

Local Happenings

Miss Lucy Cage, of Peabody College, Nashville, gave a lecture to the grammar grade teachers of Spindale and this place at the graded school building, recently. Her subject was "Child Problems."

Candies, pure and wholesome, highest quality, cheapest in price. Courtney's 5c, 10c, and 25c Store.

Mrs. W. M. Harris was hostess to the Missionary Society of Main Street Methodist church at her home on West Main street Tuesday, October 19. The president, Mrs. A. W. Falvey, held the devotional. Bible quiz on "Life of Moses," was led by Mrs. G. C. McDaniel, after which readings were heard by Mrs. John Dalton. "To what extent does responsibility of the church include the untouchable area of life," Mrs. Arthur McDaniel read, "What is the effect of our attitude of prejudice upon the white race?"

Don't fail to see the wonderful working qualities of Duco. Demonstration at Farmers Hardware Co., Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Worth Morgan and Mrs. A. D. Dillingham were recent visitors at Union Mills, the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Morgan.

Remember the "Biggest Sale of all" at the Fair Store.

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Hooker and children of Chimney Rock were the guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. J. Worth Morgan.

Mrs. Ray Horn and little son, Geo. have recently been visiting at the home of Mrs. Horn's father, Mr. D. G. Padgett, at Adaville.

Demonstration of the wonderful working qualities of Duco at the Farmers Hardware Co., Saturday. Don't fail to visit the store on this occasion. It will pay you.

Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Ayers were recent visitors at Ridgecrest.

Messrs. Furman Baynard and Jack McCurry visited the Cherokee fair, at Gaffney, S. C., Tuesday and Wednesday nights of last week.

Miss Mollie Farmers, of Newman, Ga., arrived this week to teach school in the Grammar school.

Mr. J. McMurry recently went to Miami, Fla., where he will engage in building activities.

Try a pound of our best fudge this week. You will be delighted. Only 20c per pound. Courtney's 5c, 10c and 25c Store.

Miss Ella Clegg, of Henrietta, was the week-end guest of Mrs. J. N. McMurry.

The Reinhardt Drug Co. will hold their great One Cent Sale, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Don't Miss it.

Don't fail to attend the great Money-Saving Sale at the Leader Store.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jones spent a few days last week with their daughter, Mrs. Vernon Saunders, at Albemarle.

Mr. Frank Jones, of Charlotte, is spending a few days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Stepp, of High Point, spent the week-end in Albemarle with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Saunders.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Meares, Miss Ruth Meares and Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Black spent last Saturday in Spartanburg.

Mr. Robert Lee Harrill, of Duke University, spent the week-end here, returning to Durham, Monday.

Mrs. J. F. Alexander and Miss Nell Young returned from Gastonia Saturday after attending the Methodist conference there.

Save money by attending the big sale at the Leader Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Landrum Collins and family went to Tryon Sunday to see Mr. and Mrs. Jess Arledge.

Miss Ruth Whitner attended the Shuford reunion in Newton on Thursday, October 14th.

Jack says visit the Leader Store and save money. Big sale now going on.

Dr. W. C. Bostic, Jr., of Wheeling, W. Va., and Miss Dorothy Bostic, of Gainesville, Ga., spent a few days here with their parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Bostic.

Jack says—"We are willing to help bear the burden of cheap cotton. Visit the great sale at the Leader Store and save money."

Mr. Paul Moss, who is coach and also teacher in the Candler High school, spent the week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Moss.

Messrs. James Padgett, James Ayers and William Moss, of Wake Forest, spent the week-end with their parents here.

Fall Style Show

The Fashion Event

OF THE SEASON

FALL'S NEWEST CREATIONS WILL BE CHARMINGLY DISPLAYED BY A HOST OF ATTRACTIVE LIVE MODELS

THURSDAY, OCT. 28--AFTERNOON 4:30 to 6 EVENING 7:30 to 9:00

The Public Is Cordially Invited.

Carroll & Byers Co.

—Better Merchandise For Same Money—
FOREST CITY, N. C.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB

The Citizenship department of the Woman's Club will meet Monday night, November 1, at 8 o'clock prompt in Kiwanis Hall. Please take note of change in time of meeting. It was decided to hold all meetings of the Citizenship department on the first Monday night of each month, instead of the first Friday. Each member of the Woman's Club is automatically a member of this department and the chairman asks that all come. Monday evening, November 1, at 8 o'clock, Kiwanis Club room.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES OF FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church, held its monthly business meeting in the church Friday night, October 15, at 7:30 o'clock. Opened the meeting by singing "More About Jesus." Prayer by the president, Mrs. B. B. Doggett. Minutes of last meeting read and approved. Roll was called and the banner joyfully went to the Adams Circle, because they had five over 100 per cent of their members present.

Personal service report: Visits to sick, shut-ins, strangers, 159; trays sent out, 25; garments given, 100; flowers, 16; collection $50.90; to charity $2.95; other objects, $3.15; total $57.00; quarts of milk given, 52. The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. A. H. McDaniel, chairman of Adams Circle. Mrs. McDaniel always knows just how to do things, and she was at her best when she, with her circle, rendered the pageant, the tenth anniversary of the Margaret Fund. It was a beautiful program. At the proper time the lovely cake was uncovered and the candles lighted by Mrs. W. A. Ayers. Mrs. McDaniel explained the Margaret Fund and then the pageant carried out every phase of the work in detail.

The state mission program was also observed at the church, Tuesday October 11. It was a beautiful and very impressive program on "Life's Garden." Devotional by the president, Mrs. B. B. Doggett; talk, "Tools—Our Churches and Schools," by Mrs. C. A. Ford. Reading, "Removing Stones," Mrs. B. B. Doggett. Reading, "Industrial Centers," Mrs. J. E. Caldwell. Reading, "Showers, Gifts, Prayers and Helping Hands," Mrs. R. E. Biggerstaff. Talk, "Flowers, Souls Won to Christ," Mrs. J. C. Scruggs. Reading, "Fruit—What the State Board Has Accomplished, How More Abundant Fruit?" Mrs. W. C. Blanton. Duet, "List to the Voice," Mrs. J. F. Weathers and Mrs. R. E. Biggerstaff.

Sinkoe's Women's and Misses SMART COATS

Cloth and Fur Trimmed

Coats incomparable at their price, created from the season's smartest and finest materials, richly trimmed with luxurious furs, tailored by skilled experts, in a distinguished selection of styles and colors. Every coat beautifully lined and interlined. Straight line and wrappy models.

DRESSES TOO!

Very youthful, very simple, and very chic is every model in this group of women's and Misses' frocks for afternoon and street wear. Fashioned of silk and wool materials, in one and two piece models, with smart fashion details effectively and individually applied.

COATS

Sport coats, of suede cloths, tweeds, plaids, mixtures and novelty materials, with collars of fur, or collars of self-materials. Straightline, wrappy, and flared models—with set-in or raglan sleeves. Large pockets—or invisible slash pockets. Women's and Misses' sizes.

$9.75 TO $29.50

DRESSES

Distinction — individuality — charm. This collection of dresses is characterized by these three requisites. Every model spells youth in every detail, and is equally smart for young Miss or for the more mature matron. Many attractive and becoming colors.

$4.95 TO $19.75

SINKOE'S DEPARTMENT STORE, Forest City, N. C.