NOTES OF INTEREST FROM CAROLEEN

Missionary Society Holds Fine Meeting; Local and Personals About Town

Caroleen, Dec. 7.—A very interesting missionary meeting was held at the home of Miss Ella Lynch, Monday evening, the members of the Cooper Town Circle and a few visiting members being present. A fine program, with China for the subject, was planned and carried out in a most helpful manner. Special songs and prayers were rendered and a poem, "December," was given by Edith Lynch, small daughter of Mrs. Ruby Lynch. She was dressed to represent the month of December with a holly wreath and tinsel around her head and shoulders. "Silent Night" was sung as a duet by Misses Margaret Lynch and Nellie Robertson. Misses Mavis Robertson and Pearl Mitchell gave a splendid selection, "A Tither for Him." The program was well rendered. Fruits were served to the following: Misses Nellie and Mavis Robertson, Mrs. E. C. Sparks, Mrs. Archie Robertson, Mrs. Ruby Lynch, Mrs. A. F. Mitchell, Misses Ora Smart and Ethel Eborn, Minnie Harrill, Eva Vassey, Bessie Hawkins, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Vassey, Mrs. Estelle Hawkins, Mrs. T. C. Smith, Mrs. T. H. Ferree, Mrs. C. C. Higgins, Mrs. W. E. Lynch, Mrs. Urcella Lynch, Misses Margaret and Ella Lynch, Pearl Mitchell and Edith Lynch

A special day of prayer will be observed at the Baptist church here Thursday, 9th, when all the ladies and as many others as can will meet at ten o'clock and engage in prayer, which is a State-wide plea to all congregations. Everyone is urged to come out and make the meeting count for something.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Methodist church here will give their annual Christmas bazaar at the hall next Saturday week, Dec. 18. Dinner will be served, sandwiches, cake, candy, and a beautiful selection of fancy holiday gifts will be on display for sale. Every purchase will be highly appreciated and don't forget to come out.

Mr. J. T. Harris, of Forest City, and Mr. T. C. Smith spent Monday in Charlotte on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Buren Phillips visited relatives and friends in Shelby and Fallston, Sunday.

Mrs. Jim Earley is still very ill and is confined to her bed. She was taken to the Rutherford Hospital Saturday for examination, but was able to return home. Her friends here hope to see her well and out again soon.

Mr. R. C. Heyward, who left several weeks ago for New York City as employee in the head office of the Martel Mills, spent the week-end here with his family, and left this week for Batesboro, S. C., where he will be superintendent of another of the mills owned by the Martel Mills Co. He will move his family there shortly. Their many friends here regret very much to see this splendid family leave our town, but trust they will like their new home fine.

Mrs. Chas. James is assisting this week in the Caroleen Store, which is preparing for a big sale for ten days. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reed and son, Bobby, spent Sunday in Sandy Mush, visiting Mrs. Reed's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard McDaniel.

LIBERTY ST. NEWS

Forest City, Dec. 6.—Mrs. John Hamrick spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. B. B. Burnette.

Noted Music Bowl Self Sustaining

Symphony music is now within reach of the hundreds of thousands and even at the modest fees of twenty-five and fifty cents, the very finest of symphony music in America can pay for itself.

This is revealed by the annual report just made by Raymond Brite, manager of the Hollywood Bowl, America's greatest outdoor music audience chamber. The Bowl seats twenty thousand persons. During the summer just past concerts were given three times weekly. They were listened to by 293,082 persons who paid $110,188.79. This gives a surplus of nearly $1,000 over expense.

The series of concerts will be given again next summer with world famous conductors drawn from all over the world.
