Illinois Man Invents New Auto Gas Saver

Walter Critchlow, M-4331 street, Wheaton, Ill., has patented a new gas saver that beats anything ever gotten out. With it on Fords show as high as 61 miles on a gallon. Other makes do equally well. This new invention saves gas and oil, makes a Ford start instantly in any weather and completely de-carbonizes the engine. Mr. Critchlow offers one free to quickly advertise. Write him for one. He also wants county and state distributors who can make $500 to $2,500 per month. 49-2t.

CONTRACTORS PAY LAKE LURE EXTENDED VISIT

Charlotte People Take a Trip Over New Development at Chimney Rock.

Asheville, Sept. 9.—A Group of some 60 delegates from the recent convention in Charlotte of building trades and allied industries Thursday visited Lake Lure as guests of Chimney Rock Mountains, Inc., making the trip in the company busses and in private cars, with C. A. Mees, noted Charlotte engineer, heading the party.
Inspection of the mammoth dam, now 90 per cent completed, was followed by trips through Luremont and to Chimney Rock itself. Lunch and to Chimney Rock itself. Lunch was served at Lake Lure Tea Room, where Dr. L. B. Morse, head of the development company, tersely narrated the story of the big resort undertaking.
Charlotte was represented by some 25 persons, among them A. Jay Coleman, Lake Lure manager in that territory. V. P. Loftis, executive secretary of the North Carolina Chapter of Associated General Contractors of America, was like-wise present.

NOVEL OPENING OF FEED STORE AT ELLENBORO

Interesting and Novel Features for R. P. Coffield's Opening Friday and Saturday.

Ellenboro, Sept. 13.—R. P. Coffield for many years identified with the mercantile business, will hold his formal opening days Friday and Saturday of this week as retail distributor of Staf-O-Life Stock and Poultry Feeds and Milk-Flo Dairy Feed.
Coffield's Staf-O-Life Feed store will be operated along progressive lines, co-operating with the feeder and lending assistance to the development of the dairy and poultry industry in Rutherford county. Mr. Coffield, in conjunction with the Royal Feed and Milling Company, of Memphis, has planned a very elaborate program of entertainment for his formal opening. Several animal nutrition men from the mill, including the company's territory representative, Mr. J. H. Lamb, will be on hand to discuss feeds and feeding problems, with all interested parties and will be prepared to give constructive help to those really interested in the science of animal nutrition.
In side the building all day Friday and Saturday, September 17th and 18th, will be displayed a machine known as the Radio Cow, an optical illusion, which seemingly makes quantities of milk from thin air. There will also be a display of life-like mechanical chickens to amuse the kiddies.
Old Fiddlers' Contest.
At 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, on a large platform, outside the store, an old fiddlers' contest will head the bill of entertainment. The event will be contested by some of the best known bow artists in this section of the country. Cash prizes are being awarded in addition to the award of the county championship.
The next feature on the program will be a Charleston contest for both boys and girls. Lively music will be provided and with the cash prize at stake, some lively stepping is anticipated. Following the Charleston contest, a cash prize will be offered to the most convincing "hog-caller." Disputes as to the prowess of various pig yodlers will be definitely settled for Rutherford county by this contest. Refreshments will be served and Mr. Coffield promises a good time for all. Anyone interested in entering the various contests should see Mr. Coffield at the store at once.
Coffield's Staf-O-Life Feed Store will carry a complete line of Staf-O-Life stock and poultry feeds and Milk-Flo dairy feed, and will render every assistance to his customers in getting their stock and poultry on a better paying basis.
An advertisement in today's Courier will give fuller particulars of the opening. Don't miss it.

TO BUYERS OF COAL

Did you ever stop to think how much cheaper and easier it is to keep warm in the Winter than it is to keep cool in the Summer time? Ice, electric fans, vacations, trips to the mountains and seashore, paid for by the average family, make their fuel bills look small by comparison.

Don't forget about "keeping warm" next winter.
