LINEN SHOWER BY DR. AND MRS. A. C. DUNCAN

AVONDALE, June 19.—One of the most enjoyable events of the season, was a linen shower given in honor of Miss Jessie Jenkins, a June bride elect at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Duncan. The living room was beautifully decorated in gold and green, while nasturtium formed the center piece on the library table. The gifts were received by Mrs. Clarence Hames and Mrs. Duncan, on each package a card was placed containing a verse or so of original poetry. A golden cord was given to Miss Jenkins, and she was asked to pull it, this brought in little Miss Jean Duncan carrying a basket covered with gold and green containing a number of linen gifts. Miss Jenkins was asked to read aloud the poetry that each package contained. Every line was filled with cupid thoughts, which was very appropriate for the occasion. After enjoying some music several games, and reading by Miss Mary

Sue Edwards, the guests were ushered into the dining hall by little Miss Jean Duncan where all were served with punch and cake. Mrs. Geo. Philbeck and Mrs. Clarence Hames presided over the punch bowl.

Those who enjoyed the evening were Mesdames Frank Sherard, Clarence Hames and Geo. Philbeck, Misses Jessie and Edith Jenkins, Osteen and Mattie Whisnant, Glenn Hamrick, Myrtle Hemphill, Una Edwards, S. McConnell, Rose Gaffney, Virginia and Mary Sue Edwards, Willie and Minnie Carpenter and Ola Marion.

LOST POCKETBOOK

Mrs. F. I. Barber, who attended the meeting of the Grand Chapter of the O. E. S. in Asheville last week, left his pocket-book on the train. Discovering her loss in a few minutes, she returned to the car and was handed her pocket-book by the gate keeper, but every cent of her money was gone, the amount being $47.00. The railroad authorities are trying every way to locate the thief.

FLORENCE MILLS NEWS

Quite a number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Harris Sunday at noon and enjoyed a bountiful birthday dinner in honor of Mrs. Harris' 54th birthday. We join her many friends in wishing her many more.

Rev. Parker Holmes filled his regular appointment at the Missionary Methodist church Sunday afternoon.

Mayor Lowrance, accompanied by Messrs. George Wright and C. L. Proctor, spent Saturday very pleasantly in Cathey's Creek, fishing.

Rev. J. J. Sisk occupied the pulpit of the Missionary Methodist church at Marion Saturday evening and Sunday in the pastor's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Harris were guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Funderburk, of Route 1, Sunday at a birthday dinner.

Mrs. Osie Hardin is reported as getting along nicely at the Rutherford Hospital, after a treatment of several days.

Mr. Carmen Enloe and sister, Oma, of Gastonia, are spending several days with their brother, Mr. E. G. Enloe.

Friends of Mrs. Jane Hardin surprised her Sunday by remembering her 56th birthday by setting a nice dinner at her home.

Mrs. Sallie Greene is confined to her room with erysipelas. Her many friends hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Baxter Freeman and little son are spending some time with the former's parents near Pea Ridge.

Mr. T. J. Ross is on the sick list this week, but not seriously ill.

The "Study The Bible Class" will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Francis Frazier Friday evening, at 7:30. You are welcome.

GLOBE TROTTER HERE

Mr. Isaac Shalstare, globe trotter, was here June 15th. He is 19 years old and is traveling around the world on a seven year hike, having left his home in New York April 15th.

Young Shalstare is a High School graduate and is making the trip for the experience, claiming that he can get more out of this trip than he could from a college course. He left home without funds, but was well provided with clothing, etc. He carries a pack weighing 30 pounds and is to walk 30 miles each day, but may accept a ride after this distance has been done.

The young traveler intends to visit every state in the union and expects to spend two years in the United States, reporting in every state capital. He recites poetry Shakespeare and reports to the different Chambers of Commerce, where he is usually given aid. He showed a letter from several secretaries of Chambers stating that he had been entertained in their cities.

Young Shalstare says he has been treated well everywhere, but that he finds the people of the South more hospitable. One of his rules is to live on bread and milk, hoping that this combination with the exercise involved will improve his health. He says he intends to visit every country in the world during his seven years of travel. Upon his return he will write a book on his travels.

ATLAS PORTLAND CEMENT

SOMETIMES a porch is the one thing needed to add that cozy look every home should have. If so, the three things to consider are expense, appearance and permanence.

Three men in your community will gladly answer these three questions—the contractor, the architect and the building material dealer. In fact the dealer will help you deal with the other two.

Your building material dealer can give you useful information and advice. On building materials it is safe to follow his judgment. He will recommend Atlas Portland Cement, "the Standard by which all other makes are measured."
