

DISTRICT MEETING OF WOMAN'S CLUBS HERE FRIDAY

More Than Four Hundred Delegates Expected From Gaston, Lincoln and Cleveland Counties.

On Friday, October 22, Forest City will be hostess to the district meeting of the Federated Woman's Clubs of the Fourth District, which comprises 17 towns of Rutherford, Cleveland, Gaston and Lincoln counties. It is estimated that there will be more than 400 ladies present representing the clubs of the district.

Among many of the notables of the state that will be present are Mrs. Kate Burr Johnson, of Raleigh, state welfare superintendent, Mrs. Frank H. Chamberlain, district president of Lincoln, and Mrs. E. L. McKee, state president, of Sylva, N. C.

The first session of the meeting will convene at 11 o'clock in the auditorium of the Cool Springs High school building, and the following program will be given:

Club Woman's Hymn.
Collect of Club Women of America.

Greetings from Rutherford county by Clyde A. Erwin.
Hostess Club, Mrs. D. H. Sutton.
Response, by Mrs. James Abernethy, Jr.
Minutes of last meeting, Mrs. L. C. Nixon, of Lincolnton.
Appointment of Committees.
Greetings, Home Demonstration Clubs, by Mrs. Irma Wallace.
Roll Call.
Remarks from Chairman of districts, Mrs. E. H. Williams.
Vocal solo, Mrs. Nell Padgett Norris.

Message from the state president, Mrs. E. L. McKee, Sylva.
Following the state president's address, the session will adjourn one hour for lunch.

Afternoon Session.
The second session of the meeting will convene at 2 o'clock. The following program and schedule of business will be followed:

Chorus, "Old North State."
"Gems," by Mrs. Kate Burr Johnson, of Raleigh.
Report of Music Chairman.
Report of Clubs.
Questions.
Vocal solo, Mrs. A. M. Glickman.
Report of Business Committees.
Awarding of attendance prize.
Presentation of new officers.
Adjournment.

The Woman's Club movement has rendered great service to the communities which they represent. Forest City should be proud to welcome this band of noble ladies to our town and make their stay pleasant by showing them every courtesy possible.

Many Clubs to Be Represented.
Of the large number expected here Friday, there will be in attendance delegates representing clubs in the following towns: Belmont, Bessemer City, Cherryville, Dallas, Forest City, Gastonia, Kings Mountain, Lincolnton, Lowell, Macpelah, Mt. Holly, Rutherford, Shelby and Stanley. Delegates from Ellenboro, Boiling Springs, Lincolnton, Shelby Lander's Chapel, and New Hope, Gaston county, representing societies affiliated with the Woman's Clubs, are expected.

Officers of State Federation.
The officers of the North Carolina Federation, Woman's Clubs, are Mrs. Robert R. Cotten, honorary president, Farmville; Mrs. E. L. McKee, president, Sylva; Mrs. R. D. W. Connor, first vice president, Chapel Hill; Mrs. E. H. Williamson, second vice president, Fayetteville; Miss Annie Perkins, recording secretary, Waynesville; Mrs. Eugene Davis, treasurer, Wilson; Mrs. Sydney P. Coöper, general Federation Director, Henderson.

CRIMINAL COURT CONVENES NOV. 3

Civil Court Calendar of the Term—Judge Jas. L. Webb to Preside. First Term in New Court House.

Rutherford Oct. 19.—The fall term of Criminal Court will convene here Wednesday, November 3rd, with Judge James L. Webb presiding. This is the first term of court in Rutherford's beautiful new courthouse, and at this time the building will be dedicated following the convening of court.

Civil Court Calendar.
The court calendar of civil cases for the term follows:

Monday, November 8.
Poteat vs. McEntire.
Scott vs. Kenyon.
Dyer vs. C. C. & O. Ry.
Almond vs. Cinchfield Mfg. Co.
Owens vs. Thompson.
Hampton vs. Ponder.

Tuesday, November 9.
Silvers & Barnes vs. Moore.
Parton vs. Lawing et al.
Ledbetter vs. Clement Dunavant.
(Two Cases.)
Newland vs. Insurance Co.
Walker vs. Bean.

Wednesday, November 10.
Stuart vs. Clement Dunavant.
Abernethy vs. Doggett.
Digh vs. Clement Dunavant.
Citizens Mfg. Co. vs. Ellenboro Mfg. Co.
Whitesides vs. Clement Dunavant.

Motion Docket.
Dr. T. C. McBrayer vs. Hamilton.
McBrayer vs. Hardin.
Lail vs. John Wells.
Cogdell vs. Lovelace.
Messner vs. Citizens Bank and Trust Company.

POPULAR COUPLE MARRIED THURSDAY

Mr. Jewell Gray and Miss Auline Hemphill were married at the Baptist church by Dr. W. A. Ayers, Thursday evening of last week. Only members of the immediate families were present. After the ceremony the bridal couple accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hewitt, left for Atlanta, for a short visit to relatives. They have returned and are at home on Alexander road.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hemphill. Her charm of manner has won for her hosts of friends and she is considered one of Forest City's fairest young girls.

Mr. Gray is a young business man of exceptional merit and of splendid character. He has been bookkeeper at the Farmers Hardware Co. for some time and has many friends here. He is the son of Mrs. Mary Gray, formerly of Atlanta, but who now makes her home with her son-in-law, Mr. M. H. Hewitt, of this city.

Hosts of friends wish much happiness for this popular and deserving young couple.

FURNITURE SALE CONTINUES

The big removal sale of furniture, of the Forest City Furniture Company, has been successful from the start, and many are taking advantage of the low cash prices being offered. The sale will continue until the Company moves into its new quarters in the present Postoffice building.

The cash sale includes everything in the large stock and wonderful bargains are being offered. Call in and see for yourself. Located in Moss building, opposite Doggett's Garage.

BREAKS ARM PLAYING BALL

Charles, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Huntley, had the misfortune to break an arm Saturday while playing basket ball at the High school building. He was immediately given medical attention and at latest report is improving rapidly.

Just received a lot of paper white narcissus, tulip and hyacinth bulbs. Courtney's 5 and 10c Store.

Places of business, place welcoming banners and placards, in order to better impress them with our beautiful city.

FEDERATION SHIPS CAR TOMATOES

Sixth Car of Produce to Leave Spindale Since Opening of Season. Other News of Interest.

Spindale, Oct. 19.—The Farmers Federation shipped its sixth car load of truck products Monday from their warehouse here, since the opening of the season. Monday's car was filled with large, delicious Rutherford county tomatoes, consigned to the Castellini Company, of Cincinnati, Ohio. This is the second car of tomatoes shipped by the Federation within the past ten days. The first car was not filled to capacity, due to the fact that a sufficient quantity of tomatoes could not be harvested on schedule time. However, several bushels, gathered after the car had been moved, were taken to the Asheville Federation for shipment.

This is the sixth car of farm produce that has moved from Spindale since the opening of the season. Jacksonville, Fla., Charleston, S. C., and Cincinnati, Ohio, are the principal points of distribution to which it is shipped.

Mr. Bynum Buff has charge of the local warehouse and is overseer of the shipping. At present he is assisted by Miss Leigh Harrill, bookkeeper, Mr. R. A. Tribbles, packer, who is in turn assisted by M. W. Williams, Norris Clarke, Tommy Culbreth, L. W. Griffin and Harry Nance.

Mr. Hix Hill has the contract for the erection of the Federation's warehouse and work is progressing nicely. It is expected that it will be completed by November 30, or by the first week in December at the latest. It is to be a large brick and stone structure, and when finished will be of sufficient size to amply take care of all produce that may be offered for shipment by the members.

Epworth League Organized.

After more than two month's canvassing and preparation, a senior Epworth League was organized at the Methodist church Sunday evening. The organization was due to the spontaneous demand of the young people of the Sunday school for some mode of cultivation of Christian fellowship among themselves and for the greater promotion of recreational and social activities among the young people of the town. For several weeks tentative meetings have been held each Sunday evening which have been well attended and much enthusiasm shown. The election of officers Sunday resulted as follows: President, Clarence Griffin; vice president, Miss Emma Sue Kistler; secretary-treasurer, Miss Mary Lavender; pianist and Epworth Era agent, Miss Gertrude Clarke; department superintendents, Misses Gladys Griffin, Inez Keller, Pilgrim and Mildred Williams.

Workers Council Meets.

The Worker's Council of the Methodist Sunday school, held its last meeting of the conference year at the Spindale House Wednesday evening. Much routine business was disposed of. All of the 11 teachers in the Sunday school were re-elected for the next conference year. Mr. Fred C. Kinzie, who has served so well as superintendent of the school for three years was also re-elected, as well as Mr. R. R. James, assistant superintendent. Mrs. T. O. Hendrix was elected as pianist with Miss Gertrude Clarke assistant, and Mr. G. B. Howard, choirster. Ivy Cowan secretary and treasurer and Clarence Griffin, assistant.

Rev. O. L. Simpson, the pastor, left Tuesday to attend the annual conference, which convenes in Gastonia, Wednesday.

Reed-Hudgins Wedding.

Mr. Olin Reed and Miss Bertha Hudgins were married last Saturday.
The young couple is widely known and very popular. Mr. Reed holds a position with the J. Y. Yelton and Son Furniture Co.
Mrs. Reed is the daughter of Mr.

OFFICER PUTNAM INJURED SUNDAY

Sustains Broken Leg When Motorcycle is Struck by Car Near Rutherfordton.

Traffic officer B. E. Putnam was knocked from his motorcycle Sunday afternoon, near Rutherfordton, in a collision with a car, resulting in a broken leg to the officer, and minor injuries to his motorcycle.

The accident occurred at the Rutherfordton Seaboard depot. Mr. Putnam, who was returning to Forest City, from Rutherfordton, was hit by a Ford Roadster, which was coming into the highway from toward the depot. Mr. Putnam tried to avoid hitting the car, by running into the side ditch, but was unsuccessful. It is reported that the car was traveling at an excessive rate of speed and made no stop after hitting the motorcycle. The name of the party driving the car has not yet been learned.

Mr. Putnam was immediately removed to the hospital, where his injuries were attended, and at last report is resting well.

During the early summer months Mr. Putnam's motorcycle threw him at Spindale, breaking a leg, which necessitated remaining in the hospital some time.

COUNTY CLUB MEETING

The October meeting of the Rutherford County Club was held in the Kiwanis Club hall, yesterday, at 1 p. m. The attendance was large and the dinner up to its usual standard.

Dr. D. D. Carroll, of the School of Commerce of the University of North Carolina, was the principal speaker. His address is conceded to be one of the best, if not the best, ever delivered before the club. He is an interesting and eloquent speaker, and captivated his audience with his excellent address.

Invitations were extended to the club to hold their November meeting at the Methodist church in Rutherfordton and also at Lake Lure. The place of meeting will be decided on by the committee and announced at a later date.

Dr. Carroll also spoke to the former students of the University of N. C., at the Alumni meeting in Rutherfordton, Wednesday evening.

PRESBYTERIAN SERVICES

Services First Presbyterian Church Sunday morning. Rev. R. W. Montgomery, pastor. Sunday School at 10:00 o'clock; morning services at 11 o'clock and evening services at 7:30. Christian Endeavor Society at 7 o'clock. Public cordially invited to attend all services.

and Mrs. J. H. Hudgins, of Spindale.

Local News of General Interest.

Miss Jacqueline Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hill, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte, Monday, October 11, and is convalescing nicely at latest report, and is expected home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Williams, Miss Evelyn Waddell, Mr. Ivy Cowan and Miss Louise Rollins, were among those here who attended the play, "Rosie Marie," in Asheville, Saturday.

Messrs. Forrest Griffin and Alton Grose left Saturday for Jacksonville, Fla.

Howard and Robert Simpson, small sons of Rev. and Mrs. O. L. Simpson, are ill with scarlet fever.

Mr. Gus Ford, clerk with W. C. Ellis Grocery Co., caught a large tarantula in a bunch of bananas Saturday. Mr. Ford placed the insect in a bottle and exhibited it at the store over the week-end. He has donated it to the local Boy Scout troop and it is being mounted for exhibition in the scout headquarters.

Rev. W. A. Barbour, conference Epworth League field secretary, of Greensboro, was present during the Sunday school hour at the Methodist church Sunday morning and made a fine talk on Epworth League work.

SOCIETY VISITS COUNTY HOME

Program Given by Ladies' Missionary Circle for Inmates. Local News of Interest.

Carleean, N. C., Oct. 19.—A large number, including most of the members of the Coopertown Circle of the Ladies' Missionary Society met at the Carleean Company Store Sunday afternoon and went to the Rutherford County Home, where they were graciously received by the superintendent and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Royster. The party was shown over the building and premises and a program had been prepared by the ladies and was rendered very effectively in one of the spacious living rooms for the inmates, after which Rev. R. N. Childress preached a very interesting sermon which was enjoyed by all, especially several of the older men and ladies who were moved to tears during the sermon and the song service. Several requested songs were sung and Mrs. T. M. Ferree sang very impressively, "The Ninety and Nine." Baskets of fruit, home made cakes, candy and many nice things were taken to those who, though comfortable and cared for are missing the wonderful joys of a real home. Many hearts were made glad and each one urged that the occasion be repeated often.

Quilting Party.

On last Thursday afternoon, the members of the Harriltown Circle of the Baptist Missionary Society, met at the home of Mrs. D. B. Lynch where an old time quilting party was enjoyed. Two nice, heavy quilts were quilted and made ready for sale, the proceeds of which will go for mission work. Several weeks ago, each member of the circle was given a pattern and asked to piece a square for a quilt, which each one did, and the purpose of this meeting was to finish the quilts. The occasion furnished quite a lot of pleasure and Miss Mary Lynch served delicious sandwiches and lemonade to the following members present: Mesdames Winnie Carter, Jim Head, Dob Hamrick, Isaac Lancaster, Lawson Hollifield, O. A. Lynch, Norman Hamrick, N. K. Allen, G. C. Harrill, D. B. Lynch, Miss Arrie Suggs, Mrs. Charlie DeBure, Mrs. Joseph Randall, and Mrs. Dock Wilson.

Locals and Personals.

Mr. Henry Baynard and family, moved into Mr. John Hamrick's home near Carleean this week. Mr. Hamrick moved recently to Forest City.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hoke and daughter of Charlotte are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Phillips.

Misses Kathleen Wilkie and Ruth Walker, of Rutherfordton, spent the week-end here visiting Miss Alda Smith.

Messrs. Bruner Beam, R. G. Francis, Jim Earley and B. A. Hamrick, enjoyed a motor trip to Asheville, Lake Lure and Marion, Sunday.

Misses Helen Wilson and Essie Hemphill, members of the Carleean school faculty, spent the week-end at their home in Nebo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Harrill and daughters, of near Concord church, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Harrill.

Mr. George Simpkins, who has been spinning room overseer here for a few months, is moving this week to Shelby, where he has accepted a position.

Mr. Fate Croker, who holds a position in Charlotte, spent the week-end here visiting his family.

CHAUTAQUA AT BOSTIC

The Radcliffe Chautauqua Bureau are giving a three day program in Bostic this week. The first program, given Wednesday afternoon, was the Swiss-Alpine Singers and Yodlers, with a lecture by Dr. Guy Bingham. Wednesday evening's program was given by the same performers. Thursday's program will comprise musical selections and lectures. On Friday The Oakley Concert Company will entertain with one of their matchless programs afternoon and evening. Dr. Clark Eichelberger will lecture on "The Fireside" at the afternoon program and "The Dreamers" at evening.

HOEY TO SPEAK AT CLIFFSIDE

Opening Speech in Democratic Campaign in Rutherford County, Friday Evening.

Hon. Clyde R. Hoey, the silver-tongued orator of Shelby, will fire the first gun in the democratic campaign in the county Friday evening at Cliffside.

Mr. Hoey will deliver an old time political speech to the people of lower Rutherford county, beginning at 7:30 p. m., in the main hall at Cliffside. All are invited to come out and hear Mr. Hoey, as he is one of the best speakers in the state, and will have something worth while to say to all.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT. WOMAN'S CLUB, MEETS

The Music department of the Woman's Club held its first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. R. L. Reinhardt, October 15. Among the announcements of interest was that of the organization of a junior Music Club at the High school, on October 20, this club to be composed of students of voice, violin and piano. Miss Mary Wilder and Mrs. C. A. McDaniell were appointed as a committee to assist Miss Goggans in this work. Miss Wilder will be in charge of the memory contest.

During the program, Mrs. Nell Padgett Norris, accompanied by Mr. Norris, sang "To a Wild Rose," and "Indian Love Call," revealing the richness and beauty of her voice.

The afternoon's program was entirely delightful and gave promise of a most enjoyable club year.

Assisting Mrs. Reinhardt as hostess were Mrs. R. W. Minish, Miss Prisca Gaines and Miss Margaret Sloan. Delicious refreshments were served to the members and as guests, Mr. Wesley Norris, Mrs. D. H. Sutton, Mrs. J. W. Sanders, Mrs. Stratford, Miss Margaret Young, Miss Pauline Huggins, Mrs. J. A. Dennis and Mrs. Walker.

KIWANIS CLUB NOTES

Monday evening the club devoted its time to two splendid addresses by Prof. Sutton and Eushong on instructive talks on help for the farmer. Both are agreed that the farmer must have more live stock and poultry and diversified farming.

Next Monday evening will be ladies' and teachers' night. An interesting program is expected.

Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Barber and Mr. Harry Gregg, attended the fair at Gaffney on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Mal Tate spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Tucker, in Pomeria, S. C.

Miss Alice Barber was elected president of the North Carolina Club of Limestone College, Gaffney. This is quite an honor to Miss Barber and her many friends will be delighted to hear of her selection.

Mrs. Y. L. McDowell, of Mooresboro, spent Tuesday here.

Mrs. A. C. Jones and granddaughter, Martha Greene, spent Sunday with relatives in Lattimore.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Welch and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Roberson, went to Spartanburg, Monday night, to hear Will Rogers and the De Reske Singers.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Teal and sons James and Charles, of Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Rhyne, of Dallas, spent Sunday here with their mother, Mrs. C. M. Teal. The occasion celebrated the birthday of Mrs. Teal, and a surprise birthday dinner had been planned for her. The others present were Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Davis and children, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Morris, Miss Ollie Teal and Mr. Wofford Teal. All of the members of the family being present except Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Teal, who live in Alabama.

The very best of seed oats just arrived. Let us quote you prices. Horn's Cash Store.