

Washington Society Likes Its Beverages in Bottles

(Harris & Ewing Photo.)

Miss Madeline Couzens, daughter of United States Senator James Couzens, of Detroit, Mich., enjoys a bottled carbonated beverage with Mr. D. Dimanesco, attache of the Rumanian Legation, at the National Capital Horse Show, Washington, D. C.

Leaders of Washington Society like their beverages "bubbly" and direct from the bottle, which fashion probably was set by President Coolidge whose fondness for ginger ale is well known. The "soft drinks" booth was one of the most popular spots at the recent show which is one of the principal annual social events at the Capital.

Sue Shytles were in Shelby shopping Saturday.

Side-dress the cotton with either nitrate of soda or sulphate of ammonia to push the crop to quick growth.

A REAL HEROINE

Edith May Adams of Barrington, N. J., the first American School girl to be entered as a candidate for the American Youth Award. The American Youth and Teacher Award was established by the Board of Directors of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition in Philadelphia as a tribute to the youth and teachers of the nation. Miss Adams is a candidate for the Golden Eaglette, the highest gift in the hands of the Girl Scouts. She was cited recently for exceptional bravery for remaining inside a blazing building helping physicians to give first aid treatment to injured firemen.

Tom Tarheel says the $25 his wife brought home from the curb market last Saturday was certainly welcome at his house.

Last year two million dollars worth of Mexican Big Boll cotton was grown in North Carolina.

Every TEXACO pump now signals

A NEW and BETTER TEXACO GASOLINE

THE TEXAS COMPANY, always active and aggressive in the development of high grade petroleum products, now offers the American motoring public a new gasoline with a combination of qualities never before attained in a motor fuel.

It is a product of perfectly balanced distillation range, more volatile, and vaporizes to a dry gas.

The new gasoline is made possible through the Holmes-Manley Gasoline Process, owned and controlled by The Texas Company, representing an investment of millions of dollars and many years' efforts of refinery experts.

The new and better Texaco Gasoline has all the good qualities of any gasoline or motor fuel, regardless of price. It contains no chemicals. It needs none. Over two million barrels of this new product are now on hand.

Stop at the first Texaco pump you see. All tanks and pumps are now supplied with the new product. Fill with Texaco Gasoline; and Texaco Motor Oil, the clean, clear, golden oil, known everywhere for its quality, full body and purity. You will note with pleasure the improved operation and condition of your engine.
