FLORENCE MILL NEWS

A large crowd gathered at the home of Rev. L. M. Epley Sunday to celebrate his 25th birthday. A long table was spread in the yard near the home and loaded with good things to eat. Rev. Epley is pastor of the Missionary Methodist church, which of course he feels proud of. He received from his church a nice suit of clothes besides some other lovely gifts, which were presented to him in the afternoon. Pictures were made of those present after which they all enjoyed a good prayer meeting, then each one returned to their homes with a heart full of thanks and rejoicing over the grand day they spent with Rev. Epley, wishing for him many happy returns of the day.

Mrs. Bill Lowery, better known as "Grandma" Lowery, from Henrietta, is spending this week here with Mr. and Mrs. Adam Tessenier.

Mrs. Walter Halford and children spent last week-end with her mother at Inman, S. C.

Mr. Bunyan Henderson, of Chesnee, is this week's guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Henderson.

Mr. John Green moved from the village Monday over to his home which he has just purchased on Church street.

Mr. Fletcher Jackson and three children were the guests of Mrs. L. M. Jackson Sunday.

Mrs. Will McCluney, Messrs. Sam McCluney and Roy Noblett visited Mrs. R. S. McCluney on Route 2, Sunday.

Mrs. Beard and little daughter have returned from Georgia where they have been for some time.

Mr. Robert Sisk was the guest of his mother Sunday at Marion.

He Can Do That

Boss:—"I'm expecting a collector in soon; act like I'm out of town!"

Clerk:—"I don't know whether I can do that or not."

Boss:—"Sure you can, just sit there doing nothing."

Back For More

"Say, Jack you're an old friend of the family, did you kiss the bride?"
