W. M. S. MEETS

The Baptist Missionary Society met June 11, in the church. The meeting was called to order and a short business session was held. Roll called, 35 present. Report from each circle was handed in which totalled was as follows:

- Visits to sick and strangers 124.
- Trays 16.
- Flowers 31.
- Garments 102.
- Local charity $3.50.

Just here the meeting was turned over to the Young Matron's Circle as that Circle was responsible for the program at this time. Mrs. F. E. Webb, chairman, read for devotional 53rd Psalm, prayer by Mrs. W. A. Ayers, Mrs. Carl Huntley reproduced very beautifully and interestingly our subject, Indians. Mrs. Hague Padgett sang very pathetically, "Jesus Paid the Price For Me." Mrs. Webb had invited Mrs. R. C. Smith, wife of Cliffside pastor, also a returned missionary from Japan, to be with us.

Mrs. Smith made a very interesting talk on "Japan, Their Habits and Customs." She also showed a number of garments worn by the men and the children when they wore anything at all.

We learn from the missionaries that in heathen countries the women are the burden bearers, and that Christianity is the only thing that will lift their burdens. She also showed some of the Japanese tea cups and how the Japs presented them. Mrs. R. C. Smith led the closing prayer.

PRESBYTERIAN NEWS NOTES

Rutherforddon
Under the leadership of Mrs. A. T. Banks and direction of Rev. W. L. Latham a one week's session of a daily vacation Bible school was brought to a most successful close last Friday night with appropriate and interesting commencement exercises.

Mrs. Banks left Rutherforddon Saturday morning for Gastonia, where she was to begin another school at the Armstrong Memorial Presbyterian church.

Brittain
Rev. R. T. Baker, pastor of Brittain, Union Mills and Duncan's Creek churches, motored to Davidson College Thursday of last week, accompanied by two delegates from Brittain and four from Duncan's Creek, who are in attendance upon the North Carolina Synod's Young Peoples Conference for a period of ten days.

Ellenboro
Rev. and Mrs. O. C. Houston were visitors to Synod's Young Peoples Conference at Davidson College last week when they accompanied two delegates from the Ellenboro Presbyterian Sunday school to the Conference.

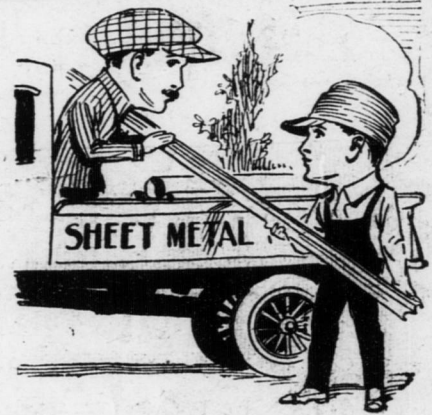

Forest City
Rev. Robert T. Adams, father of Mrs. W. L. Latham, of Rutherforddon, who was to have preached at the Forest City church last Sunday was prevented from doing so by sudden illness, much to the regret of Presbyterians here. Dr. Adams is one of the highly esteemed pastors and preachers of the Southern Presbyterian church who has done some of the outstanding work of the denomination for a number of years. Local Presbyterians regret exceedingly his illness and their inability to hear him.

Rev. R. W. Montgomery, of Bishopville, S. C., the present supply pastor of the Forest City church, has been most heartily welcomed to this city and has already won the friendship and fellowship of all with whom he has come in contact. A forceful preacher in the pulpit, a most pleasing personality and ability to make friends have won him a warm place in the hearts of local Presbyterians.

Mr. Montgomery will preach at the Forest City church on the second and fourth Sundays of each month and at Cliffside on the first and third. There will, however, be preaching services morning and night at the Forest City church next Sunday.

Tom Tarheel says any kind of clover on the farm will bring luck.

The hog outlook continues good. Many North Carolina farmers are cashing in on this farm crop this year.
