The Standard Cloak Company's Great Dissolution Sale

Starts Friday, June 23

MESSRS. JOSEPH MILLER AND A. H. MORRIS ARE TO DISSOLVE PARTNERSHIP ON AUGUST 1ST AND THIS SALE IS NECESSARY TO REDUCE STOCKS AND RAISE MONEY

A Bona-Fide Store-Wide Event Affecting Every Item in the Store-- A MONTH OF BARGAINS

HERE ARE THE WHYS AND WHEREFORES OF THIS SALE IN A NUTSHELL—Several years ago A. H. Morris bought from Joseph Miller half interest in the Standard with the privilege of buying the other half at this time. On August 1st their deal will be culminated and Mr. Morris, who has been actively in charge of the Standard for the past few years, will buy Mr. Miller's entire interests. As this deal is to be a cost transaction it is necessary to raise several thousand dollars and therefore this great DISSOLUTION SALE is being launched. Nothing can more fittingly impress upon the minds of the people this partnership dissolution than the values of this sale is to produce.

Since the establishment of this store years ago truthful advertising and merchandising policies have been strictly adhered to and the same policies govern every word and act of this store now. There are no so-called "SNAPS" or "LEADERS" to draw crowds seeking something for nothing, but every article offered is a real bargain possessing quality and merit at a very special price.
