Sure Thing If
Bride Is Cook

By KATHRYN ST. JOHN

Haphazard meals yearly ruin thousands of marriages. Most marital ships would maintain an even keel if brides knew cooking.

Many of the first year's troubles between newlyweds would be avoided if the wife were capable of preparing foods with an experienced hand. Wives are to blame for the failure of many business men in the final analysis. The business man's health depends a great deal on what he eats. And it's up to his wife to see that he gets the right kind of food. A healthfully balanced diet goes a long way toward making the tired business man less fatigued.

The expert home manager sees to it that her husband never comes home to a delicatessen lunch. There is a carefully planned meal waiting for him. The real housewife knows that an unbalanced diet means trouble and avoids it. Likewise, she appreciates the fact that variation in her menus is important. In this connection the following recipes have been selected as an aid to the home manager:

Frozen Salad.
1/2 cup mayonnaise 1/2 cup candied cherries
1/2 cup diced pine-apple 1/2 cup diced bananas
4 tbsp. pineapple juice 2 tbsp. lemon juice
1/2 cup cream 1/2 cup evaporated milk
Mix the fruit and juices. Combine milk and cream, chill and whip; then fold in the fruit and mayonnaise. Pour into a mold and pack in equal parts of salt and ice. Serve on lettuce leaves. This serves eight.

Orange Bavarian.
1 tbsp. gelatin 2-3 cup evaporated milk
1/4 cup cold water 1-3 cup whipping cream
3 tbsp. lemon juice 1/2 cup sugar
1/2 tsp. salt
Soak gelatin in cold water, add fruit juices, sugar and salt. Heat in the top of a double boiler until gelatin dissolves. Strain and set in pan of cold water. When mixture begins to set, fold in the evaporated milk and cream which have been beaten stiff.

Banana Ice Cream.
6 very ripe bananas 2 cups evaporated milk
1/2 cup lemon juice 2 cups cream
2 1/4 cups sugar 1/4 tsp. salt
Scrape off adhering fibrous portion on surface of peeled bananas. Mash and rub through a sieve. Add the rest of the ingredients in the order given and stir until all are well blended. Let stand for 20 minutes so that all sugar may dissolve. Freeze in a 1 to 6 salt-ice mixture. This recipe makes 1/2 gallon cream.

SPINDALE NEWS

Spindale, June 15.—Miss Florence Howard, assistant to Rev. W. L. Latham, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will leave Tuesday for her home in West Virginia, accompanied by Miss Lela Morris, who will be her guest for several weeks.

Mr. Forest Shuford, principal of the Spindale school, is spending the next six weeks at Duke University. Miss Amelia Stephenson, of the Central high school faculty, left Monday for Asheville, where she will attend the summer session of the Asheville Normal school.

Mr. M. D. Haney, who spent the week-end with his family in Spindale, left Monday for Durham, Danville, and other points in the Carolina-Virginia cotton manufacturing section.

Capt. B. L. Smith left the latter part of the week for Boone, where he will be an instructor in the Normal school during the summer session.

Miss Sarah Smith, who has been the attractive guest of Miss Mary Morris, returned to her home in Watertown, Tenn., the first of the week.

Mr. Joe Hamrick, who is a student at Wake Forest, arrived home last week to spend the summer vacation with his parents.

Miss Ree Williams, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Williams, has arrived home to spend the summer vacation with her parents.

Rev. W. L. Latham will conduct services at the Presbyterian Chapel Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The congregation and friends of the church are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. Max Watson returned to her home Tuesday having spent several days in the hospital at Rutherfordton.

Miss Vivian Starnes is the guest of relatives in Gastonia.

One of the attractive features of the Presbyterian church work this last week has been the Daily, Vacation Bible school, conducted for the children of the Sunday school throughout Kings Mountain Presbytery. These schools are being held with a total enrollment of several hundred, many of whom do not attend any Sunday school, and it is hoped that by this concerted effort many will be drawn to the Sunday schools of every denomination.

Misses Mary and Lela Morris spent Monday and Tuesday in Union Mills, the guest of their grandmother, Mrs. William Nanney.

Miss Edna Beasley will arrive in Spindale the latter part of the week to be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Max Watson.

Interest in Spindale centers upon the ball games being played between the mill teams. Several fast games were played last week and more are scheduled for the immediate future. The public is invited to attend all these games and thus encourage the teams in this local and national sport.

AN INTERESTING VISITOR

Mr. Robert L. Leckie, prominently identified with the postoffice department at Atlanta, Ga., was an interesting visitor Tuesday. He had just returned from the official opening at Lake Lure and is enthusiastic over this great development. In fact, Mr. Leckie likes this county so well he says he intends to come here some day and locate. Mr. Leckie had brought his father-in-law, Capt. A. C. Beckley, to the Rutherford Hospital for treatment. The latter, whose home is in Portland, Ore., had been in an Atlanta hospital for some time, but Mr. Leckie thought his chances for recovery would be better in our local institution. Mr. Leckie will return to Atlanta at once sending his wife to stay with Capt. Beckley until he has sufficiently recovered to return to his home.

A "Correct" Likeness of Washington

This heroic statue of the commander-in-chief of the first armies of the United States was made for the city of Portland, Oregon, though not yet delivered there by the artist. The western municipality has loaned it to the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, opening in Philadelphia June 1 and continuing until December 1, to celebrate 150 years of American independence. At the foot of the sculpture is shown Pompeo Coppini, the sculptor. Dr. Henry Waldo Poe, of Portland, declares the face to be the most correct likeness of Washington ever modeled.
