

MORGAN-STARNES
WEDDING MONDAY AFTERNOON

Beautiful and Impressive Ceremony, Uniting Prominent Couples; Performed By Rev. Alvin A. Walker

Characterized by impressive beauty and the dignity of a home solemnization was the marriage Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock of Miss Lillie Mae Morgan, of Union Mills, and Mr. Charley Starnes, of West Asheville. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. J. Worth Morgan, in this city. Rev. Alvin A. Walker, of Round Hill Baptist church, pastor of the bride, was the officiant.

The spacious living and dining rooms of the Morgan home were thrown together for the event, and were artistically decorated with potted plants, graceful sprays of ivy and large yellow and white chrysanthemums. The rooms were lighted with tall yellow candles, which added much to the beauty and mellowness of the scene. One end of the living room was banked with graceful ferns, trailing ivy and interspersed with yellow lighted tapers, forming the altar, before which the marriage vows were spoken.

Miss Rose Logan, of Union Mills, presided at the piano. Rev. Alvin A. Walker prior to the ceremony sang, "I Love You Truly." The bridal chorus from Lobengrin heralded the approach of the wedding party. McDowell's "To a Wild Rose" was softly played during the ceremony by Miss Logan. The impressive ring ceremony was used.

The bride entered upon the arm of her brother, Mr. J. Worth Morgan, by whom she was given in marriage. She was lovely in a girlish gown of cuckoo brown crepe back satin, trimmed in fur, with hat and accessories to match. Her bouquet was a corsage of brides roses and maiden hair ferns.

Mr. George Starnes, brother of the groom, acted as best-man. Following the ceremony a delicious salad course was served buffet style by Mrs. J. Worth Morgan, assisted by Miss Mary Sue Morgan and Mesdames A. H. Morgan, S. V. Hooker and A. E. Dillingham.

About twenty-five guests were present for the ceremony. Greeting these as they arrived for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. J. Worth Morgan, the latter gowned in black satin trimmed in jet, and Miss Mary Sue Morgan, gowned in navy blue back satin trimmed in fur.

Mrs. Starnes, who is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Morgan, of Union Mills, is a graduate of Round Hill Academy. She is an unusually popular girl attaining such esteem by a winsome personality.

Mr. Starnes is a son of Mrs. Elizabeth Starnes, of 851 Haywood Road, West Asheville, and the late George H. Starnes. He was educated at Round Hill Academy, and holds an important position with Southeastern Express Company at Asheville.

The happy couple left for a week's honeymoon with the destination not disclosed. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Starnes will reside in their new home on Haywood Road, West Asheville.

Out of town guests present at the wedding were: Mrs. Elizabeth Starnes, Miss Amy Hackney, George, Bert and Glenn Starnes, of Asheville; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Morgan, Miss Mary Sue Morgan, Miss Rose Logan, Miss Nan Dobbins, and Rev. Alvin A. Walker, of Union Mills; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Morgan and children and Mr. Oscar L. Morgan, of Shelby; Mr. G. W. Our boys won the toss and choice to receive at the south goal. They carried the ball down the field and after several exchanges of punts Ware carried the ball over. The second touchdown came in the third quarter when the Chesnee quarterback tried to pass within his thirty yard line. The result was that Ware scooped the pigskin out of the air and romped across. Ware made both tries for point good from placement kick.

Chesnee made a desperate effort in the last quarter to score but lost the ball on downs.

Those playing best for Forest City were Watkins and McKeithan ends, Laughridge tackle, Vogt, Meares and Ware back.

KIWANIANS
ENJOY HALLOWEEN PARTY MONDAY

Program Put On By Mrs. R. R. Blanton and Miss Robbie Biggerstaff.

"Dick Minish and His "Southern Peaches" Take The House By Storm.

There have been many enjoyable entertainments given in Kiwanis Hall, but few, if any, have ever eclipsed the one provided by Mesdames R. R. Blanton and Miss Robbie Biggerstaff, who had charge of the program for the Kiwanians Monday evening at their regular weekly luncheon hour. These good ladies, who have made such warm friends by their efforts in preparing splendid luncheons for the Kiwanians, excelled themselves Monday evening. The room was fittingly decorated and the halloween idea was carried out in every particular. The supper was one of the best ever served. Now, in addition to the supper, the ladies made a hit when they selected "Dick" Minish and his quintet of "Southern Peaches" to fill in the program. They carried the house by storm and received encore after encore.

The first number, a song entitled "Just a Little Drink," was a scream. While they were singing, the ladies served old fashioned pumpkin pie, ginger snaps and a bottle of ginger ale to each guest.

A number of song hits were scored by the Minish Company during the evening.

Another hilarious feature was the apple bobbing contest, which was participated in by Messrs. A. C. Duncan, B. B. Doggett, W. L. Brown, J. W. Eaks and J. E. Weathers. Eaks and Duncan tied, the prize being awarded to Dr. Duncan upon the toss of a coin.

LINCOLNTON PLAYS
HERE FRIDAY

Forest City high school students are looking forward to the most important game of the schedule this season when the crack Lincolnton team comes here Friday. Last year the local boys lost to their rivals at Lincolnton but this year they are out for revenge. The boys are working hard for the game, perfecting new plays and tactics in general.

The admission for this game will be as last year, children 25 cents and adults 50 cents. This is necessary because it costs lots of money to bring a team so far and the only means of supporting high school athletics is by the contribution of those interested enough in the boys to watch them play.

The schedule for the remainder of the season is as follows:

Oct. 30 Lincolnton	Here.
Nov. 6 Boiling Springs	Here.
Nov. 14 Marion	There.
Nov. 26 Waynesville	There.
