OLD FIDDLERS HAVE HAPPY MEET AT ELLENBORO

Large Attendance and Splendid Program—The Prize Winners.

Ellenboro, Nov. 22.—The Old Fiddlers' Convention, held under the auspices of the Girls Circle at the Ellenboro school auditorium Saturday, was thoroughly enjoyed by all, judging by the cheers that followed after each number on the program. The program started at 7:30 and ended at 10:30, with so many musicians in attendance that there was barely time to give each one a trial.

Such old time pieces as "Sally Ann," "Chicken Reel," "Downfall of Paris," "Devil's Dream," "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," and a number of others seemed to be in popular favor with the players, each one having their own special way of playing the piece. The only accident during the program happened as Mr. Rex Brooks was rendering his first number on the banjo. Rex broke a string immediately after he had started on "Turkey in the Straw," and declared to the writer "that he was ruined." However, he seemed to recover shortly afterward.

One of the features of the evening was the playing of the ukelele by the five year old son of Mr. W. T. Grady. This youngster played in the orchestra and in duet with his father like a veteran. He was a great hit with the audience. Another feature apart from the program was the piano monologue rendered by Mr. A. M. Hughey, of Chas. M. Stieff, Inc. Mr. Hughey received a big hand from the crowd.

The winners in the contests were as follows: Edney's Orchestra, Cliffside, 1st; Titled and Refined Orchestra, Mooresboro, 2nd; M. M. Brooks, Ellenboro, 1st violin; C. V. Jenkins, Shelby, 2nd violin; L. A. Rodgers, Ellenboro, 1st banjo; L. R. Brooks, Mooresboro, 2nd banjo; J. P. D. Walker, Hollis, 1st guitar; W. T. Grady, Cliffside, 2nd guitar.
