UNION MILLS NEWS

Union Mills, July 17th—Prof. M. L. Skaggs, principal of Round Hill Academy, after spending two weeks visiting his parents at Pennington Gap, Va., returned to Union Mills Friday afternoon.

Prof. and Mrs. H. A. Nanney, of Macon, are spending two weeks here, the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Nanney. Prof. Nanney is principal of the Macon High School.

Miss Ruth McKinney, after spending sometime in Union Mills visiting in the homes of Rev. M. L. Buchanan and Dr. C. L. Buchanan, returned to her home at Bakersville last week.

Misses Emma Goforth and Cora Geer and Mr. Lewis Hartsell left Sunday afternoon for Cowpens, S. C., where they begin teaching this week.

The Baraca and Philathea Classes of the Baptist Sunday School will give a play in the Round Hill Auditorium at an early date. The date and full details will be announced soon.

Miss Annie Simpson, after spending several days in Knoxville, Tenn., visiting her uncle Mr. Jarvis Flack and Mrs. Flack, returned to Union Mills Saturday afternoon.

The condition of Squire C. F. Flack who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks, is much improved, and his numerous friends are hopeful of his recovery.

Rural policeman L. W. A. Thomason and Lawson Condrey, of Union Mills assisted by two deputies from McDowell county, captured a big still on the head of Radford creek in McDowell county Wednesday. Officers Condrey and Thomason located the still in a search made Tuesday and called on the McDowell officers for assistance. The still was a large copper outfit of about 100 gallons capacity. Twelve to fifteen hundred gallons of beer was destroyed by the officers. No arrests were made. This is the second large still the Rutherford officers have located and aided in destroying in McDowell county during the last month as a result of a determined effort on their part to stop the liquor traffic into this county.

Last week officer Thomason and Rural policeman Ed Pardon, of Gilkey, destroyed a still on Mountain Creek, in this county. Two arrests were made by the officers. The operators manner in going to and from the still was by wading the creek.

Messrs. J. L. H. A. and Ben Barnes H. M. Guffey and son, Worth Guffey spent the day Thursday very pleasantly at Mt. Mitchell making the trip in Mr. H. A. Barnes' car.

Mrs. W. S. Rice, of Asheville, spent last week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Washburn, returning to Asheville Sunday afternoon with Mr. Rice who motored down for the week-end.

Mr. Clarence Morris, of Forest City, was a visitor in Union Mills Sunday, the guest of his uncle, Mr. J. D. Morris and Mrs. Morris. Mr. Muriel L. Johnson is spending sometime in Jonesville, S. C., visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. Addie Morris, who holds a position with the Southern Railway at Bessmer City, spent Sunday at his home here.

The Double Springs school opened today for the summer term with Mr. Morgan Rucker, of Rutherfordton, as teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Edwards, of Ellenboro, R. 2, visited Mrs. Edwards' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Johnson, Sunday.

Work on the new athletic field for Round Hill Academy will be resumed this week. A greater part of the work was done last spring and the field will be completed within the next few weeks.

Prof. M. L. Blevins, of Virginia, has been elected English teacher in Round Hill Academy for the next year, succeeding Miss Elizabeth Shackelford. Prof. Blevins is a graduate of Emory and Henry College, and taught last year in Lee Baptist Institute, Pennington Gap, Va., and comes highly recommended. He will be a strong addition to the faculty and Round Hill is fortunate in securing his services.

Prof. M. L. Skaggs spent Sunday in the Shiloh section, and spoke at the church there Sunday morning. Round Hill will have a number of students from that community next year.

In a ball game at Westminster last Tuesday afternoon between Union Mills and Westminster the local team won 3 to 1.

Master J. W. Thompson, little son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Thompson, had the misfortune to fall from a buggy in which he was riding this afternoon and broke his right arm just above the elbow.

SPINDALE NEWS

Miss Margaret Tate, a former Spindale school teacher, and a lady friend of Union Mills were in town Saturday.

The members of the local B. Y. P. U. went to Bostic Sunday afternoon and organized a B. Y. P. U. there. The trip was made in the cars of Rev. D. J. Hunt, Messrs. Ralph Vess Logan Monteith and Yelton & Sons' truck. Before organizing an interesting program was given by group two, Mr. Herman Wells, group leader. Mr. Addie Nanney, the local B. Y. P. U. president, acted as Chairman. The devotional exercises were in charge of Mr. Jake Martin. Talks were made as follows: "How does the call to the ministry come?" — Miss Sadie Morgan. "If we have churches we must have ministers"—Mrs. L. Monteith. "The ministry of today offers opportunity for leadership," and "The minister's opportunity to mould thought and shape ideals"—Mr. Clarence Griffin. "The ministry should appeal to the most gifted young men." — Mr. L. D. Shytles. "Our attitude toward ministers."—Messrs. M. S. Nanney and Gray Williams. After giving the program a union was organized with about 35 members.

Miss Ree Williams is spending this week visiting friends and relatives in Gastonia and Charlotte.

Death of Mrs. Chatham

Mrs. James Chatham died Saturday evening about 8 p. m. Mrs. Chatham had been ill something like a year. Before her marriage she was Miss Willie Mae Guffey. She was just in the prime of life. She leaves a husband, mother and several sisters. She was buried at Mt. Vernon Sunday at 4 p. m. No other details were secured.

OLIVER CARSON DEAD

Rutherfordton, July 17.—Mr. Oliver Carson died Thursday morning, July 6, at 9 a. m. He spent Wednesday night here at the Cleghorn Mills with Mr. L. M. Boone, also three nights previous. He attended the celebration here the 4th. He ate a hearty breakfast Thursday morning and seemed well as usual. He started to his home on Cane Creek via Southern Depot. He was about 150 yards from the pavement on North Main street when he stopped, sat down and soon tilted over. He was carried to a nearby porch and a physician was summoned. He died in a few minutes. He never spoke. It is supposed that he died of heart failure.

He was 83 years old. He was buried at Brittain church July 7. He was an ex-Confederate soldier and a good citizen. His wife died last February. He has six children dead and four living. They are Messrs. Ralph and Joe Carson and Mesdames York Fisher and Jessie Terry. He also leaves 17 grand-children and three great-grand children.
