GREAT REVIVAL CLOSED

A correspondent writes: We have just witnessed one of the greatest revival meetings we have ever had at Holly Springs. Rev. W. T. Tate, of Caroleen, did the preaching and Dr. Adams greatly assisted in the work. We had great crowds at each service and Mr. Tate preached great sermons. The people, of Holly Springs, didn't know they could love Mr. Tate so well as they learned to. Several got his little book, "Up a Little Hill" and learned some of the hard things he suffered while trying to educate himself for his great work.

Dr. Adams baptized 28. There were somewhere in 30 conversions. Some went to other churches. All were Sunday school scholars but two.

ALEXANDER NEWS

Rev. Matheny, pastor of the Alexander Baptist church, has promised to assist Rev. Smith in his serial meetings at Goodes Creek, beginning the third Sunday in August. As all know, Rev. Matheny is an influential young minister and the church is fortunate in securing his services.

The Alexander Mill treated their employees to a big watermelon feast recently in the grove back of the church. About 225 melons were cut and devoured. Prof. W. R. Hill was present and spoke on "The Greatness of N. C." His address was much enjoyed by all present. It was full of information about the "Old North State."

No mill in the county treats its employees better than does the Alexander and no set of employees are more loyal to their employers than the people of Alexander Manufacturing company.

REVIVAL AT WASHBURN

There will be a series of revival meetings held at Washburn school house, commencing at 7 p. m. the 20th of August (3rd Sunday). Rev. Vance Heafner known as the "boy preacher" will do the preaching. The Queen quartet of Forest City, will sing one hour before services. No one should miss this opportunity of hearing them sing. This meeting will be a duplicate of the one that was held there last year when much good was accomplished. Everybody is cordially invited to be with the people of Washburn. No denomination features. This will be a union meeting where everyone can meet to praise God and serve Him. Rev. Heafner is an able preacher, accomplishing much good where he goes. You are cordially invited to attend.
