FARMERS TO GO ON TOUR OF INSPECTION

A special delegation of farmers will go to Asheville on Friday, Nov. 27, which is the day after Thanksgiving. The purpose of the tour is to inspect the Farmers Federation of Buncombe and Henderson counties. The trip will be made by automobiles, leaving Rutherfordton, from the court house at 8:00 o'clock a. m. The farmers who have automobiles are urged to take them and carry a load of their friends. Lunch will be served by the Federation of Asheville. Every farmer of Rutherfordton county is urged to go and the business men are invited to go, also. If you are going please let B. A. Buff, of Rutherfordton, know by Nov. 25th.

RESIDENCE BURNED

The residence of Mr. Lawrence Pinson, tenant on the farm of Mr. Chas. Miller, near Harris, was destroyed by fire Saturday night. Flames of undetermined origin broke out at 8 o'clock while the family was visiting a neighbor. Mr. Pinson lost his household goods and two bales of cotton. He had no insurance and he feels his loss keenly.

MRS. CHAS. GOLD ENTERTAINS

Ellenboro, Nov. 17.—The Ladies' Betterment Society of Ellenboro were entertained by Mrs. Chas. Gold at her beautiful home near Rutherfordton Friday afternoon, Nov. 13th. The evening was very greatly enjoyed by those present. After the business meeting a delicious salad course was served by the hostess. Mrs. Gold is very pleasantly remembered by the Ladies Betterment Society of Ellenboro. She organized and was the first president of the Society. She has aided very materially in the building up and interest of Ellenboro and more especially of our school, for which she worked so faithfully and deserves much credit. Those enjoying Mrs. Gold's kind hospitality were, Mesdames John Martin, E. A. Martin, Joe Giddings, W. H. Payne, O. C. Houston, J. E. Bland, Misses Cleo Burns and Carrie Harrill.

Dr. and Mrs. Gold have many friends in Ellenboro and the people exceedingly regret to have given them up.

The Betterment ladies remembered the inmates of the County Home with a treat in the way of fruits and candy. Wednesday evening, Nov. 18.

FERRY NEWS

The box supper at Ferry Friday night proved a delightful occasion. The special guests were: Prof. O. P. Hamrick, of Boiling Springs High school; Rev. C. M. Rollins and Officer Jim Roberson.

Miss Birdia Byrd, the principal, presided. Miss Byrd gave a short address. She contrasted the old buildings with the new one. She used tact in introducing the new teachers, Committees and the special guests of the evening to the public. Prof. O. P. Hamrick gave an interesting address. His subject was, "The Advantage of Social Center Combined With Co-operation."

Byrd were in Rutherfordton Saturday shopping.

Miss Whiteside spent the week-end at home.

The following from Ferry attended the B. Y. P. U. at Race Path Sunday night: Misses Emily Puttman, Lucile Sherlin, Gertrude Ledbetter, Birdia Byrd, Merlie Hanes, Pauline Scruggs and Bernice Jenkins; Messrs. Louis Scruggs, Baxter Scruggs, Mr. Rollins and Mr. Crawford.
