Cliffside, N. C., October 5 1920.—The Chautauqua has again come to our town and gone, but we hope, and believe that it's influence for good will still remain with us. The numbers were all good, the lectures were splendid, and calculated to uplift and inspire the right kind of community spirit and Americanism. Our people have made the Chautauqua an annual affair and have already made contract for next year. The Cliffside Mills have done much to encourage the Chautauqua, and as usual stand ready to help in anything that is for the good of the people and the uplift of the town.
