BLACK BEAR MOTORCADE HAILED AT CLIFFSIDE

Cliffside, Oct. 22.—The motorcade traveling over part of the Black Bear Trail, America's most scenic route from the north to south, passed through Cliffside today at 10 o'clock. The party, composed largely of South Carolina men, was hailed in front of Cliffside's school building by the entire high school body, who gave yells and songs for the party and the Black Bear Trail.

Included in the party were Glenn Grier, Hugh Miller, Charles O. Hearon, Frank Hodges, B. T. Earle, W. B. Potter, J. O. Angel, J. P. King, and R. P. Beal. Local men joining the party were Messrs. Z. O. Jenkins, J. W. Mills, J. C. Hames and Dr. J. S. Rudisill.

The motorcade continued to Linville where it was entertained at a luncheon given by Hugh McRea, of Wilmington, president of the Black Bear Trail.

Edna Tinsley: "Miss Curtis my hat is miles too large."

Miss Cuptis: "Well Edna, I told you the bandes would be here in a few days."

Edna: "Huh, we didn't have to wear that last year and besides one part of the uniform won't help another part to fit."

THE PARABLE OF A SHOE BUYER

(By J. W. D.)

Behold, a man went out to buy shoes. After chasing around over town, he bought some at 98c some at $1.48 and then he went to Dalton Bros. and bought some "Star Brands" at very reasonable prices. Behold, then, the floods came and the storms decended and some of these shoes got wet and came to pieces and the children's feet got cold and wet, and there were Doctor bills, but the "Star Brands" stayed high and dry and lasted the children all winter and there was no Doctor bills—Moral: Be not deceived: "Star Brand Shoes Are Better".

WANTED: TEN THOUSAND AUTO owners to try "That GOOD GULF GASOLINE and SUPREME OILS". Auto owners note, cold mornings quick start, more pep and power, more miles per gallon. Buy GULF and be your own judge. 3-12t

ATWATER KENT RADIO

There are two ways of judging receiving sets and radio speakers: by demonstration and by the reputation of the maker. Atwater Kent wins either way.

HOW STRANGE IT IS

That Big Jack Frost can change the Green to black and all this wonderous change is made with just a coat of white. When Jack Frost hits the grass and weeds and scatters all the skeeters, and whirling winds whirl dust and leaves while whistling 'round the corners, 'tis about time for you to have a look at those heavy Wool Blankets and Bleached White Heavy Weight Union Suits at
