is better than a picture that tells of things as they could be, and in a world where much that is distressing merely exists, there is little that is more than the realization of such an imagination. That is the production MARY PICKFORD in her wonderful "Pollyanna."

Interesting to observe what an influence is often exerted by a picture in a community. And when it is only for good and the picture is entirely unconscious of it, the picture is of more interest. Thousands throughout the country, playing the "Glad Game," of the influence of the little "Pollyanna" as portrayed by MARY PICKFORD in her latest picture. Her father taught her to always be glad about even in the most disappointing.

Appreciate the advertising patronage this week. It has taxed our utmost to handle it, with the help we have. Our readers do not take advantage of the opportunity offered them to purchase merchandise at a reasonable price. These advertisers stand behind their goods and they make of their goods what they can. They cannot buy better anywhere. With our advertisers please to them you saw their ad in the paper.

PEPTO-MANGAN FOR "SPRING FEVER"

Spring Days Are Treacherous—Germs Don't Disappear With Cold Weather AND BLOOD IS SLUGGISH AND WEAK

Don't Take Chances if You Feel Bad. Enrich Your Blood With Pepto-Mangan.

There is a great deal of serious sickness in the Spring.

And it is easy to see why. Long weeks pent up in doors, too little exercise and fresh air, winter sickness not entirely over with, a generally lowered vitality. Blood weak and sluggish. Then come fine spring days—that are not as warm as they seem; or sudden changes in the weather, and you haven't taken proper precautions.

Vigorous, red-blooded people don't often get sick. If you're not feeling your best, get Pepto-Mangan of your druggist and take it to build up your blood. This effective and agreeable tonic has been tested for over thirty years, and physicians everywhere recommend it for run-down, pale, and anemic people.

The whole family should take Pepto-Mangan—it is good health insurance. Besides, what a joy it is to feel fit and fine—ready for anything! To have an abundance of energy and enthusiasm!

Pepto-Mangan is for sale at your druggist's, and in both liquid and tablet form. There is no difference in medicinal value. Take whichever you prefer. But to make sure you get the genuine, ask for "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" and see that the name "Gude's" is on the package.—Advertisement.
