

WILSON--CARDEN WEDDING WAS A BRILLIANT AFFAIR

Sacred Rites Performed On a Mound Under Oak Tree, a Daisy Chain Forming Aisle to the Altar.

The following description of the brilliant wedding of Mr. T. L. Wilson to Miss Della Mae Carden was sent to the Knoxville Sentinel by the correspondent at Andersonville.

Andersonville, June 10—Simple, yet beautiful in every detail was the wedding on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Della Mae Carden was united in marriage to Mr. Theron Logan Wilson.

The beautiful lawn with its many trees never looked more beautiful than for this happy occasion.

The long porch surrounding the house was decorated with sweet peas, snap dragons and ferns. A daisy chain formed the aisle leading from the porch to the mound under the large oak tree where the altar had been made with daisies, carrying out the color scheme of green and white.

The mound around the oak and directly behind the altar was banked with ferns and potted plants.

Preceding the wedding a musical program was rendered by Miss Hattie Carden and Mrs. A. B. Longmire, sisters of the bride and Mrs. Bill Logan, of Lattimore, N. C., a cousin of the bride. Accompanied by Mrs. Longmire, Miss Carden sang "Because," and "One Sweet Day." Mrs. Logan sang, "At Dawning."

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. Longmire, came the brides maids, Miss Nora Freeman, of Cliffside, N. C., and her attendant, Mr. Bruce Irwin.

Following these came the maid of honor, Miss Hattie Carden, sister of the bride, and Mr. Mal Wilson, brother of the groom, as best man. Next came the pretty little ring bearer, Mary Grace Miller, niece of the bride, sweetly dressed in ruffled white organdie carrying the ring in the heart of a lily.

Following her came Robert Allen and W. H. Miller, Jr., little nephews of the bride, dressed in white, scattering flowers before the bride who came down to the altar on the arm of the groom, where Rev. S. H. Johnstone, the bride's pastor, pronounced the sacred rites uniting this happy couple. The impressive ring ceremony was used.

The bride was never more lovely than in her wedding gown of heavy lace and georgette, the veil was trimmed with lilies of the valley. Her bouquet was of bride's roses, sweet peas and maiden hair ferns with shower.

Her only ornament was a brooch of sapphires and pearls, the gift of the groom.

The bride's maid wore brown lace over satin and carried an arm bouquet of sweet peas.

The maid of honor wore printed crepe with trimmings of cream lace and carried sweet peas.

Mrs. Wilson is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Carden and comes from one of the oldest and most prominent families of East Tennessee. She is a talented musician and numbers her friends by her acquaintances.

Mr. Wilson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wilson, of Rutherfordton, N. C., and a man of the highest type of character. He is at present located in business at Notasulga, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left immediately after the ceremony on their honeymoon.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

A birthday celebration was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Cochran, near Mt. Olivet church Sunday, June 11, in honor of Mrs. Cochran's birthday. About 65 guests were present. All enjoyed the day very much. Among those present were Mrs. Cochran's mother, Mrs. R. B. Powell, Miss Eula Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Doster, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Crow, Mr. and Mrs. Audley Crow, Mr. George Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Robbins, Mr. E. D. Fashis, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Curtis, Misses Tina and Rany Crow, Ida Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bailey.

WEDDING OF STATE-WIDE INTEREST AT HENRIETTA JUNE 14

Miss Mattie Miller Whisnant and Dr. Thomas Claude Lovelace Are United In Marriage.

Henrietta, June 16.—Of interest to a wide circle of friends in this and other states is the marriage of Miss Mattie Miller Whisnant to Dr. Thomas Claude Lovelace, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents in Henrietta Wednesday morning, June 14 at 9 o'clock. Rev. J. B. Craven, former president of Davenport College and now presiding elder of Charlotte district, performed the ceremony which united their young lives. The impressive ring ceremony was used. Only the members of the immediate family and a few intimate friends were present.

The reception hall and parlor were beautifully decorated with ivy and hydrangea. The color scheme of white and green being carried out with the many white candles which cast a soft radiance over the darkened room. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. O. L. Moore, of Lenoir, who presided at the piano, played Nevin's "Venitian Love Song". The bride and groom entered the parlor to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march and took their place beneath an arch entwined with hydrangea and ivy with a back ground of ferns. There were no attendants. During the ceremony Mrs. Moore played softly, "To A Wild Rose." The Lohengrin wedding march was played as a recessional.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Whisnant. She is charming and accomplished and her sweet disposition and winning personality have endeared her to a host of friends. Her beauty is of the brunette type and she never looked more lovely than in her going away suit of midnight blue poiret twill with gray accessories and a corsage of Bride's roses and Valley lilies. Mrs. Lovelace is a graduate of Davenport College and Columbia University and for the past three years she has been a member of the faculty at Davenport College, where her many lovable qualities and, above all, her rare gift of tact and understanding, made her an ideal teacher, beloved by students and faculty alike.

Dr. Lovelace is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Lovelace, of Mooresboro. He is a graduate of Richmond Medical College. After his graduation he did special work in a hospital in Savannah, Ga. From there he went to France, where he held a commission as First Lieutenant with the A. E. F. in the World War. Upon his return from France he took a postgraduate course in New York. For the past three years he has been located at Henrietta, where he has built up a wide practice and is very popular.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left, amid a shower of rice and good wishes, for a bridal trip to New York, Niagara Falls and other points in the North. They will be at home in Henrietta after July first.

Metal shingles, lime and cement at attractive prices. Farmers Hardware Co., Forest City.

Mrs. Joe Burkholder and little son, Joe, of Pensacola, Fla., are spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Long.

FORMAL OPENING OF THE R. R. HAYNES MEMORIAL BUILDING

Dedicated To Memory Of Their Father By Messrs. Haynes—Full Program Given On Cliffside Page.

The splendid R. R. Haynes Memorial Building at Cliffside will be formally opened next Saturday evening. The exercises will consist of a splendidly prepared program which will begin at 8 o'clock.

This is an event which has been eagerly awaited by everyone, since the completion of this magnificent structure. A large crowd will be present on the happy occasion.

The complete program, together with a cut of the building, is printed on the Cliffside News page in this issue. A glance at this picture will give a faint idea of the magnificence of the structure which is so lovingly dedicated to the memory of a devoted father by the Messrs. Haynes, Mr. Chas. H. Haynes will present this beautifully appointed community building to Cliffside Saturday night.

The Haynes Memorial Building is one of the finest in the South and its every appointment is superb. A full description of the structure will appear next week in a four-page special edition of the Cliffside News and the Forest City Courier. A number of fine half-tone cuts of the exterior and interior views have been provided especially for this issue.

Along with these views will be a general write-up of the building and the different departments, a biographical sketch of the late R. R. Haynes, who was known and loved by every citizen of the county, the Hon. Clyde R. Hoey's speech and other interesting things in connection with the dedication exercises.

The program will be in charge of Mr. B. E. Roach as presiding officer. Mr. Roach, who is editor of the Cliffside News and a gifted writer, is admirably equipped for the duties of presiding officer and will be the right man in the right place.

Opening prayer will be by the Rev. W. K. Collins, and the invocation will be followed by music by the Cliffside Band.

Then will follow the presentation of the building to the community by Mr. Chas. H. Haynes, the beloved head of the finest mill town in the South. In making this magnificent gift to the people of Cliffside, Mr. Haynes is paying tribute to his loved father and carrying out the ideals of the founder of the town.

Response will be made by Messrs. M. Hendrick and P. C. Hawkins.

Then will follow music and short talks by a number of distinguished visitors.

The introduction of the principal speaker will come next. Prof. Clyde A. Erwin will introduce the Hon. Clyde R. Hoey, who will make an address in his usual happy style. Mr. Hoey is a gifted orator and his speech is eagerly awaited by his many admirers.

After music and the closing prayer by the Rev. J. C. Keever, an inspection of the building will be made, when the guests will have an opportunity to see what a really fine building has been given to the fortunate residents of Cliffside.

The program will come to a close with a band concert.

The people of the whole county appreciate the noble efforts of Mr. Chas. H. Haynes in the carrying out of the ideals of his father, the late R. R. Haynes, founder of Cliffside. This policy has resulted in the unification of a fine community spirit, as well as the building of a town which has come to be known as the finest in the South.

We will save you money on your screen doors and windows. Farmers Hardware Co., Forest City.

Mrs. K. B. Pratt, Mrs. H. R. Cannitz, Sr., Mrs. Kathleen LeGette, Mr. Chas. Poole and Mr. Otto Pratt, of Henrietta and Caroleen, were pleasant visitors in Forest City Friday night.

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING UNITING PROMINENT FAMILIES OF COUNTY

Miss Jessie Jenkins is Wed To Mr. Hollis Owens—Ring Ceremony Performed By Rev. Swofford.

Cliffside, June 20.—A wedding of rare brilliance and wide social prominence was that of last Friday evening, when Miss Jessie Jenkins, of Avondale, and Mr. Hollis M. Owens, of Cliffside, were happily united in marriage before a large concourse of friends and relatives.

The lovely home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. O. Jenkins, was thrown en suite and with its beautiful and artistic decorations, and the color scheme of orchid and pink presented an appearance of charm and loveliness truly appropriate for the occasion.

The ceremony room was richly adorned with an arrangement of trailing ivy and Queen Anne lace. At the front of the room was a raised white altar having for a background a mass of beautiful ferns. Across the rear of the altar the seven candles were used, and the soft and mellow candle light added to the stateliness of the occasion.

Miss Minnie Campbell, of Cliffside, opened the program, singing in her charming and gracious manner, "Dawning," and "I Love You Truly." Promptly at 8 o'clock the bridal party entered to the sweet strains of Lohengrin's "Wedding March" played by Miss Edna Hoyle, of Lincolnton.

The first to enter was the minister, Rev. A. C. Swofford, Winston-Salem, who took his place at the rear of the improvised altar. Descending from the stairway came the ribbon girls, Misses Jennie Hawkins, Eva Jackson, Catherine Keever, Luvenie Collins, Jessie Crawley, Mary Jenkins, Pauline Freeman and Lottie Thompson, dressed in pink organdie, carrying streamers of pink ribbon and forming an aisle for the bridal party.

Then came the bride's maid, Miss Sadie Jenkins, gowned in orchid taffeta and carrying a bouquet of pink and orchid sweet peas. She was followed by the maid of honor, Miss Edith Jenkins gowned in pink taffeta and carrying a bouquet of orchid and pink sweet peas. Following these was the ring bearer, Master Herman Owens, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Esbie Owens, of Caroleen, bearing the ring in a large white rose.

The groom entered with his best man, Mr. G. K. Moore, Jr., of Cliffside, and awaited the bride at the altar.

Then came the tiny flower girls, Beth Caldwell, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Caldwell, of Cliffside, and Betty Shull, little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. Rush Shull, of Charlotte.

The bride entered with her brother, Mr. H. H. Jenkins, who gave her away. The beautiful ring ceremony was performed by the officiating minister in a very impressive manner. The bride was a picture of unusual grace and charm in her wedding gown of satin trimmed in real lace. She wore a long veil held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of orange blossoms and white sweet peas. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, the gift of the eighth grade of the Cliffside public schools, where she has taught for the past two years.

Especially mention should be made of the large and beautiful array of wedding presents. These were displayed in a room reserved for them and presented a scene of unusual beauty.

A brilliant reception was held immediately after the ceremony. A delicious ice course was served to the invited guests.

After the ceremony the happy couple left for their home in Cliffside, which had been handsomely furnished prior to the wedding.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. O. Jenkins, of Avondale, and a granddaughter of the late R. R. Haynes. She was educated at Fassifern School, Hendersonville, Converse College and Meredith College.

WANT NEW MEMBERS

Willis Towery Post, American Legion, will inaugurate a drive for new members on July 1st. The local post has made a strong growth and the boys want to go on with the work of getting new members so that the post will gain in strength and influence. Beginning with the drive July 1, each member is urged to try and get one or more new members. The Courier urges every service man in the county who has not as yet affiliated with a post, to come forward and join now. In union there is strength and much good has been accomplished by the American Legion.

HENRIETTA NEWS OF MORE THAN PASSING INTEREST

The Special Correspondent Writes of the Happenings Here and There in This Splendid Community.

A quiet but beautiful home wedding took place last Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock when Miss Mattie Miller Whisnant became the bride of Dr. Thomas Claude Lovelace, the wedding taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Whisnant. Dr. J. B. Craven, former president of Davenport College and now Presiding Elder of the Charlotte District, performed the ceremony.

The bride, who is a young lady of unusual charm and beauty, was lovely in a going away suit of blue with grey accessories to match. Only the members of the immediate family and a few intimate friends were present, the invited guests being Dr. J. B. Craven, of Charlotte; Mrs. O. L. Moore, of Lenoir; Miss Ola Marion, of Siloam, and Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Johnson, of Rutherfordton. The bride is a splendid young lady of culture and refinement, being educated at Davenport College, where she has taught since her graduation there in 1920.

Dr. Lovelace, a gentleman of exceptional qualities, is a successful physician, graduating from the Richmond Medical College of Virginia several years ago. He served several months with the medical corps in France, where he won various honors in military affairs.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple motored to Charlotte, leaving by rail for a bridal trip to New York, Niagara Falls and other points north. They will be at home in Henrietta after July 1st.

Mr. J. B. Moore, father of Supt. W. S. Moore, left Monday for Richmond, Va., to attend the old soldiers reunion to be held there this week. Mr. Moore is eighty years of age and is blind, but still enjoys the reunions.

Miss Marion Floyd, of St. Stephens, S. C., arrived last night to spend some time here as the guest of Mrs. K. B. Pratt.

Miss Alma Whitaker, who recently accepted a position with the Henrietta Mills Store, was called home on account of the illness and death of her brother. We regret very much to learn of this, and Miss Whitaker has our deepest sympathy.

Mr. Clyde Mahaffee, who holds a position with the Henrietta Mills, is taking his vacation this week. He is visiting friends and relatives near Augusta, Ga.

Mrs. E. J. Belle, Mrs. Jack Grimes and Miss Lanie Belle, mother and sisters of Mrs. K. B. Pratt, are expected to arrive to-graduating with the B. A. degree. She is a member of one of North Carolina's most prominent and wealthy families and is a young woman of rare charm and culture. The groom is one of Rutherford's most promising young business men. During the late war he served as an aviator in France for thirteen months, performing his duties with honor and distinction. He now holds a responsible position with Cliffside Mills.

The out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Miss Mary Dafron, Shelby; Dr. and Mrs. J. Rush Shull, Charlotte; Mr. Durham Moore, Shelby; Mr. Emmett Kerr, Raleigh; Miss Edna Hoyle, Lincolnton.

CHAUTAUQUA IS DRAWING LARGE CROWDS DAILY

Redpath's Program This Year of Unusual Merit and Greatly Appreciated By the People of County.

The Redpath Chautauqua opened Saturday afternoon and has played to capacity audiences at every performance. The program is a good one throughout and an increasing attendance and interest is manifested each day.

Tonight (Wednesday) great interest is centered in the play, "Friendly Enemies," which will be greeted by an audience that will tax the capacity of the tent.

The Chautauqua will close with the evening performance on Thursday with a concert by the Kubic Company and the lecture, "The Wonders of Burbank," by Dr. H. A. Adrain. Intense interest is centered upon this program and the night will prove one of the most interesting of the series.

The people of Rutherford county appreciate the Redpath Chautauqua and a movement was started Tuesday night to have it return next season. The method of the guarantee will be different this year, in that cards are distributed throughout the audience and individuals are requested to sign for the number of tickets they may use. This is the better plan and will work a hardship upon no one. Every citizen should realize the importance of having the Chautauqua return, and those who have not already done so, should be prompt in signing the pledge cards.

Thanks are due the public spirited men who made the Chautauqua possible this year. It has been announced that nearly enough tickets have been sold to save the guarantors from financial loss, but it took some hard work on the part of the workers to accomplish this end. The Courier urges every one to sign the pledge cards promptly, and thus assure the return of the Chautauqua. It would be a lasting shame if the citizens did not properly support the move and lose the great benefits and pleasure of Redpath for next season. Get busy, and let's put this thing over—tonight.

REV. J. S. WOOD GETS SIGNAL HONOR

The Rev. John S. Wood, prominent in Masonry and so well loved by Forest City, was elevated to the position of Grand Worthy Patron of the Grand Chapter of North Carolina O. E. S. at Asheville last week. This honor came without a dissenting vote.
