ney's 10c store. Each young lady invited one guest and a most delightful time was enjoyed by the following: Misses Myrtle Wilkerson, Atha McDade, Bessie Remple Ruth Reid, Leo Padgett, Marie Huntley, Reba and Stella Blanton, Eva Lyda and Wilda and Hannie Queen.

Elegant Luncheon

Honoring Recent Bride.

Mrs. J. F. Alexander, Misses Nell and Margaret Young, entertained at a luncheon Tuesday at high noon, at the home of the former, honoring Mrs. Chas. Z. Flack, a recent bride.

The guests were received by Miss Mayme Martin and presented to the receiving line composed of Mrs. J. F. Alexander, Mrs. Chas. Z. Flack, Mrs. Roy Blanton, Misses Nell and Margaret Young and Mrs. J. S. Dor-ton and Miss Frances Hoyle, of Shel-by.

The first floor of the handsome residence was thrown en suite and decorated throughout with cut flowers and potted plants. Seven tables were arranged for playing progressive matrimony where the guests found their places by appropriate place cards. At the conclusion of the game the guest of honor was presented with a lovely box of hand-made linen handkerchiefs.

Misses Mary Crowell and Margaret Moore served an elaborate three-course luncheon, assisted by little Miss Kathleen Alexander, who passed delicious hot rolls.

Miss Vera Whisnant, in her usual manner, rendered several beautiful selections on the piano.

Floating Reception

Honoring Mrs. Chas. Z. Flack.

One of the prettiest affairs of the season was a floating reception given by Miss Bertha Jones at her home on Main street honoring Mrs. Chas. Z. Flack, a recent bride, on Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6.

Misses Bunnah Jones and Mary Long greeted the guests on the porch and directing them to the door, where Mesdames Thos. G. Stone and G. C. King introduced them to the receiving line composed of Miss Bertha Jones, Mesdames Chas. Z. Flack and Mrs. R. R. Blanton; Misses Robbie Biggerstaff, Ruth Higgins, Nell Young, Mayme Martin and Hattie Jones. From there the guests were invited into the dining room which was beautifully decorated with nasturtiums, lilies and trailing ferns, and the table was especially pretty covered with a handsome Irish lace cover and silver candles placed on each corner, shedding a soft glow over the entire room. Mesdames A. C. Jones and A. W. Falvey greeted the guests and Misses Mary Crowell, Margaret Moore, Auline Hemphill, Kate Long and Mary Ayers served a delicious frozen salad, wafers, sandwiches and tea. Mrs. E. B. Doggett directed the guests to the register, which was presided over by Mrs. O. B. Greene and from there were invited into the living room by Mrs. J. M. Edwards where iced fruit punch was served by Misses Meriam Green and Ruth Doggett.

Mrs. F. R. Wilkins stood at the door to bid the guests good-bye. From 75 to 100 were invited to meet Mrs. Flack and welcome her to our little city.

Ladies Aid Society Meets. A large and very enthusiastic meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist church was held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Parks Tuesday afternoon with Mesdames McDaniel, Mears, McDonald and Padgett as hostesses.

Mrs. R. E. Biggerstaff, the president, presided over the short business session. A most interesting program, arranged by Mrs. Parks, was then given by some of the talented children of the members of the Aid Society, as follows:

- Piano Solo—"Ring Sweet Bells" Miss Marjorie Padgett
- Song—"Jesus Loves Me" Miss Alice Louise Minish
- Reading—"I Want to Be a Boy" Miss Nell Thomas
- Piano Solo—"Dorothy" Lee Moss Reinhardt
- Piano Duet—"Blow Bugle" Misses Mary Frances Harrill and Margaret Griffin.
- Song—"Can a Little Child Like Me?" Miss Dorothy Hamrick
- Reading—"Wm. Greenhill" Miss Ruth Doggett
- Song—"Roses" Margaret Meares
- Song—"Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep" Henry Parks
- Pianologue—"It Takes a Little Rain With the Sunshine" Misses Caroline and Martha Parks.
- Piano Solo—"Voices of the Woods" William Ayers

It proved to be a veritable children's chautauqua, thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by all present. The hostesses then served a most delightful ice course.
