DR. STEVENS IMPROVING

We are glad to note that Dr. Chas. H. Stevens is getting on fine after his operation on Monday of last week for appendicitis at the Charlotte sanatorium. Dr. M. A. Adams, pastor of the Rutherfordton Baptist church, preached here Sunday morning and

Rev. W. B. Jenkins, pastor at Avondale, preached Sunday evening. Both brought splendid messages. Dr. Granberry of Limestone College, Gaffney, S. C., will preach here for Dr. Stevens next Sunday, both morning and evening. Announcements will be made next Sunday for the Sunday following.

LYCEUM PLAY TO BE PRESENTED

On next Thursday night at the hall one of the best plays ever given here will be presented under the auspices of the Redpath Lyceum Bureau. It is the "Gorilla," mystery drama presented by real artists. A treat is in store for all who go.

CLIFFSIDE SCHOOL LIFE

Dr. Twitty, county health officer, was here last Friday making arrangements to give the Schick test to the pupils of the Cliffside schools. The test will be given this week and all pupils found not immune will be vaccinated for diphtheria.

Cliffside is always active in health work. A Tuberculosis Clinic will be held in town this week.

A first aid kit has been bought for the school and is a valuable aid to the teachers in rendering First Aid to the children.

The Valentine program given at the chapel program by the second and third grades last Thursday morning was exceptionally good. Our chapel programs are always good and we have visitors almost every morning. We are always glad to welcome all visitors.
