TRAINING SCHOOL OPENS

A teacher training school and a B. Y. P. U. training school is in progress at the local Baptist church this week. Monday morning a large number of the young people met for the intermediate and junior B. Y. P. U. training. There were fifty-two in the Junior class and many more expected to enroll this morning, (Tuesday). Mr. Waters, the associational worker, arrived Sunday morning and Mr. J. N. Barnett, who is working under the State Board and Miss Elizabeth Nuckols with the Southern Baptist Sunday School Board, arrived Monday. Circle No. 1 of the W. M. U. prepared the evening meal and served it in the dining room at the church. Other circles of this organization will serve in like manner each evening.

WHISNANT-WATKINS WEDDING

Another wedding occurred at Cliffside last Sunday morning when Mr. Robert A. Watkins led to the Hymeneal altar Miss Clara Whisnant. The wedding was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Watkins, parents of the groom and Dr. Chas. H. Stevens officiated. Miss Whisnant has been making her home at Mr. Watkins for several months. The groom is home on a furlough until the 23rd of this month when he will report for duty in the Navy at Norfolk where he is now stationed. We join their friends in wishing for them every happiness.

REV. HECKARD TO SUMMER SCHOOL

Rev. M. W. Heckard and family left Tuesday for Duke University where Rev. Heckard will attend the Summer school. The men's classes of the Cliffside and Avondale Methodist Sunday schools are defraying all expenses. This is a very worthy and commendable act and is indicative of real live classes.

MRS. HINKLE ENTERTAINS

Last Friday afternoon Mrs. R. C. Hinkle entertained in honor of Mrs. C. B. Martin, a recent bride.

The guests were met at the door by their hostess, charmingly gowned in bordered crepe de chine and the honoree dressed in ashes of roses with hat to match.

Progressive rook was played and the place cards were miniature brides. In the high cut, Mrs. C. C. Tate won first prize, a box of stationery. Mrs. Martin was presented with a handsome hand-embroidered lufcheon set. Mrs. Miles Haynes, a bride of the early spring, was given a monogrammed guest towel. Mrs. G. A. Hines, who is moving to Rutherfordton, was presented with a bottle of Houbigants bath salts as a farewell gift.

After the game a delicious salad course was served by Mrs. Hinkle and Miss Pearl James.

Those present were Mesdames C. B. Martin, Cornelius Martin, C. C. Tate, B. P. Caldwell, L. H. Campbell, G. L. Goforth, G. C. Shuford, A. M. Haynes, G. A. Hines and Mrs. H. M. Owens, of Avondale.

AVONDALE BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

W. M. U. Circles one, two and three will have their regular monthly meeting at the church on Friday evening 7:30 o'clock. All the women are requested to be present.

Training Institute closed on last Friday evening.

We have about fifteen who have taken the B. Y. P. U. Manual, and will receive their diplomas for this work.

We also have fourteen who have finished "The Sunday School Manual" for which they will receive their "King's Teacher" Diploma. We also have nine others who have finished the first or second division of the book. They are going to complete this work in the near future.

It was our privilege to have with us the first week of this training.

Bro. J. N. Barnett, who is our state Sunday School worker. We also had Rev. A. R. Waters, who is our Associational worker. These men are doing some real constructive work. May the Blessings of God rest upon them.

Our revival meeting begins here next Sunday night. Bro. Rush Padgett, of South Shelby will do the preaching. Come and let us rejoice in a Saviour's love together.

YOUR BABY

Summer months are difficult months for mothers of young children. Greatest care should be taken to prevent little ailments from developing into serious sickness.

A little precaution is all that is necessary. Prompt attention and administration of mild and harmless remedies, (which we will prescribe) will keep baby well.
