To Meet With Mrs. Rollins.

The ladies of the Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs invite members of all the Home Demonstration Clubs in the county and their families to attend a picnic at Mrs George Rollins' home near Forest City, on Thursday, June 24. Everybody is requested to arrive as near 11 o'clock as possible and bring a basket lunch.

There will be games and a contest in the afternoon, and a talk by Mrs. Tate and Mrs. Young about their trip to the Short Course at Raleigh.

Circulating Library.

A new feature of the Home Demonstration work is a circulating library, which has been loaned to the county from Raleigh for three months. In it are books on cooking, sewing, house furnishing and costume designing, all of which will be most helpful to anyone interested in these With a Colorless Liniment as Easy subjects.

IN WESTERN CAROLINA

Chimney Rock, June 14.-It is generally admitted fact that Western North Carolina is rich in natural resources, such as water power and forest products; but few people know of the wealth in gold, silver and copper ore which abounds in rich veins running on and near the surface of the mountains in certain sections of Buncombe, Rutherford, Yancey, Madison and McDowell counties as does Andrew T. Guthrie, veteran miner, who has recently

Mr. Guthrie, who is now making June 17, Oak Grove Women's headquarters in Asheville, a few days ago returned from a prospect-June 18, Harris Women's and ing expedition which took him into parts of five counties. He brought back numerous samples of ore which he declares are absolute proof that this section is amazingly rich in precious metals.

North Carolina papers some time June 23, Green Hill Girls' Club, ago stated that Mr. Guthrie was born in Buncombe county in 1853, June 24, Home Demonstration leaving his native state in early manhood for the far west. He spent 47 years mining and prospecting in different localities from the Mexican border up to the Canadian boundary line. Mr. Guthrie states that he returned to this section about six months ago intending to stay only a short time, but finding that his native state offers better prospects for gold and silver than he found The Girls' Short Course will be in most places during his prospectheld at Raleigh, from July 4 to 10 ing of nearly half a century in the usually brings back with him real
