Columbia, S. C.—"Two years ago I was in a very weak and rundown condition. At times the suffering was so intense that I was unable to keep on my feet long. Finally my sister-in-law urged me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I took three bottles and it did wonders for me, in building me up, regulating every organ of my body, and giving me strength. A little baby girl came to our home some months ago, a perfectly healthy, good-natured child, weighing 10 lbs., so both my child and myself received great benefit."—Mrs. S. W. $400,000 LAKE LURE HOTEL UNDER CONSTRUCTION

$2,000,000 Tourist Hotel To Follow—Work On Lake Lure Town to Begin Shortly.

Chimney Rock, N. C., Feb. 20.—With the completion of preliminaries by landscape engineers under direction of E. S. Draper, of Charlotte, actual construction has begun on the $400,000 Lake Lure hotel, a fireproof building, to be erected by Potter and Shackelford of Greenville, S. C. Plans which are now being drawn for the large $2,000,000 tourist hotel sponsored by the Continental Hotel Corporation, owners of the famous Shelton Hotel in New York, are expected to be ready shortly, but the smaller hotel will be rushed to completion and opened to the public, it is expected, during this season.

In addition to the above, construction will also shortly be commenced by the same contractors, on one solid block of two-story brick store buildings, followed closely by the bus terminal, boat pier, bathing beach and dancing pavilion. This town will be known as Lake Lure, and is being developed under the supervision of eminent landscape architects with orders to create a model town around an idea of civic center, the central plaza of which will contain the famous bottomless pools.

A crew of forty-six engineers, under direction of Charles H. Moore, are actively engaged in surveying and subdividing the townsite. The development company is spending more than five million dollars total to carry out their ideas of what a mountain-lake pleasure resort of national scope should be. The 13 square miles of territory covered by their property owned fee simple has thereon a number of the major scenic attractions in this region.

Some great pictures are coming to the movie. Read the program in today's paper.

"BOB" REYNOLDS ANNOUNCES FOR U. S. SENATE

Asheville Man After Overman's Seat and Will Make Stirring Campaign.

HIS OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

In about as interesting a political statement as usually gets into print, R. R. ("Our Bob") Reynolds, of Asheville, makes formal announcement in this week's Courier of his candidacy for the seat in the United States Senate now held by Senator Overman.

His statement is a frank solicitation for votes, with the assurance that he will "fight for the things my party believes in and my friends and neighbors want done." Nobody in particular urged him to run, he says, but since his ardent ambition has been made known, many assurances of strong support have been forthcoming.

"Our Bob" is popular in Rutherford county and will receive a strong support. His formal statement follows:

To the Democratic Voters of North Carolina:

I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator for North Carolina. If you intend to participate in the Democratic primary next June, you will please consider this an earnest personal request to vote for me for United States Senator. This plain blunt announcement of my candidacy and personal appeal for your support may or may not tickle the ears of the groundlings and may cause the judicious and dignified in and around Washington City to grieve. However, this may be, "my hat is in the ring" and I shall carry on a vigorous campaign throughout the State till the election is over.

I am writing to a great many of my friends and acquaintances and hope to meet and get acquainted with every voter personally during the campaign. Remember, any good word or kind act in my behalf between now and the primary will be appreciated and never forgotten.

Having solicited your vote and support, it may not be amiss to tell you something of my prospects and purposes: While no one in particular urged me to offer for this high and honorable post, yet, since I have made known to my friends my ardent ambition to serve my State in the United States Senate I have had assurances of strong support from thousands of voters who have heard I wanted to make the race. I am much pleased and encouraged by the favorable consideration my candidacy has received so far.

While not, perhaps so great an honor as when Nathaniel Macon and Zeb Vance held that exalted position, the Senatorship is yet regarded highly as a position of dignity and some degree of usefulness both to State and Nation. There doubtless be among you, those who feel that I am not a big enough man for it. I will say there have been times when I myself am none too sure of my fitness, but I have the will to grow and serve. We know our political history records the slaughter of many ambitious statesmen, not to mention politicians. For that Caesar was ambitious Brutus slew him. The Democracy of North Carolina, if it sees fit, may take my measure; I can take a licking if I have to.

The rank and file of Democrats of North Carolina never have favored conferring office for life, or committing to inner circles the award of honors without limit of time, in perpetuity. The Democracy of my State does not owe me or any other man the Senatorship. I am frankly asking you to vote for me for this office, hoping if successful, in my laudable ambition, that I may be given wider opportunity to fight for the things my party believes in and my friends and neighbors want done.

I believe in friendship and party loyalty. When a friend of mine asks me for anything that I am free to grant him, he gets it. I am not expecting the support of those who are bound by ties of political affection or obligation to the incumbent Senator whose seat I wish to occupy.

There is a new day dawning, a new order arising in North Carolina. I want to rise with it and assure one and all, each and every voter that in so doing, I will never forget my raising.
