SULPHUR SPRINGS NEWS OF INTEREST

Forest City, R-1, June 30.—A large crowd attended the Robbins reunion Sunday at Sulphur Springs. All present seemed to enjoy the good program and picnic dinner. Mr. Grover Splawn gave the welcome address and was followed by a splendid talk by Mr. Dave Roberts, after which Rev. T. C. Harris concluded the services. Special music was rendered by the Holly Springs choir. It was decided to hold this reunion annually on the third Sunday in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hopper, Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Hopper spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred McEntire near Shingle Hollow.

A party of young people from this section went on a fishing trip near Chimney Rock Friday afternoon. Among those of the party were: Misses Ellen, Estell and Joyce Bland, Myrtle and Ruby Hopper, Josephine Young, Rose Eaves; Messrs. John Bland, Lee Mathis, Walter Hopper and R. L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lee R. Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith, Guilford Young and Guy McArthur, joined the party late in the afternoon. All reported a nice time.

Sulphur Springs lost a poorly played game to Bostic Wednesday afternoon by score of 13 to 3. The local boys played better ball behind Lefty Lancaster's stellar pitching to defeat the fast Ellenboro team 6 to 1 Thursday.

Saturday was the best game of the season, the locals winning from Spindale 1 to 0. This was a pitchers' battle between Red Cole and Tomblin, errors paving the way for the only score of the game. Spindale has a good club composed of stars from over the county and under the able management of Mr. Setzer, will win many ball games.

There will be two games July 4th at Spindale park. Sulphur Springs vs. Rutherford County All Stars. First game 10:00 a. m.; second game 4:00 p. m.

Broadus Simmons, the Wake Forest pitching ace, will likely fling for the All Stars, while Lancaster and Cole will work for Sulphur Springs.

"A JUNE NIGHT"

(Chas. E. Shober)
O, beautiful night, thou art supremely fair,
With fragrant flowers blooming everywhere,
The fleecy clouds, with glimmering star-light shining thru',
Heralds the Queen of Heaven rising slowly through the blue.
To come within thy magic spell, from day's dull care,
And find relief, kissed by thy perfumed air,
Soothed withal, cares flee away,
And new strength is given for yet another day.

INDEPENDENCE

You can help your nation most today—by helping yourself. As the individual is prosperous—so is the nation. No where in the world is the fact being demonstrated in a more convincing manner than here in the United States.

We have national independence—thanks to the wisdom and courage of our patriots of '76. Individual independence today comes by working hard and saving. Saving accounts in the U. S. are greater than in any nation in the world. If yours one of them? If not you should resolve now to spend less than you make—and bank the difference.

We solicit your account.
