LATEST NEWS FROM UNION MILLS

Mrs. Martha Jane Knott Dead.

Union Mills, Aug. 2.—The town and surrounding community were saddened on last Monday week to learn of the death of Mrs. Martha Jane Knott, which occurred at the home of her son, Mr. Thomas P. Morgan, of Shelby. Mrs. Knott had been in failing health for some time and for the last few days it was known the end was near. At an early age, the deceased was married to Mr. Morgan, being Miss Martha Jane Jones, before marriage. To this union was born one son, Thomas, who survives his mother. The husband and father preceded them to the grave many years ago. Later the widow was wedded to Mr. J. D. Knott of Granville county, this state. One son was born to this marriage, Benjamin, who died at the early age of 19 years. However the father preceded his son to the grave. Mrs. Knott joined Round Hill Baptist church many years ago, having lived in Union Mills twenty years and acted as matron of Round Hill Academy for eighteen and a half years. While living here the deceased endeared herself to hundreds of students. Mrs. Knott acted as a kind mother for the students who boarded at Round Hill and who were away from their mother and even though she has passed, her kind influence will live in the lives of these students and friends with whom she came into close contact during the 65 years of her life. Only recently she left Union Mills to make her home with her son, Mr. Thomas P. Morgan, of Shelby. The deceased is survived by one brother, Mr. Tom Jones of Spindale; one son, Mr. Thomas P. Morgan, of Shelby; two step-children, Miss and Mr. Knott, of Asheville; a number of grandchildren and friends.

The remains were brought back and funeral services were held at Round Hill Baptist church, last Wednesday week, in the presence of a large concourse of relatives and friends and interment was made in the Round Hill cemetery. The funeral was conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. A. Walker, assisted by Dr. E. Banks Dillard, of Mt. Vernon Baptist church, and Rev. C. C. Matheny, Superintendent of Alexander Schools, Inc.

Miss Jane Morgan Dead.

The many friends of Miss Jane Morgan regretted to learn of her death, which occurred at the county home of Rutherfordton, on last Wednesday night week. Miss Morgan had been in bad health since last spring, and was a few days, before her death, removed to the county home, where she died.

The deceased was never married and was in her 66th year at the time of her death. She joined the Baptist church at an early age and has been a regular church attendant since then, and has lived a good Christian life.

Surviving the deceased are two sisters, Miss Sarah Morgan and Mrs. John Koon, one brother, Mr. Briscoe Morgan, all of Union Mills, besides a large number of other friends and relatives.

The funeral rites were conducted at Round Hill Baptist church, by Rev. W. R. White, of Gilkey, and interment was made in the Round Hill cemetery. The floral offerings were beautiful and showed the love and respect of Miss Morgan's many friends.

Dr. E. Banks Dillard filled the pulpit of Round Hill Baptist church last Sunday night and preached an interesting and instructive sermon to an attentive congregation. Dr. Dillard is a former pastor of Round Hill, having resigned his pastorate to take up work elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. John Davis and family, of Chase City, Va., accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shuford, of Charlotte, visited Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Johnson, last week.

The Rev. Mr. W. B. Craig, who has been conducting a series of revival meetings at Smith's Grove, near Forest City, returned home Sunday night. Rev. Craig is pastor of the church, and was assisted in the meetings by Rev. Smith, of Chesnee, S. C. They report a splendid meeting, there being many additions to the church and a large number of converts.

There will begin a series of revival meetings at the Union Mills Presbyterian church, on Sunday morning, continuing through the 18th. Rev. A. W. Deek, a noted preacher and song leader, has been secured to assist the pastor, Rev. R. T. Baker, in these meetings. You are extended a cordial invitation to attend these services which will begin promptly at 10:30 o'clock in the morning and at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Rev. A. A. Walker, has just closed a successful revival meeting at Pleasant Grove, near Forest City. Rev. Walker was assisted in these meetings by Rev. M. L. Lennon, principal of Alexander Schools, Inc.

According to the custom a series of revival meetings began at the Camp Creek Baptist church last Sunday. Rev. Smith, the pastor, is being assisted by Rev. M. L. Lennon. The church is very fortunate in securing the services of Rev. Lennon, as he is a noted speaker, being recently from the Louisville Seminary, Louisville, Ky., and now principal of Alexander Schools, Inc.

Mr. P. H. McDaniel and family accompanied by Miss Mary Hill, all of Forest City, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Keeter, last Sunday.

Miss Elva Ellis, of Bakerville, spent last week in Union Mills, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Morris.

Mr. Joe Talberson and sisters, Misses Maggie, Gwynn and Elizabeth Palmer, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Maura Keeter, all of Asheville, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Nanney, Sunday.

Miss Julia Morris, of Spindale, visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nanney, Sunday. Miss Morris is a graduate of Round Hill Academy and the Asheville Normal, and now holds a position in the Garden City high school.

Misses Evie Lou and Veila Blanton and Mr. Carl Smawley, of Shelby, were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Bob Smart's, Sunday. They were accompanied back to Shelby by Misses Lucille and Pearl Smawley, who have been spending a week's vacation in Union Mills, the guests of relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Freeman and three daughters, of Shelby, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Morgan, this week.

Miss Winnie Stroupe, the matron of the Alexander Home for Motherless Children, leaves this week for a visit to her home in Pineville, near Charlotte. Miss Stroupe announces that three small Harris children, of Shelby, have been added to the Alexander home the past week. It has also been announced that the beautiful Hunt building, which has been purchased by the school, will be occupied by the motherless children after Tuesday, and will be in charge of Miss Stroupe's sister, who is expected to arrive this week. The present matron will hold a position as teacher in this splendid institution the coming session. She is a graduate of Greenville Woman's College, of South Carolina, and is well qualified for her work.

Mrs. R. C. Williams accompanied by her sister, Miss Louise Keeter, both of Raleigh, are spending some time in Union Mills, the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Keeter.

Mr. H. A. Barnes, accompanied by Mr. R. E. Price, made a business trip to Asheville, last week.

A number of young folks enjoyed a picnic at Aunt Polly Largents Spring on last Saturday afternoon, followed by a party given by Misses Ora and Enza Smart, at their home, honoring their cousins, the Misses Smawleys, of Shelby.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

A birthday dinner will be given at the home of Mr. J. S. Doggett, Sunday, August 8, honoring Mrs. Doggett's anniversary. Many relatives and friends are expected to be present and the occasion promises to be a most happy one. The public is invited to come and help celebrate the day. Bring a basket well filled.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL SCHOOL TAX ELECTION

Whereas a petition has been presented to the Board of Commissioners of Rutherford County, signed by the required number of qualified voters within the proposed special school taxing district, the metes and bounds of which are hereinafter set forth, requesting the Board to order an election in the territory embraced within the boundaries of said proposed school taxing district, the exact metes and bounds of which are as follows:

All of that territory bounded by Buck Shoals school district on the east and north-east, by the South Carolina line on the south, by Camp Creek on the west and north-west. To ascertain the will of a majority of the qualified voters residing in said district upon the question of creating a special school taxing district comprising the said boundaries and of levying a tax of not exceeding thirty (30) cents on the One Hundred dollars valuation of property, both real and personal, in said district, and whereas said petition has been duly approved and endorsed by the County Board of Education.

Now, therefore, the Board of Commissioners of Rutherford County, at their regular session held July 5th, 1926, do grant said petition and order that an election be held at A. L. Hamrick's in the aforesaid proposed district on Saturday, September 11th, 1926 for the purpose of ascertaining the will of the voters within the special school taxing district upon the question of levying a special tax not exceeding Thirty (30) cents on the One Hundred dollars valuation of all property real and personal in said district. It is further ordered that Vance Hamrick be and he is hereby appointed Registrar of said election and that he is furnished with a copy of this order, and that A. L. Hamrick and Rhinehardt Green be and they are hereby appointed judges of said election. It is further ordered that at said election those who are in favor of said boundry becoming a special school taxing district and of levying a special school tax in said district to an amount not exceeding Thirty (30) cents on the One Hundred dollars valuation of property, both real and personal in said district shall vote a ticket on which shall be printed or written the words, "For Special Tax" and those who are opposed shall vote a ticket on which shall be printed or written the words, "Against Special Tax," it being understood that if a majority of the qualified electors at said election shall vote in favor of said special tax then said boundaries shall constitute a special school taxing district in which a special tax of any amount not exceeding Thirty (30) cents on the One Hundred dollars worth of property may be levied for school purposes. It is further ordered that a new registration of voters residing within special tax district shall be had and that the registration books shall be kept open between the hours of 9 a. m. and sunset on each day, Sundays excepted, for twenty days preceding the day for the closing of the registration books for the registration of any voters residing within the aforesaid boundary and entitled to register and that said books shall be open for registration on Saturday August 7th, and closed on Saturday, August 28th, 1926, before said election, and that on each Saturday during the period of registration the Registrar shall attend with his registration books at the polling place in said district for the registration of voters and that on the day of election the polls shall be open from sunrise to sunset and the election shall be held as near as may be under the law governing general elections.

It is further ordered that after the closing of the polls the Registrar and poll holders shall duly certify over their hands the number of registered voters at said election and the number of votes for and against the special tax and transmit same to the Board of Commissioners and same shall be filed and the Board of Commissioners shall canvass and judicially determine the result of said election and record said determination on their records. It is further ordered that due publication of this order and of said election and new registration be made by publishing this order in The Forest City Courier once a week for three weeks, the first publication to be made in the issue of Thursday, August 5th, 1926. W. G. HARRIS, Co. Commissioner 43-3t. M. T. WILKIE, Clerk.
