MRS. THOMAS ENTERTAINS

The palatial home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thomas, was a scene of unusual beauty Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. Thomas entertained at a rook party at 4 o'clock, honoring her house guest, Mrs. Dixon Smith, of Columbus, Ga., and Mrs. Stowe, of Atlanta. The latter is a guest of her mother, Mrs. Coleman, and brother, Mr. Marshall Giles.

The guests were received at the front door by Mrs. J. M. Edwards and were introduced to the receiving line by Mrs. E. O. Thomas. Those receiving were Mrs. J. H. Thomas, Mrs. Dixon Smith, Mrs. Stowe, Mrs. Otto Long, and Mrs. J. S. Dalton, the latter two from Shelby. Mrs. W. R. Minish and Mrs. G. C. King directed the guests to the dining room and were greeted by Mrs. Y. L. McCordwell, of Mooresboro. From here the guests were directed into the parlor, where delicious punch was served by Misses Alice Holmes and Ruth Doggett. Little Miss Helen Thomas presented the score cards, by which each guest found their appointed place at the rook tables, where spirited and lively games were enjoyed for some time, after which tempting and delicious refreshments were served.

The entire lower floor of the handsome residence was thrown en suite, consisting of the reception hall, east parlor, library, dining room and sun parlor, and was beautifully decorated in the color scheme of pink and green, lovely silver baskets of pink roses reposing in every nook. The card tables had, as their decorations vases of pink rose buds. The dining table was a rare scene with its cover of lace and silver baskets of huge pink roses for its centerpiece and silver candle sticks holding hand-painted tapers of old blue.

Quite a number of guests were present to enjoy Mrs. Thomas' hospitality.
